

ICE YACHTING SEASON STARTS. Gladys Shropshire is having a tough job as her yacht slides along on a dangerous angle on the Shrewsbury River, N. J.

TOTO MINUS HIS MAKE-UP. The famous clown is off duty in California. In this domestic act, his son "Gene" is the partner.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE DELAWARE RIVER IN OTHER DAYS. Today marks the start of the bridge that will connect Philadelphia and Camden. In 1891, when this photograph was made by F. Gutekunst, the ferryboats left Market street, at the left of this picture and passed between Smith Island (left) and Windmill Island for Camden. Both islands were removed in 1893 to improve river transportation. The bridge is the next step in speedy travel between Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Have you an old-Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

A FIRE—THEN A RAID. This is just a small part of the contraband found by several prohibition officials following a fire at 613 South Leithgow street yesterday.

IN BRIDGE CEREMONIES. Captain Henry L. Wyman, of the U. S. Battleship Olympia, and Captain L. R. de Steigmeier in charge of naval program.

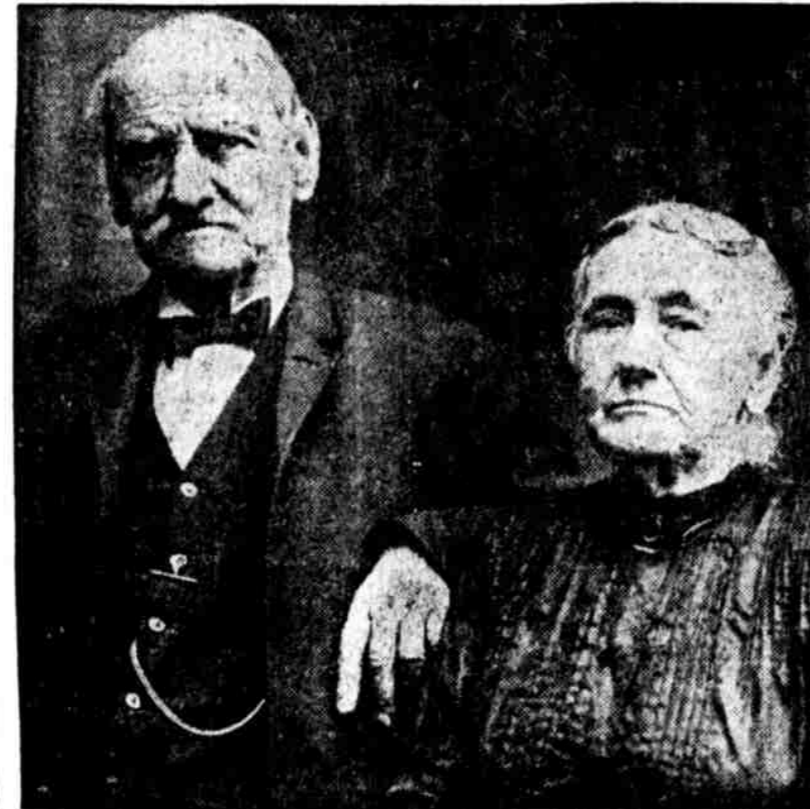

MADE BY A BRITISH TOMMY. While Private Jowett was stationed with the British army on the Rhine he built this player-horn. Same system as a piano—except you blow instead of pedal.

SHE'S A DANCER. Margaret Sadler, of Logan, will assist the Fifty-Fifty Club tomorrow night.

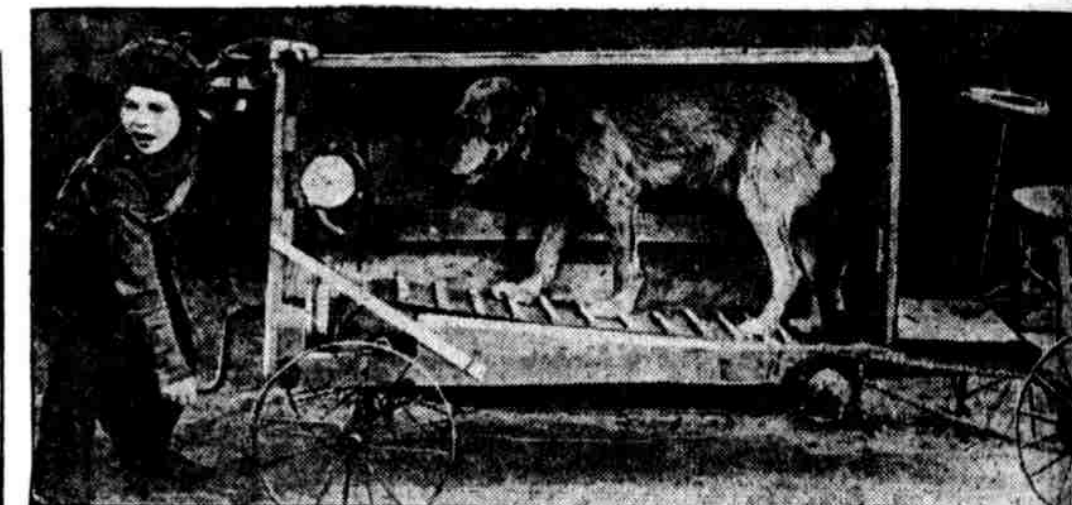

SERVING THE ENGAGEMENT CAKE. Princess Mary of England cutting the cake just before it was enjoyed by the wounded soldiers. Viscount Lascelles at Princess Mary's left.

