EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, JANUARY 2, 1922

Elein and Oswald Clubs Win Prizes

ed from Page One

aught by the gusts and blown back-ward, or at best kept at a standstill, sending against the blast, until a man or two added extra propelling power at the rear, and pushed them forward

Used "Human Rudders"

ne of the most gaily clad of the ners had a fellow club member. ally in his ordinary garb, acting as rudder all the way up Broad street, earing and tacking him into the gale. Before the parade started there was Before the parade started there was a great rush for 'enr muffs' and gloves at Broad and Porter streets. A little store on the corner there had a supply of both in the window, and long before the parade began a score of men were pounding at the doors to get in. Even patroimen, half frozen, were enger to buy the ear muffs. When the pro-prietor opened his shop the crowd swarmed in so fast the police had to make them stand in line. The shop make them stand in line. The shop was sold out in a few minutes. The wind not only made it difficult for the fancy dress clubs to get in line and start, but it also caused frequent delays after the parade started, and led to gaps here and there in the line, which were closed up, however, as the parade approached the reviewing stand at City Hall.

Baizley Leads, as Usual

John H. Baizley, former Councilnear, and time honored leader of new year's parades, rode proudly a head as neual on a white horse, just behind the line of mounted police. He was fol-lowed by the Silver Crown Club, Then game the Charles Klein Club, last year's came the Charles Klein Club, last year's first prize winner, and the Lobsters. The fancy dress division, as in for-mer years, led the shooters. The first of the comic clubs to march was the League Island Association. Then came the Jack Hines Old-Timers and the Oswald New Year Association, the lat-ter the first-prize winner for comic clubs last year.

clubs last year. Satire, of course, predominated in the comic clubs. All the fads and Gibles of the day were hit off, prohibi-Jon coming in for more than its full mare of caricature.

The parade was viewed by Mayor Moore and his Directors at City Hall. Councilmen, other city officials and their families and friends were in a grand-stand built on the south side of City Hall. It was here that the crowd pressed, most densely, and the mammers did their best to win plaudits and The windows of office buildings were lined with faces, as were the winatte. Splendid police provision was made or the parade. The Reserves, in charge of Lieutenant Wassing, their commander, handled the crowds City Hall. Details from many suffying stations were drawn in to patrol the route and were standing on the curb line at intervals of fifteen feet from start to finish. There were few accidents, and the best of order was preserved from start to finish.

LILIES OF FIELD OUTDONE BY CLUBS

Behind the cavalcade of steam-exusing horses and bibbed and tuckered pe- They en and the first band in the Mumparade, marched the chevaliers of ver Crown with all the confident

The last of the rest of the r

Members of the Silver Crown Marching Club are shown as they passed Ritner street on Broad street, working hard to control their cape. which is being tossed about by the wind. The club won third prize in the fancy dressed clubs awards. Below are members of Quaker City String Band. They won first prize in the string-band award bootleg liquor to characters from the tions resembling snow shovels in gencomic section of newspapers, was rep-resented by the shivering mummers. The star of

The star of the League Island con-The Oswald Club in particular had a tingent was Harry Horner, of 3320 ⁴⁹, rich assortment of comedians in its Wharton street, who represented a low nutt, portrayed by Leo Callahan, 1734 at first glance appeared to be seated fir Wolf street, who bore a striking simi-iarity to the cartoonist's drawings. arity to the cartoonist's drawings. Another Oswald character was the a closer examination disclosed a suit Bootlegger, shown by Samuel Pozzute, of flesh-colored tights.

They had also an eighteen piece band, called Ireland's First Enad, which was strong on green, if short on music. Harry Smith, 350 South Eighty-third street, another of the Oswald henchmen, attracted considerable attention by his

Tiny Shooter Is 'Lost.' But Gets Back Into Line

Harry Strophus, of 925 Cherty street, dressed up as a clown today and started out to be a regular New Year's shooter. As Harry is only nine years old, he got lost when he mixed with the crowd around City Hall. He began to cry for his mother, and was taken to Central pollee station, and given a piece of cake to cat. Mrs. Mary Doyle, a neighbor, 020 Cherry street, who had started out with Harry, found him in time for him to join the tail end of the procession.

ITALIAN AND U. S. SAILORS

attacked about a dozen American jackies to another seeking out and attacking Philadelphia?

