

CHARGES MINISTER HALTED ROMANCE

Youth Sues Pastor for $5000 Following Breaking of Engagement

ADVISED AGAINST WEDDING

Whites-Barre, Pa., Jan. 19.—To what extent a minister of the gospel may go in advising the members of his congregation on temporal affairs is the real issue before a jury trying the Rev. W. S. Crandall, of Scranton, for slander.

The charge is brought by William B. Courtright, of Dunmore, who asks $5000 damages because the pastor advised Miss Eleanor Warner, of Ashley, a parishioner, against marrying the plaintiff. Statements of the pastor caused the girl to call off the wedding.

Frequently, however, they have little idea how to use the articles which come to them in exchange for milk and flour.

An American, who recently visited a village near this city, saw a magnificent concert grand piano in a one-roomed hut, which sheltered a peasant family of six.

When the amiable man of the house came home with a pain in his disposition he generally sulks, but when the king of animals gets a grouch he declares himself to all who may care to listen with bows, loud and long drawn.

And so the chiropodist is summoned. From one end of the cage to the other the animal paces, but by a dexterous twist of a practiced hand he is lassoed with a strong rope and thrown to the floor of his cage.

Long Necks Are Costly
Giraffes are particularly troublesome and expensive animals. In their own native land they are more or less reasonably priced, but by the time they reach here they are sold anywhere from $2500 to $5000.

Elephants are not so rare. Circuses use a large number and when the huge beasts have outlived their usefulness in the sawdust ring or the company is stranded, a Zoo purchases them.

Mr. Brown explained that the purchase of animals was becoming easier. "And too," he said, "prices are getting lower, although the necessity for permits and all the other red tape does pile up the dollars."

MAGNIFICENT GRAND PIANO USED AS RUSSIAN PIGSTY

Peasant Trades Food for Luxuries Which He Misuses
Kursk, Russia, Jan. 19.—(By A. P.)—Trappings of civilization are finding strange uses in the peasant huts of Russia. City folks who have fled to rural districts in search of bread and peace have frequently been compelled to trade their belongings to the peasants for food, and have found customers in Ivan Ivanovich and his family, who like the glitter and gloss of the fixings of gentility.

In a crowd protect yourself from throat germs

Riding in the crowded car, going along the dusty street, sitting in the stuffy office, theatre or school, you are bound to inhale the germs of disease. These germs lodge in the soft tissues of the mouth and throat and if unchecked, may develop into a dangerous ailment.

Formamint, the germ-fighting throat tablet, can be conveniently used at any time or in any place you may be. At the first sign of a sore throat, or when you are exposed to germs, take a tablet and let it dissolve slowly in your mouth. Can be beneficially taken every half hour until throat is relieved.

Formamint mixes its powerful, pleasant tasting antiseptic with the saliva, bathing the infected membranes continuously; combats the germs and keeps them at a safe minimum.

The tablets are so convenient to carry with you, that they can be used unobtrusively wherever you may be. Buy a package from your druggist today, and be prepared to ward off sore throats, tonsillitis and influenza. Men find them very helpful in easing "smokers' sore throat."

Recommended by throat specialists, physicians, dentists and druggists.
