

Gang Leader Thanks Judge and Congratulates Attorney. Friends Joyful

JURY HUNG TWICE_IN CASE

"Jimmie" McCabe, downtown gang ader and former puglist, was senmenced to eighteen months in county rison today by Judge Audenried.

After a jury had twice disagreed in his case growing out of a saioon fight, McCabe pleaded guilty today to indict-ments charging carrying concealed deadly weapons and extortion.

Friends of the defendant, who crowd-ed the courtroom, bailed the eighteen-month sentence with joy. Apparently I long term had been expected. Mc-Cabe thanked the J.dge when he pro-Cabe thanked the J alge when he pro-sourced the sentence and turning to his attorney congratulated him fervently. Richard Sfhith, held in connection with another shooting at Young's Cafe, and in which McCabe has yet to answer other charges, rushed up to McCabe, and grabbing him by the hand, con-gatulated him for getting only a "short ride."

The shooting for which McCabe was held occurred November 11 in the sloon of Michael Matiatis, Second and Christian streets.

saloonkeeper charged McCabe

The saloonkeeper charged McCabe tried to extort money from him by rep-resenting himself as a prohibition agent. He said that when he refused to pay McCabe drew a gun and fired; the bullet grazing his cheek. McCabe's sentence includes punish-ment for another charge of carrying seapons, brought when McCabe was arrested May 10 as he jumped from a taxleab in Girard avenue while in a based with another man. sle with another man. "You are too fond of, carrying revolver." Judge Audenried warned McCabe. He told him that he thought boxer fought with his fists and not Mrs. Rosier Sees with guns. To this McCabe replied that his life was threatened by two "gangs."

Hall Would Limit Zoned Districts

dinged from Page One and many of the women in the erowd were loud in their expressions of symis famous skyline, or a better adver-isement than its tall Woolworth Build-ng. New York has all these things www. and now says it is a mistake. I into the car. She eagerly took it back reald like some of the suffering it com- again. however, a moment later, jeal-lams of. The great cities of the past cus of the minutes she still was to ennd of the future are the free cities, joy with the child, leadenen, think carefully before you On the way ba hackle Philadelphia for the benefit of Rosier turned to the matron, sitting be-New York. Like German System "Feel my hand, how cold it

Mr. Gest said "If we adopted the insent ordinance on zoning we would adopting the static form of German defailsm without adopting the dynamic "The provisions of the proposed ordi-" "The provisions of the proposed ordi-" "I'll feel the touch of his hard "The provisions of the proposed ordi-ance are in many cases impracticable until I die.

spirit of American cities. We would be taking up the passive form of German meialism without the active form."

tail, whereupon Chairman Horn ked: "Would you throw out the whole dinance and get a new one?" "Yes," replied Mr. Gest. "Yes," replied Mr. Gest.

At the left is shown Mrs. Catherine Rosier as she left Moyamensing Prison to day under court writ to view the body of her husband before his funeral. At the right is a photographic study of Mrs. Rosler as she sat in an automobile with her baby, Richard, in her arms

See Rosier Case Sequel Body of Husband to Jealousy of Olympias

> H. G. Wells, in his "The Outline of History," after telling of the jealousy of Olympias, wife of Philip, and of the passionate qualities of their son. Alexander the Great, who died 323 B. C., makes this comment : "We are beginning to understand omething of what the world migh > he, something of what our race might become, were it not for our still raw humanity. It is barely a matter of seventy generations between our selves and Alexander; and between ourselves and the savage hunters, ou meestors, who charred their food in the embers or ate it raw, intervent some four or five hundred generations.

"There is not much scope for the odification of a species in four or five undred generations. Make men and women only sufficiently jealous or fearful or drunken or angry, and the hot red eyes of the cavemen will glare out at us today. We have writing and teaching, science and power: wa have taned the beasts and scheoled the lightning; but we are still only shambling toward the light. We have tamed and bred the beasts, but we have still to tame and breed ourselves.

ants his estate, declares his investi. Mercier Looms Up as Papal Candidate light the fact that Miss Reckitt was an innocent victim. "The bullet that ended the life of Miss Continued from Page One

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1922

Reckitt did not pass through her skirts," said Mr. Schrenk today, "hecause it would not be possible for it to take a course like that. The missile intered through her shirtwaist close to the floating rib on the right side, and, taking a downward course, passed through the body. The physicians who Miss Reckitt must have been standing at least six or seven feet from Mrs. Rosier, facing her."