Otto the trouble.

Four heralds with trumpets, in crim-son and gold, led the band, followed Firemen Also Are Entertaining as Part of Festivities by two pages in white silk, bearing the banner of the Hegeman New Year Association. Frank J. Coyle is musical rade today. director of the band.

The Trixie String Band, of Darby, led by Paul La Charme, followed, There were sixty musicians, clad in residents dressed in brilliant raiment marched the streets of the town from There were sixty musicians, the one end to the other. black and white, surrounding the one end to the other. The firemen at both Firehouses No. 1 and No. 2 are having open house all the one end to the other. The firemen at both Firehouses No. To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger

Music. The Quaker City String Band, from day. New Year's Eve the ladies' auxiliary

Sixteenth and Porter streets, was led by William Valentine. There were seventy "Hindu Princes." dressed in pink and yellow, with pink turbans and long yellow capes flapping in the wind, depicting "Aladdin and His Won-ding the turbans. The committee in charge of the dance included Mrs. Robert Marsh. Mrs. W. W. Bache, Mrs. Joseph Clifton and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, W. Bache, Mrs. Joseph Clifton and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, erful Lainp." The Aqua String Band, in red, yellow and blue troubadour costumes, was fifth in line. Seventy-five musicians, from the Eleventh Ward New Year HOWAT SEEKS RELEASE Validity of Kansas Industrial Law Levrer is musical director of the band. The Independent String Band, from Charles II.

Cont in Kansas City, Kan. today. Judge Pollock frequently interrupted both Attorney General Hopkins and Phil Callery, Howat's attorney, to tell

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

Letters to the Editor

Site for Fair

To the Editor of the livening Public Ledger: Sir-I read in the EVENING PUBLIC for the first time, and may we not, are living in the past, and if you meet their descendants, choose it the second any of them and they find you are from time?

 Five Jackies Wounded With Knives
 Five Jackies Wounded With Knives
 During Attack at Shanghai
 Shanghai, Jan. 2.—(By A. P.)— Serious trouble between salvers from Italian and American warships here developed today when a band of some two-secre Italian sallors surprised and the City Hall. The Delaware River the specied to be finished in the construction of the City. Hall. The Delaware River
 the specied to be finished in the specied to be finished in two-score Italian sallors surprised and from the City man, but the but inshed in ket street. There are those who think attacked about a dozen American jackles in a cafe and then went from one cafe could be a greater spot for a city like that unless you live in Germantown — you are really pose that their creditors cancel some of the indebtedness. But why pick on America first? Why not cancel some Darby had its first New Year's pa- of their internal debt and keep faith rade today. Headed by the Trixic String Band. Builden by the Drixic String Band.

All Bad and Some Worse

Sim-In a recent letter to your Peo-ple's Forum a writer ends with this menanging verity: "Parents can do unchanging verity: "Parents can do more to keep their children decent than all the laws ever conceived by man and reformer. They won't, however: that is the depressing fact of the matter. Parents who go in for jazz, movies, vellow news and "literature" and yellow news and "literature" and tenth century "religious" dogmas are foredoomed to raise wastrels and morons and boncheads. The minds, morals and impulses of the overwhelming majority of this Nation's population are in a state of of-fensive decomposition. This is due Involved in Habeas Corpus Suit fensive

A Militant Tone

Is Ours Really a "City of Brotherly Love"? Gives Reasons for Complaint fo the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-I notice the controversy that is toing on in the People's Forum among toing on in the People's Forum among To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger.

To the Editor of the Evening Public Linux Sir-I read in the Evening Public Linux LEDGER the amount of population the fair will draw no matter at what loca-tion it is situated. Among fourteen sites named I would suggest that, after all, why not choose the upper Fair-all, why not choose the upper Fair-all, why not choose the upper Fair-all, why not choose the upper fair-and fathers and grandfathers chose it respondents have pointed out that strangers must go through a sort of an evolution here before the refined people some other place, or do not have a long will take them up or show them even line to point back to as residents of this

