PENROSE LAUDED BY CLOVER CLUB

Tribute to the Late Senator's Achievements Paid by Many Members

GOVERNORSHIP DISCUSSED

References to the political future of Pennsylvania and eulogies of the late Senator Penrose, marked the fourth annual dinner of the Clover Club last night at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Ex-Governor Bunn, president of the club, acting as master of ceremonies, called upon the various speakers after Judge Rogers had made the rounds and introduced each member and guest to the club. Most of the addresses were interesting, as is the club's custom, by the remarks of Judge Rogers.

Mr. Charles Snyder and me he alone in a room five minutes and we'll settle who is to be the next candidate for Governor," was Lieutenant Governor Heidleman's remark when Judge Rogers broke into his speech long enough to ask who was to be candidate at the primary. State Treasurer Snyder did not have to finish his boom speech, every one could complete the sentence without help.

I get along all right with Heidleman," Mr. Snyder said. "We'll pull together for the Republican Party, but the candidate must be a real blooded Republican, not a man now in the Republican Party or a highbrow. If good fortune and the political winds strike my sails, why of course I'll not have to finish his boom speech, every one could complete the sentence without help.

Republicans were not alone in announcing their candidacy for the Governorship. Judge South, of Monroe County, threw his hat into the ring and was seconded by Michael J. Ryan, Richard Wiegand, President of City Council, brought into his talk the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition and what it would mean to Philadelphia.

Other speakers were Rear Admiral Grant, U. S. N.; Rear Admiral Nathan, commanding of the Philadelphia Navy Yard; Judge Brown, of the Municipal Court; George G. Pierce, one of the founders of the Clover Club; Judge Patterson, Dr. Talbot, William, former dean of the Columbia School of Journalism, N. Y.; Representative Varr, Representative George S. Graham, Howard R. Lewis, W. Franklin Kennedy, Register Sheets and Captain Tenney, Assistant Director of Public Safety.

Two new members were elected to the Clover Club—Charles H. Gruber and Charles R. Hamilton.

"CLEAN OUT BOOTLEGGERS"

Director Cortelyou Gives W. C. T. U. New Police Slogan

Wipe Philadelphia clean of bootleggers" is the slogan of Philadelphia's police department. James T. Cortelyou, Director of Public Safety, said last night at a celebration of the Eighteenth Amendment by the Philadelphia County W. C. T. U. in the Oak Lane Baptist Church. Director Cortelyou assured his listeners that the police department will cooperate with the Federal authorities in enforcing prohibition.

In the period from 1917 to the end of 1920, the Director said, the use of force and liquor and arrests for disorderly conduct in Philadelphia decreased, while last year drunkenness and disorderly conduct showed a marked increase. This was due, he explained, to the increase in the manufacturing of moonshine whisky.

Gompers Seeks to Curb Rival Unions

New York, Jan. 20.—Samuel Gompers immediately will call a meeting of the presidents of the international unions of the United States, to plan action to curb what is termed "the alarming growth" of rival labor organizations, William F. Kellow, secretary of the Central Trades and Labor Council of New York, announced last night. In New York, according to Mr. Kellow, five dual unions have been organized as rivals of American Federation of Labor unions.

COL. HAY TO BE GENERAL

Promotion for War Commander of Pennsylvania Troops

Washington, Jan. 20.—Recommendation for the promotion of Colonel William H. Hay, chief of staff of the American forces in Germany, to the grade of brigadier general, has been made by Secretary Weeks, General Hay will succeed in the vacancy caused by the voluntary retirement of Brigadier General Charles G. Treat, March 20.

Colonel Hay commanded an infantry brigade in the Ninety-second Division and later, as a major general, commanded the Twenty-eighth Division, organized from the Pennsylvania National Guard, during the war.

U. S. Fish Commissioner Resigns

Washington, Jan. 20.—Dr. Hugh M. Smith, who has been United States Commissioner of Fisheries since 1913, has resigned, after thirty-six years of service with the Bureau of Fisheries. Inquiry at the Department of Commerce, which has jurisdiction over the Bureau of Fisheries, gave no indication yesterday as to Dr. Smith's successor, although there were said to be several names under consideration.

FARMERS RELY ON PEPPER

Hope Senator Will Speed Payments for Cattle Killed by United States

Senator Pepper's status as a farmer was emphasized last night in the Bellevue-Stratford at a meeting of the Philadelphia Society for the Promotion of Agriculture. Pennsylvania's distinguished Senator is one of the limited membership of 100 in this society, which is the oldest organization of its kind in the United States. It is probable that Mr. Pepper will be urged to interest himself in bringing about better and more expeditious payments to farmers whose cattle are killed because of tubercular infection.

Philadelphia's increasing appetite for milk was revealed by Morris T. Phillips, of Pomeroy. According to him, this city consumed at least 12,000,000 more quarts of milk in 1921 than in 1920. This figure does not include increased shipments from nearby States and is applicable only to milk produced in this State.

Dr. Morley Martin, the speaker of the evening, advocated Federal control for milk distribution. His arguments were that such control would raise the industry and decrease tuberculosis among cattle and humans. Tuberculosis in cattle, he said, is responsible for 23 per cent of the disease in children.

YOU really should send for the "Gift Book" for 1922, gotten out by the Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company. It is replete with illustrations of the most fascinating articles—Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, etc. And it will prove useful to you throughout the year in assisting you to select gifts for all occasions: weddings, birthdays and anniversaries of all kinds. While many of the articles reproduced therein are superbly magnificent, you will also find exquisite little gifts, moderately priced, some of them as low as three or four dollars. And you will be amazed at the great variety. Then, too, there is such a satisfaction in ordering from Bailey's, for even though you do not see the gift yourself, you know that it will be of the very best quality of its kind obtainable.

I HAVE never heard of a patron of Wall & Ochs, Opticians, 1713 Chestnut Street, who was not delighted with their service. To most persons, eyeglasses are just eyeglasses. You have to wear them or you don't; and, of course, there are many who go without glasses whose comfort, pleasure and efficiency would be greatly increased by wearing them. But did you ever consider whether your glasses are of a style and type best suited to your own particular needs? If you have not, you should consult with Wall & Ochs. Their experienced fitters are able to give you expert advice concerning your glasses which will be of infinite value to you in whatever occupation you may be engaged.
