EVENING 'PUBLIC 'LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA', THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1922

Please Tell Me Paul and Virginia

Less Than the Dust

By HELENA HOYT GRANT

SUPPOSING we have some the Virginia was annoyed. Terribly: ercam for dinner tonight, honey." seriously so. It was catty of Paul to be so sure when she was positive he was Tell your mother about this mah's attention. Do not think of keeping quiet about it. It is not a state of affairs that can be handled by a girl of

But he sure to get

IU)

"Virginia, please don't be silly. The number is Main five-four-three-six. My poodness, I've known Jimson's number for years. Used to order cream for my sister Beth's parties."

mistaken. "Well, my dear." "But he sure to get it from Jimson." he warned. "The last de-cream we had was pretty poor stuff. I thought. And, be-sides, we know Jim-con's is good and clean and pure. That's a whole lot." Virginia nodded. "Why. I can re-member. Paul, when Sways ordered the lees from Jimson's. That was long before telephones were common. I remember I used to run pretty poor stuff. I thought. And, be-eldea, we know Jim-son's is good and clean and pure. That's a whole lot."
Yhrginia nodded. "Why. I can remember. Paul, when I ways ordered the lees from Jimson's. That was how before telephones were to about it." She gave him that forgiving smile that mother allows how all we have to do is phone for it."
"Yep, the telephone surely is a great convenience." The triteness of this

"Yep, the telephone surely is a great convenience." The triteness of this speech jarred him. "Almost as much as the ab--ab--phonograph." Virginia dimpled. She professed an aversion to the phonograph, but secret-if the boy really loves you, he'll not sharp about it.-."Virginia, please don't be absurd." He fixed her with what he fondly imagined was his most dignified expression. "The number." he said very distinctly, "is 'Main five-four-three-six." "Let's see: it's Main six-five-four-three."

mured. Paul kissed her tenderly.

And Carel was to play opposite him in the forthcoming play. They would be thrown together. It was the very worst thing that could happen just not and Nick was aware of it. Nick remembered Carol's flush when be had asked ber if she knew Britton Vay had she turned red, had she been ted of the man's charm, and had her be had asked ber if she knew Britton voy had she turned red, had she been far too radiunt, her entire appearance far too radiunt, her entire appearance far too radiunt, her entire appearance are need them beine and unduried. Well, when when he had never seen her other-wite them calm and unduried. The work in the mention of a man's weet or when he had made love to her write them calm and unduried. Well when weet he remembered that write them she hed made love to her will be bone?' she asked time you will be bone?' she asked time?' the the foreigners time derived whenever he remembered that for forcing himself upon her?! If he had only then you her?! If he had on the you her?! If he had on the you her?! If he had on the you her?! If he had only the you her?! If he had only the you her?! If he had only there you her? time of the yo own humiliation in looking back on dispelled by her answer. these days. Carol's first meeting with Jervis Britton occurred a few days later at a gathering of the cast. " she said play. They had decided to hold re-play. They had decided to hold re-learnals at Grace Marriott's house, and to hire the ballroom of one of the large hotels for the dress rehearsal and the performance itself. "I'm going over to Grace Marriott's to a meeting of the cast." she said "I'might drop over there for you." This Frock Combines Exquisite Combines Carol's careless. "All right. 1'l ex-performance itself. daya. "I'm going over to Grace Marriatt's Carol was frankly amazed at her own Tomorrow-Jervis Britton Banequin. I like the flavors mixed."

"Let's see: it's Main six-five-four-three."
"Yirginia setured back."
"It's what?"
"Main. six-five-four-three."
"No, it isn't dear. It's Main five-four-three."
"Yirginia giggled.
"Ob, you hush up-you remind me fortat ad in the magazine about the secole with his the wolf a size of the number is Main six-five-four-three."
"Yirginia siggled.
"Ob, you hush up-you remind me fortat ad in six five-four-three."
"No, it is happens, Mr. Smarty, that is happens, Mr. Smarty, that is domestic happiness, that when the set is gotted his sun, be gave way to amoyance. Calidieh? Of course."
"You ought to take a rumory course."
"You ought to take a rumory course.
"You ought to take a rumory course."
"Y "Yirginia, please den't bound." three-five-siz." The mean they stared into each "Yirginia, please den't bound. The stand of up both "

What to Do

By CYNTHIA

To "N. B."

Beauty Helps, but Does Not Hinder

your age.

A LOVER

Photos by Old Masters and Felix.

The provide sort is entry.
The provide sort is entry is not the sort is entry is not the provide is not be provide in the sort is not the provide is not be provide in the sort is not the sort is not the sort is not the sort is not the s

By JEAN NEWTON

He Gave Away His Own Birthday to a Child Who Didn't Like Hers But you could give it away if you felt that some little girl or boy would be happing for having it.