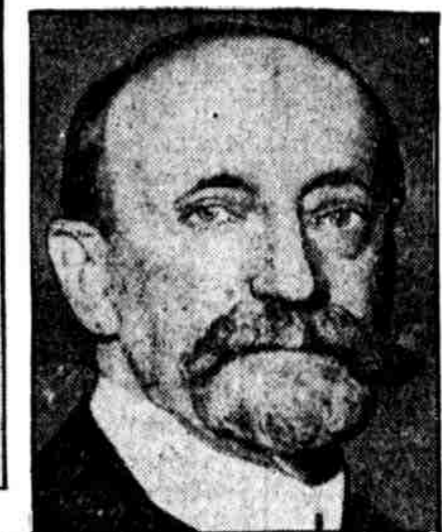

MARRIED FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS. Mr. and Mrs. Moses Thistle will celebrate their wedding anniversary tomorrow at their home, 845 North Twenty-ninth street.

SEARCHING FOR WITNESSES. Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman, in Canada, in her fight for vindication.

GET A DOGMOBILE. Coy Watson, Jr., has a great time with his unique mobile. He says it's a 1922 model. Bow-wow powder is being utilized and is always ready for service.

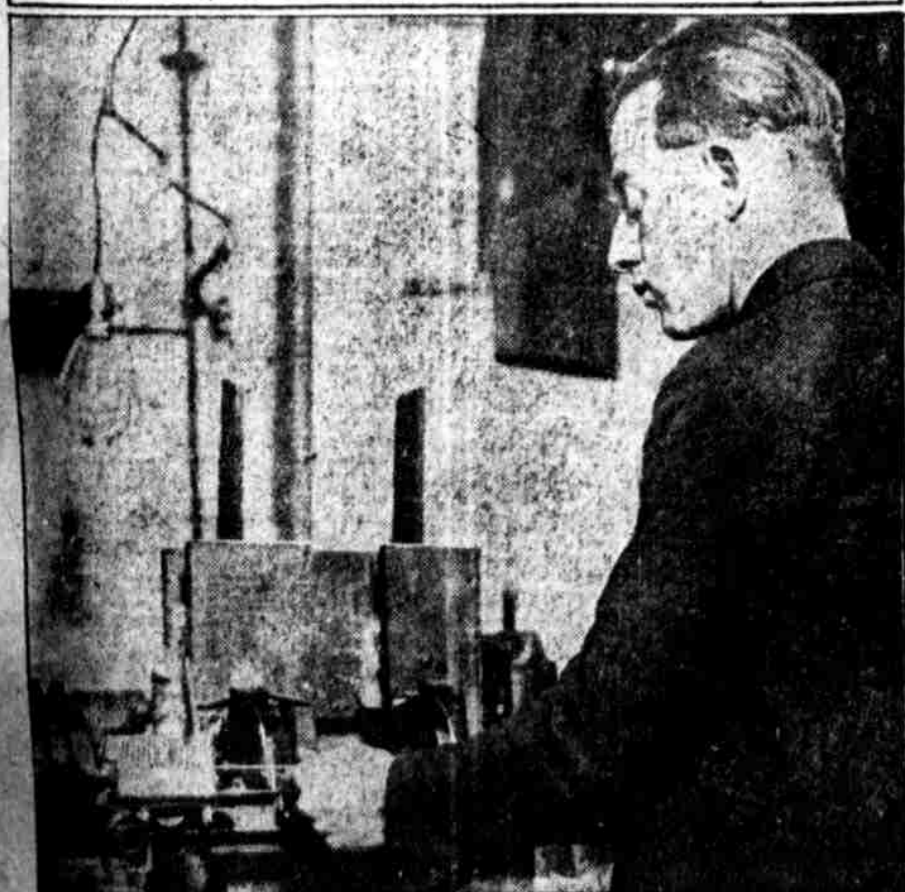

RALPH MODJESKI talks on Delaware River Bridge in Editorial Page interview.

SHE IS VISITING IN WASHINGTON. Madame V. K. Wellington Koo, wife of the Chinese Ambassador to London.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

GEORGE KNARR, 3904 North Ninth street, operating machine that makes bottle brushes in the factory of the Lafayette Brush & Manufacturing Company, 1034 Rising Sun avenue.

"ZOE" BALLAGH (left), as guard, and Dorothy Nixon, captain, say they are members of the best girls' basketball team in Philadelphia. It is none other than the West Philadelphia High School team.

AN INTERCOLLEGIATE MATCH TONIGHT. Captain Maxwell, of the Princeton ice hockey team, will lead his men against Penn.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

SECRETARY AND TREASURER. John V. Loughney, of the Continental-Equitable Title and Trust Company. He's married, has eight children and lives in Lansdowne. Member of Lansdowne Country Club.