HOLUBAR WILL START NEW PICTURE SHORTLY

By CONSTANCE PALMER

Hollywood, Calif. LLAN HOLUBAR is to start within a day or so on a new production. It's like old times to have him at work, en't it? At the time I talked to the nanager, Mr. Holubar was not ready to give out the name of the piece, nor the p'aymin it, but just as soon as it's to be known I'll tell you.

United Studios-nee Brunton-looked very busy this morning. Lots of people standing about in the usual movie way-always a sign of good times. But me little habit of congregating to his that makes Main street visitors tell the home folks we're the bunk. The trouble is, they just don't know the half of it.

They've changed the name of Betty Compson's picture from "The Noose" "The Green Temptation"-whatever that is. Never saw a green one myself. Miss Compson tells me it's the best picture she's had yet, bar none. The cast is splendid, too. Manlon Hamilton is the leading man, Theodore Kosioff the heavy, and Mary Thurman probably slays a contrasting part to Miss Comp-

Miss Dupont's third starring vehicle has just been finished, if it intrigues any one to know it. It's called "Thy Servant's Wife," and is probably one of those things, I'aul Scardon, Betty Blythe's husband, directed, and that counts for something. Miss Dupont lacks self-confidence.

It is well known by this time that the new studio policy with regard to Mr. Mayo is to take him from the roughand-ready, black-and-blue metier, and put him into the drawing-room drammer. I also understand that Mr. Maye has been quite dissatisfied with his treatment in the past.

Now that Realart has been absorbed by Famous Players-Lasky, the names of their five stars' pictures are at last being divulged. Bebe Daniels is taking