Some People Wouldn't Understand Why He Did It or How He LITTLE girls and little boys and people who are still on speaking terms with fairles and slves, and still just a bit afraid of the dragons and hob-goblins, that live in shadows, are the only ones who understand just what it is to give things away like this. Could, but the Little Girl Knew All About It

ONCE there was a little girl whose thing that you can't take hold of." birthday came on Christmas Day. Now, you know, that len't very give away a birthday?"

much fun. Christmas is lovely, and birthdays are lovely, but when you have to com-bine the two you can't celebrate either of them properly. MELL, it's very much like giving away your own particular star. Of course, a star isn't quite like a birthday. You can't choose your own birthday, but you have a whole skyful of bril-And so the little girl had to be con-ent with having a Christmas tree on tent with having a Christmas tree or her birthday, and all her birthday pres ents on Christmas. But she really wasn't very please about it. Being a good little girl she tried keep quict until one day she was talk ing to Robert Louis Stevenson.

He was the kind of man that little girls can talk to without being afraid knew that be would understand and that he wouldn't tell anything he wasn't supposed to tell, and that he would know just what he was sup-posed to tell and what he was supposed not to tell. So the little girl told him all about how distressing it was to have a birthday come the same day as Christmas.

And the man who understood things like that was so sympathetic that he gave her his birthday.

Now, wasn't that a nice thing to give anybody? He didn't mind having his on Christ-mas, he said, so he would take hers and she could have his, which was November, far enough away from Christmas to make two celebrations quite easy and quite comfortable. Of course, there aren't very many people in the world who are so whim-sical or so thoroughly delightful as Robert Louis Stevenson seems to have

Some people wouldn't be able to magine giving away a birthday. "Why, you can't give away some-

RUMP STEAK

CHUCK ROAST

ROASTING VEAL When You

BUY YOUR MEATS WHOLESALE! . urk Lain for Ronsting. . }20°

Sharp Cheese 25c lb., 4 lbs., 95c

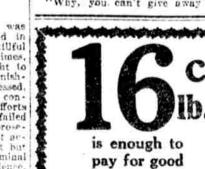

Sea Food "AT THE FERRIES!"

Mitchell's Market, Inc.

10 and 12 South Delaware Avenue

CLORENCE COLOR STATE COLOR STATE

Boneless Bacon

to support	on 8-	but you have a whole skyful of bril- hant, friendly, twinkling stars to choose from. And nobody can say anything about it: nobody can say, "Why, Margaret, that isn't nice, that star belongs to Charles! You mustn't take your little friends' things, you have your own star, you know, right up there in the Big Dipper."	But, then, people who have grown up so very much as all that don't have very much fun, anyhow. They're always trying to find reasons for things, and any carefully brought- up child, or fairy, or fairy's friend, can teil you that there are hole of
------------	----------	---	--

Because you never tell anybody, until you tell some very special body, which your cwn particular star is.

People who have thoroughly grown

Where quality as well as price counts, where the best meats that grow are not too good for you, at prices far below the other

Where Doak, the ORIGINATOR of Low Prices and Cut-Price Meat Markets, is always on the job.

Finest	Sirloin	Steak.	-
Finest	Rump	Steak.	20c
Finest	Round	Steak	LOC

ALL BOASTS 20c	THY SCRAPPLE 3 1bs. for 25c
fills reast, rump reast, round reast, siriata reast,	Made in Phoenixville. Delicious for Sunday morning breakfast.
This beef is the finest that grows, and every steak and roast is tender and juley.	MONEY-CURED SMOKED BACON 17c Whole or half strip
тимент говк 20c	SKIN BACK HAMS. 20c
No butts or ends, but every chop a loin chop.	SMORED (Any Size) 16c SMORED 24c
LOIN FORK TO 18c	Our smoked ments are the finest honey cured. We don't sell seconds
VINEST VEAL	or inferior meats of any kind. FANCY SELECTED 40.
CHOPS	In cartons. The big, full, meaty
VEAL BOAST 22c	ERY BUTTER CREAM- 43c
FINEST COUNTRY 18c	ERY BUTTER

A big lot of fancy Roasting Chickens, 30c. The kind

Do you ever stop and think of the prices you paid

For Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27-28, 1922

18c

STEWING

BEEF

Lean Brisket

6

PURE

LARD

1-lb. package

12

SHOULDER

BABY

LAMB

22

FRESH

SCRAPPLE

10

3 to 4 lb.

Pieces

4 to 7 lbs.

4 to 5 lb.

Pieces

PORK

CHOPS

Best Cuts

25

ID.

BOLAR

ROAST

Lean

18

SLICED

HAMS

33 lb.

LEGS

BABY

LAMB

39

FRESH

SAUSAGE

16

16c lb.

15c lb.

26c

Theatre Bldg., Darby

that falls apart when you roast them.

Penny Profit Meat Stores

for meats before Doak came on the job?