Tried to Transfer Home It was learned today that a week brare he was slain Rovier made an effort to transfer the property at Stone-burst, which was owned jointly, by him and his wife, to his brother, Ar-thur, but was told that the wife's consent would be necessary. It is also known that Rosier in set-expressed that past differences be made up, and that the whole membership of the Sacred College be made welcome guests

The College of Cardinals has decided that the funeral ceremony for Benedict XV shall be attended only by Cardinals, members of the Diplomatic Corps and representatives of Roman aristocracy, The body of the pontiff will be placed in the sepalchre in the left interal nave of the basillen.

An inventory of the moneys found in Benedict's private treasury disclosed the fact that the Pone had only about 700,-000 lire (normally less than $140,000). when from two to three million lire was London, Jan. 25.—(By A. P.Y.-The body of Pope Ranedict will be placed in the coffin today, according to a dispatch to the Times from Rome. The It is also known that Rosier in set-ting for building and loan shares held in the name of his wife, son and him-sed, withdrew her shares instead of paying the dues. The lawyer engaged to defend Rosier's name is gathering all the facts concerning the do-mestic trouble of the dead man and lis wife, and declares he will be part into a maket of polished etha. The increation will be part into a maket of polished etha. The increation will be not the leaden coffin. The correspondent ascribes to the Marquis Sacchetti, controller of the pontifical Palace, the statement that the usual correspondent of the concluse will be modified for the sake of economy. Thus, while for the sake of economy. Thus, while for the sake of economy. Thus, while for the sake of economy.

New luxuries, new comforts, and new conveniences in the Cadillac Type 61 are overshadowed by the splendid acceleration, the superbly steady surge of power, the even greater roadease and resilience, to which type 61 gives expression in an heretofore unequalled degree.

> NEEL-CADILLAC COMPANY 142 North Broad Street Phone, Spruce 0210

ESSED

Continued from Page One loud enough for all about her to hear: "Oh, why did I do it?"

Sobs Draw Sympathy

She was still sobbing heartbrokenly.

"It would be a great thing if we them the release signed by Judge Pat- Clerk of the Miscellaneous Court. This other boys, twins, wer gally some years ago. skyscrapers on Chestnut terson. Mr. Gest proceeded.

"If any one had the courage to put hotel on the Continental and Grard Hotel sites he ought not to be "Lower Chestnut street without high dings is shabby and of course there a no congestion. The crowds at Broad and Chestnut streets are not due to high buildings. high buildings. The trouble is that everybody is trying to do every kind of usiness at Broad and Chestnut streets. "The crowds do not come out of the high buildings. They come for other ed a few minutes later. purposes." "First. That he is of counse defendant. Catherine Resier.

the reply to questions from Council-dominated in the crowd at the prison that bankers would not loan as much money on Chestnut streat presents in the sympathy for the pretty years the proposed restrictive ordinance was fair hair and hig blue eyes, as she passed as they would be willing to now. emerged from the heavy door of Moya-

Long Shot Wins

inged from Page One

Athlete Pa. waited.

 d. 108. Cars.
 103. Scoblet, 8-1 (3-1) & taker's. The Roster funeral was not one taker's. The Roster funeral was broad street.
 103. Scoblet, 8-1 (3-1) & 5 until 3 o'clock, and another funeral was Broad street.
 105. Lang. 8-1 (3-1) & 5 until 3 o'clock, and another funeral was broad street.
 106. Until 1 and 1 195, Lang , 8-1 5-1 8-5 Nig I. T. Prometade, Rec-Ever Hold, Cornstals and and her party entered the building.

