PERKINS SIGNS FOR 1922, GETS RAISE

A's Catcher Affixes Signature to One-Year Contract at Increased Salary Figure

"DESERVED BOOST"—MACK

Cy Perkins is a satisfied and elated athlete today.

The snappy Mack catcher penned his name to his 1922 contract in the tower of Shibo Park this afternoon.

Perkins, at the call of Connie, came from his home in Gloucester and visited Mack in the tower today.

Jersey Basketball Aggregation Has Lost Only One Game This Season

GOLD FOOTBALL AWARDS

By PAUL PREP COLLINGSWOOD HIGH SCHOOL is showing wonderful form on the basketball court.

The Blue and Gold quintet this year virtually has been re-created with the new captain Morris.

As long as their feet on the ground, as they seem to be doing, I cannot see that the feverishness can amount to anything with the main business of education.

CO-EDS PLAN POLO TEAM

Miss Major Interests Girls in Sport at Penn

The co-eds at Penn are going to have a polo team, and it will be the first in the history of educational institutions in this country.

Enter Tournaments

Coach Irvine has entered his team in both the South Jersey and Penn tournaments.

The football team at Collingswood is presented with gold footballs.

Football Conference

A scholastic football conference, similar to the Western Conference, was formed at a meeting of various public high schools throughout Pennsylvania.

New York League

There is every indication that a New York Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be formed during the coming week.

Strong teams are being developed in all the Gotham schools, and this is a good sign that there is something brewing.

De La Salle Institute, Dwight School and Trinity School are getting combinations together and it promises to be another battle royal between these institutions for the honors.

These schools were the shining lights in New York scholastic circles twenty years ago.

CORNELL OFFICIAL TAKES ISSUE WITH DR. LOWELL

Football Doesn't Interfere With Education, Says Berry

Education, Says Berry

Ithaca, N. Y., Jan. 23.—Intercollegiate football does not interfere with education, in the opinion of Graduate Manager Romeo Berry, of the Cornell University Athletic Association.

Unquestionably, intercollegiate football is taken too seriously by the general public, I question, however, whether the universities themselves, or the undergraduates thereof, have lost their sense of proportion.

It is perfectly true, however, that the universities work along for five and one-half days in the week, doing their main business without much thought of football.

As long as their feet on the ground, as they seem to be doing, I cannot see that the feverishness can amount to anything with the main business of education.

PULLEY LEADING SCORER

A close race is on in the Intercollegiate Basketball League for the high scoring honors.

It is interesting to note about Grave that in last year's tournament he scored fifteen baskets while holding his opponents to but five field goals in ten league games played.

Dartmouth heads the league in total points scored, with 174.
