A YOUNG GIRL'S DIARY

Age 11 to 14
Professor G. Stanley Hall says: "It is a great work and thousands of girls will find it a source of inspiration. In all the wide field of psychology the metamorphosis that takes place in the adolescent period was, in my mind, the very darkest point and in this book we have a great and new light." $2.00

ESSAYS AND FICTION

"PLUM PUDDING"

A Concoction of Various Richnesses by Christopher Morley

Residents of this part of the country will be particularly interested in the tribute to the late Dr. F. R. Gammon, of Haverford College, which Christopher Morley has included among the essays in "Plum Pudding" (Doubleday, Page & Co.). It is a gracious and sympathetic appreciation of one of the finest scholars this country has produced. It provides a serious note in a volume which, as a whole, is distinguished by lightness and frivolity.

WOMAN HATER LOVES

Writer of Mystery Yarns Tries a New Line

Arthur Crabb has left his accustomed field of mystery and in "Ben Thorpe" (The Century Co.), the creator of Samuel Lyle, criminologist, delves into the life of a man. Ben Thorpe is an odd, silent, unlikable yet withal appealing character as drawn by Mr. Crabb. A street gamin and a foundling, he is adopted by a kindly hearted railroad engineer who sees in him latent possibilities.

Harding Will Make Good

Disappointment is but the beginning of splendid achievement. It alone cannot prevent another destructive world war, since they were rampant when navies were made of small sailing ships and when our best men were the great deceivers. "We need to awake to the truth that only by a vital and permanent joining of the nations in an effective union to forbid and provide against it can mankind be saved from another catastrophe which will leave the world in ashes." President Harding promised either an association of nations or existing League "annulled or revised" to prevent what that promise elected him. He meant what he said. He will keep faith. To help him, America and Europe, the safety of the irrevocable claim that the Harding you vote against and not for those promises. To also encouragement to that absurd claim to be either the conscious or unconscious enemy of world union for peace. It will be plain that in America, where the majority raise no administrative would or should dare so contrary to the mandate of the vote. If the reader has any friends who talk that "survival" conception ask them to read

ANDIVIUS HEDULIO

ADVENTURES OF A ROMAN UNDER THE EMPIRE
By EDWARD LUCAS WHITE, Author of "El Supremo"
This book of life in the second century has the vitality and speed of the twentieth century. Here is that rare event—a book for every one. Recently I asked a Junior at Harvard whether he thought the book too long. He replied: "It was too short," and I heartily agreed. From first to last the six hundred pages propel you, until with the fascination of the story and the swiftness of the action you are almost breathless. I recommend it without reservation, and lay it down with the full intention of reading it again."
$2.00. Fifth printing on press. Can be had at any bookshop after February 3.

Sale of NEW Dresses at $5

300 of them, fresh and different. Just off the train from New York.
Twelve sophisticated styles warranted to make any one look young and gay.
Sizes 16 to 44 in the group, but not in each kind.
Astonishingly good materials—the sort that only very clever manufacturers could afford to put into such inexpensive frocks.
Although, of course, these dresses were never made to sell for as little as $5! One's first glance tells that!

Checked velour Plain wool poplin
Plain wool crepe Plain wool serge
Interestingly embroidered bouffant sleeves of crepe, wide and "tailored" sorts of braiding schemes, gaily colored stitchings, cunningly arranged one-color embroideries of narrow braid, plain colored strappings sometimes with embroidery—these are a few of the many fashion notes. Reindeer, navy and brown, also Copenhagen and brown checks.
Certainly five dollars seldom have a chance to buy as much as these!

Wool and Silk Dresses at $10

Few, if any, New York manufacturers are cutting up silk dresses to be priced as low as ten dollars. But there are dozens and dozens of all-silk taffeta and crepe de chine frocks marked $10 here, because they were purchased advantageously. Charming styles designed for Spring. Wide skirts, long waists, elbow or wide sleeves. Plenty of choice also in wool dresses at $10. Among them is a gabardine frock embroidered with blue or scarlet and having Peter Pan collar and vest of the same vivid color. Another shipment also of those long-line wool jersey dresses in henna with featherstitching and having white crepe de chine collar and cuffs; these are great favorites at $10.