the Cotton Exchange to let her pass. Many raised their heads B_{1} and because quiet as they paired to look at the slight figure in the big black fur-er, B_{1} , B_{2} , B_{3} , B_{4} , B_{4

HAVANA RESULTS

RACE

RACIO

Mrs. Rosier Reported to Be Christy Mathewson's Cousin

Lewisburg, Pa., Jan. 25.-Mrs. Atherine Roster was born here. mm arms.

where she attended school until she was nine years old. Her mother, who was Miss Sue apwell, married Elins Chappell, a flonary engineer, who died about eight years ago in Pittsburgh, and the accused herself is a cousin to Christy" Mathewson, of baseball Mrs. O. B. Stein, an aunt of the soung woman prisoner, wept when asked regarding her relations with he accused young woman. "I am are Catherine would not have done ing so horribly tragic unless d been justified," she said. Is a fine girl."

them and a crowd waited outside. Mr. Scott's limousine drew up near the south gate of the prison on Passyunk The petition for Mrs. Rosler's release and was addressed to "The Hon, the Judges of the Court of Quarter Ses-sions of Philadelphia County the peti-tion of William T. Conner." It reads: "The petitioner respectfully repre-sents: "Sents: inside. Mrs. Rosier had been informed as soon as the court order was granted this morning and was dressed and waiting. Her attorneys took along a waiting. Her attorneys took along a heavy black creps will and this partly concealed her features when she cmerg-sents:

reply to questions from Council. Hall, Mr. Gest indicated generally bankers would not loan as much y on Chestnut street property is monosed restrictive ordinance was d as they would be willing to now. ng Shot Wins at New Orleans ued from Page One ued from Page One ued from Page One ued from Page One ued from Page One

watted. It was about five minutes of 2 o'clock when the machine, curtains still tightly drawn, stopped in front of the under-taker's. The Rosler funeral was not due ound

"Your petitioner respectfully prays that a writ of habeas corpus issue di-recting that the said Catherine Rosier was necessary to administer an oplate Ever hold, Cornata's and and her party entered the boundary, the Semicole Handicat, for more $100, 6 furthing. The Semicole Handicat, for more $2.85, 3.5 The mourners from this earlier fu-the Nonce, 12.2, 14.1, 8.5 The mourners from this earlier fu-the Mark reserved aside Mrs. Rosjer entered, They stepped aside Mrs. Rosjer entered, They stepped aside their heads. elewing the remains of the said Oscar Roster, her husband, on Wednesday, the 25th day of January, 1922.

And he will ever pray, etc., Signed, William T. Connor.

 I Bib Terins, Mr. Rester's partner, arrived at the undertaker's just be-fore Mrs. Rester left. There was no fore Mrs. So is a statement of the county Prison. It is in the statement of the left. There was no fore of the dead man tilled the mortuary couplet. Owner Rester, Jr.
 "We command you that Catherine Hs Rester is stald, detained by wintsoever name the said Catherine Roster may be detained, be taken to 1200 North weak and weary to keep the child in her

Since then Miss Silverman has done floral offerings from her relatives and what she could to relieve Mrs. Rosher's friends.

what size could to releve Mrs. Rester's friends. lot in prison, and she was one of the first advocates of releasing the mother for the funeral this afternoon. Mr. Scott and Mr. Connor, after preparing the petition for the release of Mrs. Roster on habeas corpus for the funeral, visited Acting District Attor-funeral, visited Acting District Attoraneral, visited Acting Inter a set be-with the one word "Pal," The room was are him. He said he had not the a floral bower with about twenty-five A slightest objection to the young woman's other baskets and floral pieces from the girl's many friends.

Judge "Glad to Sign" Release Then the attorneys went with their petition to Judge Patterson. The Judge read the petition and said. "I will sign it willingly." The attorneys then ob-Ioyamensing Prison. They took with hem the release signed by Judge Pat-erson. Crowd Waits at Prison Gate Word of their coming had preceded the mand a crowd waited outside. Mr. Was convered without delay to Mrs. Sector Moser, Jr. 1wo other boys, twins, were adopted he-gally some years ago. Mr. Scherek aid, and are living in Chicago. The attorney expected to nominate a trust owns signed by Judge Patterson. As soon² as the papers had been signed by Judge Patterson Mr. Scott telephoned the news to Moyamensing Prison. It was convered without delay to Mrs.

