

THE LATEST IN COASTERS. Over in Switzerland, where they have lots of snow, most of the time gravity supplies the necessary power.

ONE OF THE JOYS OF WINTERTIME. Horses pull the skiers over the ice and snow at a rapid rate. The photograph was taken at Lake Placid, New York.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

GETTING READY FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CELEBRATION. This photograph was taken during a hard rain in September, 1887, at the time that carpenters were building the famous archway, which stood at Broad and Sanson streets. The framework of the top of the arch is shown lying on the street. Note the cobble stones of Broad street. Several cabs are at the cab stand. Have you an old Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

COLONEL GEORGE KEMP, the newly appointed Philadelphia Postmaster, talks on postal service in an Editorial Page interview.

JOSEPH R. ROLLINS, one of the Philadelphia folk who will appear in 'The Marriage Tax,' to be given on Tuesday, January 17, at the Academy of Music.

MISS AMELIA SEIXAS, one of the Philadelphia folk who will appear in 'The Marriage Tax,' to be given on Tuesday, January 17, at the Academy of Music.

MISS JEANNE DE ROUSSE, one of the Philadelphia folk who will appear in 'The Marriage Tax,' to be given on Tuesday, January 17, at the Academy of Music.

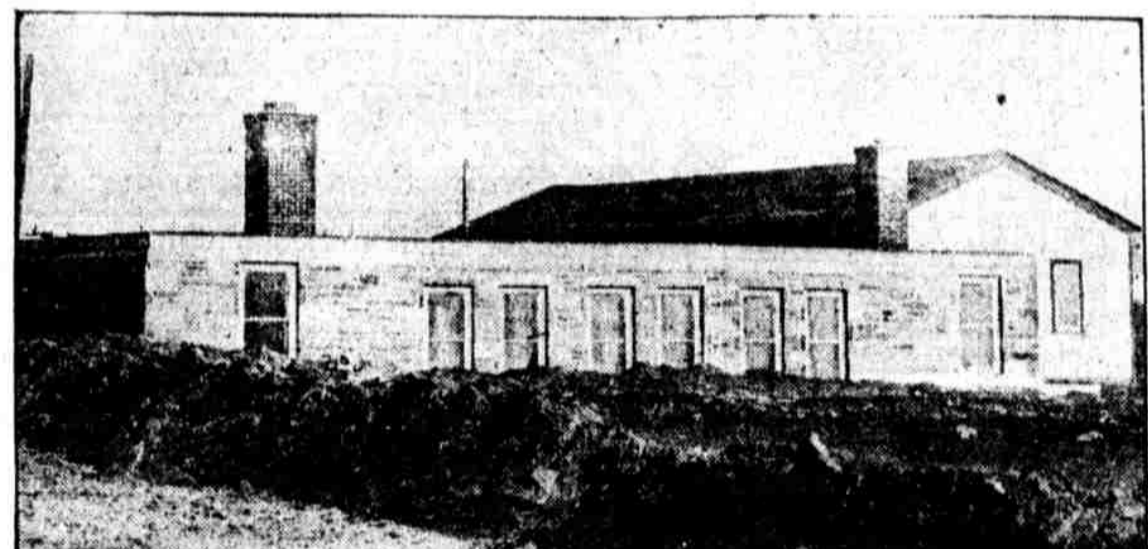

STAR WITNESS. Edward Dunner, of San Francisco, who appeared before Senate committee investigating alleged war atrocities.

FRANCE PRESENTS JOAN D'ARC STATUE TO WASHINGTON. Madame Jusserand, wife of French Ambassador, and Mrs. Harding pull unveiling string.

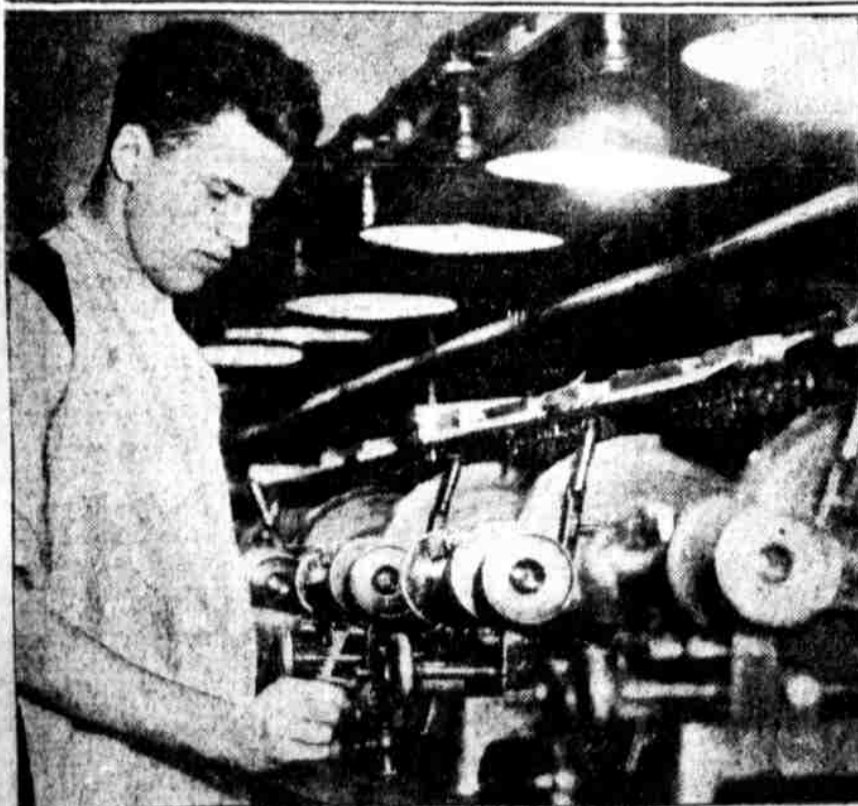

GERMANTOWN CRICKET CLUB WINS IN SOCCER MATCH. At the left is Barron, the star goal of the Mannheim eleven, who had a busy time in the battle against the Philadelphia Whites on the Germantown field. One of the plays of the game is also shown. This game virtually decides the year's championship.

NEW WEST PHILADELPHIA CHURCH DEDICATED. The first religious services held in the Emmanuel Methodist Protestant church, Fifty-fifth street near Willows avenue, were conducted yesterday, when the official opening took place. The Rev. J. Franklin Bryan is pastor of the church.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WILLARD RICHTER, Yeaton, Pa., operating spectacle and eyeglass lens-grinding machine at the workrooms of Wall & Ochs, opticians, 1716 Chestnut street.

HOT COFFEE FOR FIREMEN. As Norris Square Methodist Episcopal Church was burning Saturday, this neighbor was busy.

GEORGE HILL. He's a member of the Tigers team, of a Phila. Bowling League.

MRS. RAYMOND B. MORGAN taught foreign delegates to Arms Conference to carry on conversation with Americans.

PAUL E. McCLEAN, who lives at 6026 Old York road, receiving and paying teller of the Federal Trust Company, Broad and Federal streets. He is single. Farming is his hobby.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS