

CAPTAIN KENNY HONORED

1803 and the distinction with which he served in the Spanish-American War. Mayor Moore, who declined on account of his royal bequeathment, sent a letter in which he freely praised Captain Kenny. Among the speakers were James T. Corleyou, Director of Public Safety; William B. Mills, Superintendent of Police; and David J. Smyth, City Solicitor.

Mr. Fiesler's remarks were made at a testimonial dinner given last night to Captain Nicholas J. Kenny, recently appointed assistant superintendent of police, by the textile manufacturers in the Manufacturers' Club. The affair was in recognition of his meritorious service on the police force of this city since the capture of the Philadelphia policeman when on duty. The recent killing of Park Guard Hanley suggested the matter.
