Peace or war within the Republicar State Organization for the May primary hangs in the balance today, with Governor Sproul aware that Congressman William S. Vare is definitely a candidate to succeed Senator Penrose. "I will not be a party to any deals," Mr. Sproul declared at his office, 1512 Chestnut street. "Whatever I do, I will do as Governor and in the interest of the Commonwealth." The statement was in advance of a rall by Senator Varc. to announce his brother's ambition to the Governor. The Senator saw Mr. Sproul this afternoon n the Governor's office.

When the conference had ended Governor Sproul was asked to make some his father, at 8:30 o'clock this morning, "I talked with Senator Vare for an 'ocked gates and with every element of

PRINCIPALS IN POSTPONED WEDDING

The picture shows Miss Mary Landon Baker and Allister McCormick at what they termed his farewell bachelor luncheon, held during the holidays just prior to the scheduled date of their wedding ceremony, which was called off by the bride as the bridegroom and hundreds of friends of the couple were waiting at the Fourth Presbyterian Church, of Chicago. Illness of the bride was given as the reason; but the wedding had been postnoned before, and now there are rumors that it will never take place The latest story is that a rehearsal of the wedding ceremony so impressed the bride-to-be with the seriousness of the contract she was about to enter that she became hysterical and did not recover in time to