LIAN AND U. S. SAILORS CLASH—AMERICAN SLAIN with pride upon their ancestors for choosing the upper Fairmount Park the upper Fairmount Park the slightest respect or consideration, to do with you. This feeling does not only go as far the slightest respect or consideration, probably due to the fact that I came from a country town where every one thanks to those good-natured and good-hearted people of America (?) who are endcavoring to make the life of a stranger in this city a little more cheerin the EVENING PUBLIC West Philadelphia are considered to isolated groups of American. Five Americans sustained knife Five Americans sustained knife full conditions are considered to full conditions here, as far his injuries. The attacks were the outgrowth of a triffing brawifin a cafe, following which the triffing brawifin a wate, following which the tr his injuries. The attacks were the outgrowth of a triffing brawifin a cafe, following which the Italians gathered the raiding party. which was armed with knives and syv-eral revolvers. The Americans are de-clared to have been unarmed. All shore liberty from the wateraft has been suspended in consequence of Europe's Debts ing of either the name of the term of both-BERNARD PORTER Philadelphia, December 28, 1921. Europe's Debts ing of either the name of the term of both-ter which way I turn I feel it. No one seems to pay me any attention, but to be rude to me. I am pushed and cuffed about because I have found it neces-stary to make this my home. The long to that set who erected the edifice and whose family has long supported the church. My neighbors are to be reckneed by name only, without any

All shore suspended in consequence of the trouble. ARBY NEW YEAR SHOCTERS HOLD THEIR FIRST PARADE HOLD THEIR FIRST PARADE Philadelphia, December 29, 1921. the people who look upon a stranger with a contemptuous smile

A Country Boy's View I hope I have not taken up too much their To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: IR. Sir-I have been in this city for close of your valuable space. A LONELY EXILE. Philadelphia, December 28, 1921. to a year, and have been an occupant of a boarding house in a nice location

Sarcastic Raymond

to be able to get on here at all, and have tried to find out the reason, but to be able to get on here at all, and have tried to find out the reason, but have not been able to discover the ing Powders of a Nation." I breezed trouble, unless it be, as some of your writers state, that the people of this city care nothing about the stranger. During my entire residence here I During my entire residence here I have not found any companionable sleep no more in your underwear." Syoung men who were willing to become I dolled myself up in my blue serge suit have not friends, although in the country town from which I came I had a host of friends, and every one seemed willing to respect and associate with me. Here however, folks act differently, for the reason, probably, they feel they have stupor under the influence of scrapple, enough acquaintances and do not care As a result of my disillusionment I am to take in any more. The attitude people have shown to into the wild night life trying to forget and have plunged madly into the wild night life of Erdenheim. RAYMOND S. me has been one of suspicion, and I see no reason why it should be that Philadelphia, December 27, 1921.

see sporting events within the present year. The money paid for admissions he estimates at $200,000,000. Highest Point In Pennsylvania To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-Where is the highest point in M. R. F. Poems and Songs Desired

Ivania? M. Philadelphia, December 27, 1921

Naval Deserters

New Citizens

Philadelphia, December 22, 1921.

try are native-born United States

Both of your children bern in this roun-and muy enjoy on the privileges and rights

"W. I. W"--Vn Agreement to , and ar

D. L. C. -Gradulard flux rise ave nove storts enter collateres that the

Galvanized boat Pumps

New York Contraction of the second second

LFORD'S HEIK"

L. D. Borger Co., 59 N. 2d at.

manunity was mide between Correspondent

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 2.—(By A. P.)—Hearing on an application for the release on a writ of habras corpus of Alexander Howat and August Dorchy, physicians, reformers and writers, Scideposed officers of the Kansas Mine Workers Union, was begun in Federal Court in Kansas City, Kan. today. Index Belleding Belleding Participation (1997) (19

Anong them: Anong figure persuaded to wear stockings.

The piece de resistance, perhaps, was gether with the cold and a dull clicking dies, our of Sheba costume worn by sound, and his teeth were tapping a T he Queen of Sheha costume worn by fehnnie Walton. "Ya dont hafta die more'n wunst." said Johnnie cheerfully. tremulous tattuo un aloft lifted off his overcoat and exed his entirely bare chest and shoulto the wind.

Here's Trotzky's Navy "He took a last pull at his eigarette fore he moved into line, saying: "I an't care how dead it kills me slong don't care how dead it kills me slong the prize comes. I worked a long time and spent a lotts dough on this

Other days in the year, not counting ing plant.

