Return Bout With Frenchman Probably Would Go in England, but Not in America—Talk of Third

Major League on Coast

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

BUSINESS in the heavyweight boxing division is picking up since the arrival of Jack Kearns in New York. The manager of Jack Dempsey breezed into Gotham the other day, and since then the champion has been mentioned in several bouts. The battle with Carpentier has been revived and there also is some talk about a fight with Harry Wills. Bill Brennan has come in for brief discussion, Tommy Gibbons has been dragged into the spotlight again and in a short time other heavies will be exposed to public

While this is going on Dempsey is in his new home in Los Angeles taking things easy and paying no attention to the fight game. No matter what is being said or how many bouts are being arranged, the champion is said to have no desire to get back into training and take on these contenders. He told some of his intimate friends that he was tired of touring the country, starting parades every time he stepped off the train and longed for a quiet place where he could be by himself. However, one never can tell what a champion will do, especially when there is an opportunity to gather in some of those big

Dempsey can command big purses, and it is doubiful if he would enter the ring against any one for less than $100,000. That means he could do some heavy collecting in bouts with Brennan, Fulton, Gibbons and others. William A. Brady is said to have offered $200,000 for a match with Harry Wills, Dempsey to get $150,000. In England it is claimed that a $500,000 purse will be offered for a return mutch with Carpentier, and split the money the same as in Jersey City. This seems to be the logical bout, if the figures Bre correct.

Carpentier made a wonderful showing against Dempsey in the champion ship battle of July 2 of last year, and every one present admired him for his gameness. He showed remarkable courage, carried the fight to the cham-pion and handed out more than he received in the second round. He went down with colors flying in the fourth round, after taking punishment without flinching.

But Georges proved he was no match for the champion. He gave everything he had, and it wasn't enough. True, he broke his hand in the second round, but the public does not believe he could have staved off a knockout if the accident hadn't occurred. Therefore, there can be little interest in a return match in this country. In England, where Carpentier has defeated every opponent, there probably is more of a demand for the bout.

In regard to the Wills match. Tex Rickard declines to have anything to do with it. Mixed bouts are not at all popular, especially when a championship is at stake. That seems to kill the $200,000 offer made by Brady. The chances are the match never will go through.

CARPENTIER cannot be blaned for expression a desire to over Dempsey again. He will be well puid for his trankle, and barres are not in the game for their health

BILL SHETTSLINE, business manager of the Phils, is all steamed top B over the town of Leesburg, Fla., where the Phils will do their re-hearsing for the 1922 baseball derby. Bill received a letter from Sam Payne stating that the ball park almost is completed and the diamond will be the best in the State.

"They have a live-wire Mayor in Leesburg," said Shertsline. "He is an old Penn graduate and is taking quite on interest in the work. His name is W. A. RADICAL changes have again been R made in the method of playing the championship of the Professional Golfers' Association of America.

Last year the system used was that the thirty-one highest professionals, highest meaning those with lowest, scores at the finish of the U. S. open championship qualified for the P. G. A. match play. The titleholder also was to condifie qualify.

This year sixty-four, or twice that number, will enter the play, the first two rounds being at eighteen holes, after that the matches being at thirty-six. The U. S. open will have no bear-ing on those qualifying this year when they will qualify by sections as origi-nally.

Hereafter the National P. G. A. will be made up of twenty-nine sections. Philadelphia is in the Eastern Pennsylvania branch, which includes Delaware. Maryland and Virginia also. It is therefore likely that the professional golfers of Philadelphia organization will change its name and boundaries to include all that territory, since the national body hopes to divide its ad-ministration in twenty-nine sections bodies, of which the Eastern Peneyl vania group will be one. known as yet how many men this sec-tion may qualify for the national cham-pionship, but the competition should more than keen with all that terri

Third Major League on Coast

Now that the big minor leagues have turned down the draft, the next move is to apply for major league standing. Our on the Coast they have been talking about forming a third major league, and probably will make an attempt to push it through before the winter ends,

Some difficulty will be experienced if this movement is launched. The standard of play does not warrant it, and the fans know it as well as any one else. They had a look at Cobb. Heilman, Hornsby, Sisler and several other big league stars in the winter league, and noticed the difference in their playing. There isn't an attribute on the Coast who can compare with them

The following, which was printed in a Los Angeles newspaper, throws some light on the subject

"California baseball fans have formed new e-finances of what a real star is. After having seen George Sisler they wonder what possessed Manager John McGraw, of the New York Glants, to tart with $75,000 to acquire Jimmy O'Connell. The latter looked had compared to Sisler. There is even some doubt as to whether it was real honest-to-goodness mazuma that Mc-Graw handed over or ordinary stage money. If it was real money, the Pacific Const fans think Metiraw is a fit subject for the alienists.

"Having seen Colib, the Const fairs also wonder how the Meusels, Boband Emil, ever got by, and if Hernshy is a sample of hig league second basemen, what chance has any Coaster to play the keystone suck in fast company?

"As the first impressions of the fairs copi, of course, they will realize that all first-spekers are not Sisters, all outfielders Colds and all seconds sackers Hornshys in the majors, but even so the impression made was deep. The visit of the quartet of stars was a great boost for unior league baseball in California.

"Not only by their play, has through their personality, Colin & Co. won a following that will and interest of Coast fathers major lengue play as nothing else could have done. . . .