They even sweep the floor in their unguificence if they are French. and are so close together that they seem like one single overskirt that goes all the way around Through a Woman's Eyes

Sometimes they are just little narrow things that try to make up for their size by the brilliance of their lining. In that case there are four of them. But again they grow up and down until they are oulte impressive and have to be gathered.

7

Ŷ

Stands Up for American Wives

LONGER AND WIDER

HOW SKIRT

PANELS GROW

The Woman's Exchange

MRS. I. M.

THE NEW EVENING SLIPPER has aded straps. You can make a pair these levely slippers out of any pair The liked of the second ntrap sandale. Cut a place of heavy

A Tonic May Do It To the Editor of Women's Page: Dear Madam-is there any way of restoring gray hair? I am a your woman yet, but my hair is getting grayer and thinner each day. How can I pre-want and restore this? My daughter, who is ton years old has some moles growing all over her face and hair is growing on them. How can I help this? Is minery pounds the dorrect weight for a child of ten whose height is four feet two inches? MRS. I. M.

She Has to Move

and the new tenant. The Legal Aid Society, in the City Hall, will help you to selve this difficult, but if you cannot make any arrangements that suit both

Best Table Cocca 13c lb., 2 lbs., 25 one can really "get away with" any . one jury we must satisfy, the one judge Headquarters for Maurice River Cove we must convince. Oysters, all kinds fresh Fish and Jack and Janet find Bucky Beaver ley. And soon his sharp eves found and his family building a high dam with which to flood the forest with 587. What that way was will be told tomelting snow waters. The beavers TIGITOW. want to spile forest folks who have teased them.

CHAPTER IV Like Paul Revere's Ride

TACK and Janer felt their hearts sink as they watched the beavers at work on the dam. The beavers labored fast

Adventures With a Purse

and the dam grew steadily. It was astonishing what the busy creatures I T BELIEVE you will want to know k Combines Exquisite Colors as on waters and flood the valiter unst could the children do to save What could the children do to save the homes of their forest folk friends that would be overflowed by the flood? Jack and Janet wondered if Bucky Beaver had a kind heart, and if pleas would make him stop building the dam

And the beavers did work, work. The Sam rose by inches. "You will spoil all this nice valley.

argued Jack. "Work, my beavers?" urged Bucky Beaver. "Work! We will turn this valley into a big lake that will grow many water lily stems to furnish food for us. Work! Work!"

not make bim stop.

The low murmur of the creek was turn. ing into a roar, as the waters running down from the melting anowhanks poured into it. Unless the beavers down from the melting snowbacks manners are quite out-of date. Nobody takes them seriously enough even to resent them seriously enough even to resent them they are providers of contemptuous anusement--nothing more, waters would flood the valley before But as nobody wants to be an object of laughter, because of pretentiousness, every one should be the series of angleter. every one should try to cultivate plicity, if it is not a natural gift

By CORINNE LOWE It has been said that the difference ence.

tirls is that some come out ors get out. But whether one

Beaver had a kind heart, and it is a particularly then is a cough resem-would make him stop building the dam hat in a braid closely cough resem-higher. They role their horses around bling straw to enable you to mear it the pond to try. "Piense, Mr. Bucky Beaver, have pity servative for you to wear now without on the poor rabbits and chipmunks, who any feeling of being too advanced, will be drowned out if you build your is black, edged with a hille bend

And the beavers grew busics than be-fore. Jack and Janet knew then it was no use to argue with Bucky Beaver. He had made up his mind to build that dam to flood that valley and pleas could not make bill stop. "Ek! Ek! See how high the water is rising." The wareing carie from Perky Squirrel, who was perched high above in a tree. Jack and Janet looked at the pond. The water from the meling snow was already covering the ice and creeping higher and higher up the sides of the dam. And the pend itself was spreading out farther and farther.

In this democratic age top-loftical manners are quite out-of date. Nevedy

Jack swang bimself of his popy.

4219 Lancaster Ave. 6002 Market St. 60th and Haverford Everything Cheaper TONS OF MEATS One Cent a Pound Profit Doors Open 8 A. M.! Our Stores Are Open Friday Evg. Until 9 P. M. Come Early! RUMP Steak Meats ROUND SIRLOIN HAMBURG CHUCK POT ROASTS STEAK ROAST Best Cuts Fresh Ground Lean 121/2 10 10 Boneless Bacon SKINBACK PICNIC REGULAR COTTAGE HAMS HAMS HAMS 8 to 10 lbs. 6 to 8 lbs. Large 2 to 4 lbs. 17 13 23 Yearling Legs Lots. of Nice Lean YEARLING LEAN RIB SHOULDER LOIN YEARLING YEARLING YEARLING CHOPS French CHOPS 25 22 16 28-30 Loin Pork Nice Roast Lean

FRESH

HAMS

Whole

20

SHOULDER

PORK

Blade Style

19

Fresh Stewing Chickens All Yellow 28c lb.

SHOULDER

PORK

Picnie Style

15