Another allurement to pneumococci 326 Preston street.

ther days in the year, not counting days. Walton works in a beef-pack. plant. mother allurement to pneumococci "Al" Shepherd, whose home is at Preaton street. guess you might call me the Lady," said "Al," throwing open trap and revealing an expanse of s wrap and revealing an expanse of re flesh above the fourth rib. His along the line.

knees were bare, and his calves were covered only with the sheeres There were some three yards the sheetest slik. of his gown and less than a half of rank. All wore a rope of clothes- mers' parade yard of cloth on his body. pins around the waist in lieu of eart-Jim Ryder, who said he was a Rusridges.

sian ballet dancer, gave promise of offering a little more resistance to the elements. His costume was thin but nause, and he might have worn what beneath it.

What everybody said was "a knockwas the tantasy in dry goods the along by Frank Keenan, captain ne Lobster Club, and his seventypages

Mr. Keenan and his coterie succeeded setting themselves into the contrap-n at just about two minutes before e parade began. It was said that tey had been at it from midnight. Jake Stinger, a veteran of seventy ars and at least forty New Year carwis, the oldert man in line, marched the Lobsters. He was a king

Littlest Lobster Happy

The littlest Lobster in line was Char-Forth, aged four, who were a jockey and gilt overshoes.

Tank Carter appeared with the Lob-$10,000 beauty. wo bridal costumes appeared in the dress section, and each of the had considerable difficulty with They were A. Z. McGowan and Domminick, of the Silver Crown At one place Domminick got so tangled to his train that i proceed.

youngest "female impersonator four-year-old Edward Coyle, w

ONE OF THE BUTTERFLIES

12 ement of the law.'

Frank Kepdall, with the Silver Crown Marching Club on Broad street

Logins

ream of love at the seashore—a slim prove with real or feigned accentua-ons. He called himself "The Bathing it." At the last minute he was ersuaded to wear stockings. "Females" Are in Line preared to have gone studiously into the matter of female impersonations. The piece de resistance, perhaps, was keepers told to stand by on twenty more vessels. The ships are tied up at Two realistic social parasites, called in

All in all Frank had a hard time of were attired in a complicated arangement of tatters and rags. Fred Lowry, the "Count de Bum" and his brother, different ports.

1911 Cambridge street, and Ernest Gat. THEFT OF ALARM CLOCK The League Island Association led off with "The Bolsheviki Navy," headed by Admiral Trotaky and his twenty-two gallant gobs. The League Island entrant- were the twelve good men and true known two gallant gobs. The twelve good men and true known two gallant gobs.

gentlemen, whose prevailing motif was green of the most pronounced line, were son appropriated $200 worth one of the most amusing sets in the his Liberty Bonds and $100 in each

4S WINDS WHISTLE Bears old. arrested today, and the bay was held in $400 bail for the Grand their trousers. Each bad a long, wobbly one, and Aithough the cold numbed their fin-the officers had a green paynbroker's gers, more than 400 misleinus, forming insighte on their left arm, as a sign siz string bands, marched in the muss of the picks up almost everything that is Seventy-five purple and yellow Cosevable and pawns it. I wouldn't have Their feet wore long project suchs, representing the North Philadel-

FINALLY GOT DAD'S GOAT

Elkton Marriage Licenses

Elkton, Md., Jan. 2.-The new year ming. orted off with sixteen couples visiting the County Court office and procu-Hansten and Amelia Steerer, Edward R. Tryniker and Lillian M. Goriou. arles R. Blake and Geneva Vale, al Philadelphia, Jared B. Chapman

(a) Philadelinalia, Janval B., Chapman, Philadelphila, and Marie A. Warren, Tackahoe, N. J.; Eimer J. Newlin, and Susanna Farier. Chester : Rox Belta, West Grove, Ph., and Myrtle Gregg, Providence, Md.; Louis J. Dochter-nan and Catharine Doern. Battimore; Thomas D. Newell, Jr., and Mahel A. Fox, Ventuor City; Nami's W. Boyd and Derri I. (1999). Theory W. Boyd Fox, Ventnor City i Nauries W. Boyd and Penri I., siriffitz, Elittle Britada, Pa.; Frank L. Murphy, Charlestown, and Carrie E. Jones, North East, Md.: Ross J. McCennes and Mary E. Ross, Fallston, Md.: George B. Green and Ethel L. Tomlinson, Morrisville, Ph.: Abner H. Mathey and Penri Carson Trenton; C. Roy Wiebush and Berlin S. Hodgen, Lawnsteir, Theomes J. B. Hodgen, Lawaster: Theomas E. Dexter, Camp Dix, and Ida B. Lebes, Mount Hally, N. J. and Gerald F. Dell and Minuie M. Stree, Elizabeth, N. J.

