And everywhere it was wonderful to And everywhere it was wonderful to see how every one seemed to be on skids, as it were. Where is the country where the people ride over the ice on sleds with regular sails attached, such as one sees in a catboat? I can't remember, but that was the kind of counter you and I lived in vestoriar. try you and I lived in yesterday.

A I arose in the morning and looked out of the window to see a most beautiful white carpet over everything. And all the cars and truck and wagons were going by with the most luscious soft thuds, and I could hardly wait to get into my goloshes and too coat to wade out in that beautiful white. I wanted to make snowballs and fire them at any state of the st ND was it not a disappointment? make snowballs and fire them ay any one who chanced along.

I felt thoroughly wild and untamed, as if I were way back in the dark ages when I used to sled along Clinton street, with a few choice cronics. Clinton street, because there were no trolleys there and so our mothers did not mind our racing out in the middle of the street. And by the time I was dressed and breakfasted and ready to start out. adn't that snow changed into sleet and did it not change into rain right in my very face, and did it not proceed to treat me contumellously? It did.

TT WAS a good thing there was no very large ball last night, for whether you had a car, or rode in a trolley or taxi, you would have been one wet person just getting into or out of any or both. You see it went to my head entirely for I still feel sort of simple about it all. That being the case I better call a halt and tell you some of the doings, for there are a few, you know. There was the Junior Dinser-Dance in the fover last pick. per-Dance in the foyer last night.

EVERY ONE seems to be going to Europe. Alberta Reath is going with the Charlton Yarnails next month and Ellen Lloyd and her mother will and this month, in fact they are going in less than a fortnight. Then I never heard of so many Dixon relatives as there are going to Europe on the twentyeighth, Molly Thayer and two of the Sharpless girls and Mrs. Wilson Sharpss and several others.

Mary Porcher is sailing for Italy on January 21 with several friends. eill join some other people over Canles and will travel through Italy Spain and France and go to Rome in June. I hear also that she expects to take in Nice and the Balcaric Islands, those "Fortunate Isles" off the coast f Spain. It sounds like a fairy tale.

WOULD you believe that the dates for next fall are already in the planning? Well, they are, and I'll you who is coming out on Notell you who is coming out on Note rember 10.