May File Will Tomorrow May File Will Tomorrow instead of in their cells, thus dimin-He also said that he probably would isking the number of attendants. But south gate of the prison on Passyunk avenue near Dickinson street, and wait was marked "Catherine Rosier's release will the Rosier's death-bed will tomorrow, the rule of silence is still to be observed to be complete investigation of the doubt during meals. A complete investigation of the doubt during meals.

ents: "First, That he is of counsel for the befondant, Catherine Rosier. "First, That he is of counsel for the tion as to what part of the girl's body Gasparri to be the next Perel, it is re-

on Pope's Death

Washington, Jan. 25. dls A P. Since her continement in Movamen-sing Prison Mrs. Roster has called con-stantly for her infant son and her hus-condolence on the death of Pope Bene-

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES FODAY'S INARTHISE, and Harrist Biggind, 0048 Market st. dwin R. Long, 5415 Haverford ave., and Dorothy G. Clark, 4828 Codar st. Napa at, and to accept for yourself the se-process st, and to accept for yourself the se-McAndrews 1735 Will Bradley, 2646 N. Napa Unier, 6807 Sprague M. Nancrede, 6334 Egi hrvn M. Nancrede, 6334 Bat S. Willoughly, 1435 W Alma K. Hille, 1738 N. Pa

 I. Bub Tallins, Max. Resider's partners, frequencies of the Courty Prison. It is and the number desired to the Courty Prison. It is and the number desired to the Courty Prison. It is and the courty of the second to the Courty Prison. It is and the courty of the second to the Courty Prison. It is and the courty of the second to the Courty Prison. It is and the courty of the second to the Courty Prison. It is and the courty of the second to the Courty Prison. It is and the courty of the second to the Courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty of the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the form the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the courty Prison. It is and the second to the form the second to t Miconi, 57'9 Osage ives, and v P. Bon ones, 292'S. De Kalls at Davis, 240 E. Ashmead at, and a M. Pelsteins, 2M E. Ashmead area and three carriages. Refore the funeral, Miss Reckitt's st. and lay in the parlor, surrounded by loral offerings from her relatives and Harriet T. Cubberley, 921 S. St. Hernard Harriet T. Cubberley, 921 S. St. Hernard elephi Kunen, 4047 S. Lee at. and Same Potrablek, 4247 N. Lee at. Introduct, 4247 N. Lee at. Harriet Hart, 2181 Oakd is at. Harriet Hart, 2181 Oakd is at. Inouna A. Van Harn, 4217 N. Dense at., and Ethel M. Pitcher, 1232 Harrard at. John G. Jones, 528 S. 15th at. and Helen Thomas A. Van Hora, 4217 N. Derso st., and Ethel M. Pitcher, 1232 Harrard at. John G. Jones, 528 N. 15th at., and Helen Porter, 1632 Kater st. Samual G. Yarti, Levisiurs, Pa., and Dora, Antoni Stowakiewicz, 2437 Church st., and 'Anna Laskowski, 4348 Bermuda st.

dict, sent by President Harding, as Mrs. Rosier spent another miserable follows: "Profoundly moved homage which His Forelinger, the President of the United States, we the spokesman of all his people through Your Excellence at. College.

Coffee

At all our Stores

STORES CO.

Do wholesale meat prices go up and down with fluctuations in live stock prices?

Why do live stock prices fluctuate?

Why are some cuts of meat higher than others?

What kind of competition is there in the meat business?

Where does your meat come from?

How does it happen that you can always get it?

Why is the large packer necessary?

-/-* -X-

Swift & Company's 1922 Year Book answers these and many other questions.

It's ready for distribution, and there is a copy free for you. Send for it. You'll enjoy reading it. It's a revealing document.