Prince of Wales Reaches Rangoon

Harley

from Calcutta. $500 in Furs Taken by Thieves 推过.112.

VAN KARNEBEEK TO SAIL

rious Atlantic coast perts including Calls on President Preparatory to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Departure From Washington

Washington, Jan 2.---(By A. P.)---donkheer Van Karnebeck, head of the Netherlands arms delegation and Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Dutch Government will leave Washington to-merrow to sail from New York on the ome, having been called back to The merable hues for our fabrics. Amsterdam Wednesday Hague he huportant State offairs not only to present to Mr. and Mrs. sied a terrible conflict. With the ad-Harding his New Year greetings to vent of the war, dyes could not be had them and to the American nation, but by our courtry. A bright light loomed also to express his high appreciation up and seemed close at hand. What of American hospitality and of the light was that? No other than the friendly spirit shown by the United American chemist. After having com-States toward Uthand Lotan base computance vacuum States toward Holland. Later he called pleted experiment upon experiment reon Secretary Hughes.

amuel Shultz, of 4451 St. Davids at his son appropriated converting assisted by Jonkheer de Beaufort.

NEGROES HOLD JUBILEE

velective, and the response was by Saulcel Allen, of Lawndale. The other speakers were the Rev. P. O'Connell, elso and partie and partie it. I wouldn't have cel Allen, of Lawndale. The other "d unded, but hist night he took my ainra; elso k after I had set it and gone to sheep. Today I has a day of work, Garvey, the commercial leader of the and that I can't stand." Negro race in this country. The exercloses began at 3 o'clock; a parade fol-lowed, and there will be a banquet in the Armory reception room this co-

EDDY YOUNGEST MUMMER free

Parades With Silver Crown Club and -

Tells the World His Name The poingest minimer who was in me welly is Edward McGlinchy, 1423 and Twentieth stort, who is two and ball years old. To Complete Webster's Dictionary to the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-I am an Italian and have three chil-trees the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-I am an Italian and have three chil-trees the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-I am an Italian and have three chil-trees the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-I am an Italian and have three chil-trees the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-Vill you please tell me, approxi-mately at least, how long it took. Now in the clarities of an end? Could it vote when becoming of age? South Twentieth storet, who is two and

Cash, elothed in a heavy blue case with a big blue hat, which partly enverse a mas, of blonde curls, "My manufactures"

Early street, strutted along with the labsters. His costume was principally a cape and one worked out 10 its trimmings

SIX BANDITS ROB MAN

Leap From Auto and Escape With All His Valuables

Six bandits leaped from a large tour. Rangoo, British India, Jan. 2.- (By A. P.) - The Prince of Wales, continu-ing his tour of India, arrived here today - p Benjamin J Kelausner, 4737 Walit street, took all his vuluables, got lack into the automobile and drove Kelausner reported to the police that Bloomsburg, Pa., Jan. 2.-Robbers the thieves stole a gold watch and storday broke into the fur house of chain, diamond scarf pin and $150 in jurley Mordan, taking $500 worth of cash. The robbers were of gouthful apcush. The robbers were of gouthful apkunk, mink and muskrat furs. pearance.

Philadelphia, December 29, 1921.

The American Chemists

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger Sir—Prior to the ending of the nine-teenth century it was the natural habit for this country to import dyes from Germany. It was a well-established Philadelphia. December 21, 1921. The penalty for describin is trial by continuantial, and in case of conviction, a sentence of from six months to three years. generally, and dishonorable discharge at expiration of sentence. However, few serve full terms, but are restored to duty and pay and their good name. The circum-tences of each case determine the senfact that the latter country had the rethe sources and brainy men to compound for those substances which afforded innu-

But behold ! Dark clouds began to He went today to the White House collect and in conglomeration prophe-or only to present to Mr. and Mrs. sied a terrible conflict. With the adstances of each case determine the sen