Taffeta and Paisley Georgette Dresses at $16.50

Soft, fine taffeta with delightful sleeves very full and loose of the once-again-fashionable Paisley Georgette. These typically modern frocks have the new wired skirt effect.
Other taffeta dresses with shirred bandings of the same silk and scalloped skirts are distinguished by the new "bib" outline at the throat; priced $16.50.

Delightful Canton Crepe Frocks New at $25

Every woman wants Canton crepe. She has found it good looking, graceful, heavy enough to have weight and to wear well. These new Canton crepe dresses are among the best we have ever offered at $25—and all are in Spring styles.
Canton crepe with wooden beads in Egyptian colors.
Canton crepe with Georgette sleeves and steel beads done in rosettes and short straight lines.
Canton crepe with novelty chenille braid—and many others.
Sizes 16 to 42.

400 Silk and Wool Dresses $16.50 to $23.50

All new within the last few days.
So many different ones that it would be difficult to try to describe them. But it will be a pleasure to see them, we think you will agree.

THE NOVELS OF A. S. M. HUTCHINSON
William Lyon Phelps in The New York Times says:
"Hutchinson has published four novels, and I heartily recommend them all. 'Once Aboard the Lugger—', 1908; 'The Happy Warrior,' 1912; 'The Clean Heart,' 1914; 'If Winter Comes,' 1921.'

Other linen huck towels are 15x 25 inches at 40c, 17x34 inches at 50c and 18x34 inches at 65c.
With damask borders and hemstitched hems, they are 15x22 inches at 75c.

A New Crocheting Cord for Bags and Rugs, 25c a Ball

It is in old blue, navy, gold, two shades of green and two of tan. Women who enjoy doing their own designing can make very pretty things of it—mats and even hats.

Dainty Sets of Muslin Underwear

There are two pretty styles. One set of pink or white batiste is trimmed with designs done in hemstitching through which narrow ribbon is run. The other is of fine white nainsook bound with bands of lustrous light blue or orchid saten and trimmed with hand embroidery.
The bloomers are really step-in drawers with elastic at the waists.
Vests—$1.50. Bloomers—$1.50.
Nightgowns to match the saten-bound sets are $2.

Delightful Hats at $6

are among the throng of new Spring fancies that are crowding in. Smart little hats are in lovely Spring-like colors and have a jauntiness of line that is most beguiling.
A little hat of shining black cellophane has a fringe of glycerined ostrich. Others in lovely cornflower blues, soft browns and grays, tans and bright red or black. White Angora embroidery is effectively used on black hemp. A red hat has bobbing cherries and currants.
Ever so many from which to choose, and mother or young daughter, either one, will be able to find something becoming!

Sports Coats, Street Coats, Wrap Coats With or Without Fur Are for Women and Young Women at $12 to $55

Every type of fashionable Winter coat is to be found these days in the Down Stairs Coat Store. Prices are decidedly low and nearly every coat is lined throughout with silk.
Polo Coats, $12 to $25
An excellent assortment of polo coats of tan, navy and heather mixtures running to browns and grays. Some are double faced and half silk lined. Others are lined throughout with silk.
Street Coats Start at $16.50
and there are splendid assortments at $25, $27.50, $39 to $55. Of velour, suedene and variations of the soft bolivia weave, made with fringed throw collars or collars of wolf, nutria, Australian opossum or beaver. These are all lined with silk.
Wrap Coats, $27.50 to $55
Some are belted across the front and loose in back, some have the fashionable bell sleeves and their collars are of self material or fur. Of velour and bolivia in navy and brown.

Dainty Dimity Shirtwaists for Girls

Girls who wear suspender dresses or slip-on frocks need plenty of such waists. Each of these blouses is packed in a separate box and is fresh and crisp. They have high necks with Peter Pan collars and are in sizes 8 to 18.
$2.50 for plain white waists.
$3 for waists edged with red or blue rickrack or with collars and cuffs of brown or blue checked gingham.
$5 for plain white tub silk waists.

Inexpensive Materials for School Frocks

18c gingham, 26 inches wide, is in any number of plain checks, two-tone checks and plain colors.
25c voile, 38 inches wide, prettily figured, makes dainty blouses for slip-on frocks and delightful little party frocks.
35c yard for closely woven material, known for its durability when used in kiddies' clothes, is in cadet blue, navy, pink, green and two shades of brown, 33 inches wide. Just the thing for 'boys' suits and girls' frocks!
