CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?
 TWENTY-THREE YEARS AGO. Market street as it looked west of Thirtieth street. This was long before ground was broken for the foundations of the uprights for the P. R. T. elevated railway. The Pennsylvania freight station, at the right, has been greatly enlarged. This photograph was furnished by Joseph Testam, 1337 South Eighteenth street. If you have an old Philadelphia photograph send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

DR. ELLIS PAXSON OBERHOLTZER talks on pageantry in an Editorial Page interview.

THE BOYS WELCOMED CHANCE TO PLAY ICE HOCKEY. They picked sides, found a block of wood and then the game was on. No score was kept. They had a big time on the pond at Haverford.

NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY. Captain William Carrell, of Fire Insurance Patrol No. 1, 516 Arch street, with Frank Ross and Esther Westcott, two of the many guests.

MRS. W. A. WATSON. Before her marriage to Lieut. Watson, U. S. A., she was Miss Lucille McGrath, Washington.

GAVAN DUFFY arriving at the New University College, Dublin.

MISS MAY THOMAS assists visitors during today's Eisteddfod at Academy.

THIS LAMB DID GO TO SCHOOL. But there is no Mary in the story. During recess a few weeks ago the lamb wandered into the schoolyard at Petaluma, Calif. Emily Spaich (left), and Lols Hammell, volunteered to care for it.

A SUB-DEBUTANTE. Miss Beatrice de Bearn, daughter of Prince de Bearn, of French Embassy.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

TESTING SPECIAL SPRINGS. Charles Margaryl, 4304 Cloud street, Frankford, has worked since 1868 for William and Harvey Rowland, Inc. He is now foreman in their Frankford mill.

WHITE STRAPS FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION. Fairmount Park guards on duty after sundown are equipped as you see Edward Stringfellow. Autoists can see them.