Sir-Do they have compulsory Philadelphia, December 27, 1921 sults were obtained. The American chemist has made, and Compulsory vaccination was made a lar The American chemist has made, and is making, dyes that are equal, if not superior to the dyes from Germany. Not only in the dye industry, but also in other phases of chemical manufacture, our chemists have achieved success. It is said that if the war would have is superior to the output out the the course of our chemists have achieved for the superior to the superior to the course of output of the superior to the superior to the superior to the course of output of the superior to the superior to superior to the course of output of the superior to superior to superior to the course of output of the superior to the superior to superior to the course of output of the superior to the superior to superior to the course of output of the superior to superior to the superior to superior to the superior to the superior to superior to the superior to superior to the course of output of the superior to superior superi that such stories were published when he was a student, and subsequently "didn't mean anything." "didn't mean anything. Another phase of the chemists' work is to experiment along agricultural lines. The American chemist is ever in-the american chemist is ever in-lines is to experiment along by in-lines. The American chemist is ever in-the american chemist is ever in-in the the american chemist is ever in-in the american chemist is ever in-in the american chemist is ev

Questions Answered

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-Will you please tell me, approxi-mately at least, how long R took Noal Webster to complete his dictionary:

J. W. L. Philadeinnis Frecombes 27, 1021.

as, of blonde curis. "My many's bidy" was his reason e to admirers. Ung the line. Charles Ferris, three years old, 1544 mily street, strutted along with the absters. His costume was principally as worked out in its trimmings.

of United States officers "D. C. H." A conference fulls a with authority to take final action tors definitions then had appeared in any idenary could reme

Letters to the Editor should be is rior and to the point av poisible, rolding neighbor that would open consumational or sectarian dis-

No attention will be paid to anony and betters. Names and auto-and be signed as an evidence -and talls, although names will r a winted if request is made th Names and addresses request is made that be omlited. roblication of a letter of not be taken as an inforsement of its two by this paper. Communications will not be returned unless accompanied by post-only excuse for an army and navy civilized world." he said. G. N. H.

- ALLOLING ANTIAN BURGLOW

Philadelphia, December 29, 1921

Wants Name of Author

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: -I wish to learn the author of a poen h contains the following lines: hich contains the follow "Woe's me," said little Sort I see a black cloud in the West. fear there'll be a storm tomorrow I fear there'll be a storm tomorrow. I fear there'll be a storm tomorrow. I should like to have the complete poem. It. W. S.

Philadelphis, December 30, 1921. ----

"The Golden Wedding"

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-I am inclosing the remainder of the old song "The Golden Wedding," requested by "H. L. T." in the Evening Public LEDGER of recent cate. The first verse as printed and inclosed is correct. This morning at breakfast I said to my wife:

vaccina-"But one golden wedding we see in a life, 'The now fifty years since the elergyman sald. In his clear ringing voice. With this ring 1 thee wed. "So lt is, so it is " said my dear old wife

Let have our old wedding day over of we wain. went to the church with our checke all aglow With a love in our hearts which we had years ano.

CHORUS

Oh, for the golden vision On, for the golden vision Oh, for the original glow'
Oh, for the golden day dreams, Fifty years ago!
Oh, for the merry volces And the songs that we used to sing.

Over Twenty-one Years of Age To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Telling my boys of heavenly joys Found in the wedding ring.

is to experiment along agreeded in the sole of the sol

If this child was born in this country it, would be a United States eithern and upon reaching the age of twenty-one would be entitled to the privilege of voting. The thought or no wish that was not for

S. L. R.

To the Editor of the Evening Public Leiger:

We reached the old homestead and then went inside: No hanguet availed the bridsgroom and bride

My thoughts wandered back to the hour of When I held in our aring our dear baily how H. S. M. The happiness heaven has promised to me-Alone could compare with my happiness our her. There is a stoken part after the fast verie which I cannot recall.

Wilmington Del., December 29, 1921

The People's Forum will appear daily in the Evening Public Ledger, and also in the Sunday Public Ledger, Teilers discussion finels toples will be invested as well as requested norms, be inverted, fions of general interest will be answered.

Cuticura Soap

The Velvet Touch

For the Skin

feinent, Taleum, Me. avery where, Potsares

EDWARD CARRIGAN