SARAH D. LOWRIE'S SATURDAY EVENING TALK

Your Shrill Little Whistle in Life May Affect Many Others Copyright, 1928, by Public Ledger Company With Its Cheer or Sadness

Sometimes after the turn of the night, in the very early merning, a boy goes by our house whistling. He is not always the same boy, for the tunes that are whistled range up and down the gamut of melodles from the last last catch back to a plain song as old as and older than Christianity, and the composition of the last lenge to other men of his sort who have opportunities like his to take their as and older than Christianity, and the chap who cares to keep his spirits up on a cold brisk night by the one sort of tune would not be likely to know the T WAS walking through the forest not in the distance and dies away. Something about the tune in that still hour of the night gives it for the moment of the whistler's passing a power not only to hold thought in suspense but to change subtly thought's only a tenth of all the little live things pense but to change subtly thought's only a ter phythm, so that no one goes back to about us.

and the things that get praised are inice and cottontails.

pain, waiting in suspense for the cruelest kind of death, the postponement of which only meant more suffering and greater weakness and the postpone gathered at that funeral. I spound on all the faces of the men and women gathered at that funeral. I thought: "There isn't one here woo has not been helped by that woman's estion with a single phrase of meloity. Which is only saying in common dignity and grace and brave simplicity in carrying herself through this living death for all these years."

She has made what the Lutius call a "beautiful gesture" in her heroism, are we there is no last nor first:

Test. He knew that if his meeting with Carol had meant nothing to her, she would have been effusive in her good-by, and instead she had avoided him.

"First rehearsal on Friday night."

Grace had said merrily. "Nick, I suppose you'll come along as sort of a watchdog. You haven't been married long enough to be happy it Carol is out of your sight for a moment, and remember the fascinating Mr. Britton is to be her leading man."

Nick's eyes met Jervis Britton's and the look on both sides was one of appraisal. In Nick's was an unspoken a few pairs left, but they and instead she had avoided him.

"First rehearsal on Friday night."

Grace had said merrily. "Nick, I suppose you'll come along as sort of a watchdog. You haven't been married long enough to be happy it Carol is out of your sight for a moment, and remember the fascinating Mr. Britton is to be her leading man."

Nick's eyes met Jervis Britton's and the look on both sides was one of appraisal. In Nick's was an unspoken and the look on both sides was one of appraisal. In Nick's was an unspoken and the look on both sides was one of appraisal. In Nick's was an unspoken and instead she had avoided him.

"First rehearsal on Friday night."

Grace had said merrily. "Nick, I suppose you'll come along as sort of a work look of solds were may be a few pairs left, but they and instead she had avoided him.

"First rehearsal on Friday night."

Grace had said merrily. "Nick is and in the hour of need of all who Say not 'a small event!' Why 'small'?

watched her the memory of that "gesturo" will stand them in good stead.

Are we: there is no last nor first:

Are we: there is no last nor first:

Costs it more pain than this ye call

A great event? • • Untwine me from about Lewis S. Sadler, whose death Power shall fall short in or exceed!" last week has brought to a halt what seemed to some persons a great hope for the future politics of this State.

AND there is an even better way of saying it, a fruth for all eternity:

Several years ago when his wife died, that he might put to shame the would ever raily the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise (in their own continuous carry and find chose the weak things in the had only to defend his own.

He gave one the Impression of living like that."

Virginia cooled.

'Love England'

so-to-speak joys of Paris."

You are devoted to England now.

Morris exchanged a swift glance with after being over there a year, I suppose, Mr. Morris?" she said blandly.

tune would not be likely to know the other. But what happens is the same, whatever the tune. The men and women, old and young, who are awake and restless in all the houses the length of his walk lie still for the moment and ground that I ever knew. He saw a deren lies there is the words peering at Grace Marriott's when she first met Jervis Britton as a milestone in her life. It was as though this man had awakened another side of her Esten to his tune until it grows faint dozen live things in the woods peeping at us with their little bright eyes and thinking quite in the old groove after the silence once more settles down into the low pulse beat of the city in the low pulse beat of the cit I have often thought if the whistle counters, come in and go out of board and business at an boast for a humans in our path as we do of the little night's performance—who can say what is of much account and what is of little streets in the woods, and remain as the first time she ceased to be sorry for what she had done, she thought only of the fact that night.

The providing doors, transact business at counters, come in and go out of board and business meetings, hurry along the articade between them.

She had hardly realized the power of Britton's personality until Nick called for her that night.

His entrance into the room, sleek and well groomed, had startled her. For the first time she ceased to be sorry for what she had done, she thought only of the fact that hardly realized the power of Britton's personality until Nick called for her that night.

She had hardly realized the power of Britton's personality until Nick called for her that night.

His entrance into the room, sleek and well groomed, had startled her. For the first time she ceased to be sorry for what she had done, she thought only of the fact that night. THE men who get praised for things so many squirrels and birds and field

The truth of the matter is that all to carry her off unless she wanted to make a scene and refuse to go. And Carol was still too bound by the convenience of the Sinn Fein political prisers and of their triumphant return what is not until you know the plot, and no human can guess his own plot until death writes "finis" under his included every one. Jervis Britton and included every one. Jervis Britton the mass WAS thinking the same thing, too, Of deeds which make up life, one deed from that shattering of all his life, ceit), and God chose the weak things in hand. He had only to defend his own onough to break the recluse ways into the world, that he might put to shame from the enemy who must of necessity which he had fallen. Whatever force the things that are strong, and the base attack. If Carol loved him this would the public life of service that had marked him since we entered the war, if was quite plainly not a zest for life that are, that no flesh should glory be at large. If Carol loved him this would be easy, but the fact that she did not nize the fact that practical economy the public life of service that had marked him since we entered the war, if was quite plainly not a zest for life that are, that no flesh should glory be a blow that would send it crumbling to have had both financial reductions in fore God." SARAH D. LOWRIE.

might be mad."
Paul nodded sympathetically

"I wanted to hear

would have broker

Paul and Virginia

By HELENA HOYT GRANT

The Patriot!

Bring him along, although we're going to have roast pork. Who is he, dear?"

"Morris is the fellow the firm sent to England. Remember him? He's the chap who said he was glad." I wanted to hear him? He's the chap who said he was glad he was going to a free country—lot of bunk drinking water: I wife and not hesitate London

when Paul telephoned. might be mad."
"Do you mind if I fetch Morris out Paul nodded sympat" to dinner, honey" "I spent three hours
"Of course not. on the Strand trying

"The Marriage Gambler'

Carol Rathbourne marries Nick Tracy without loving him in the least, for the reason that she cannot bear to see him ruin his life through his infatuation for Daisy Castleton, of "The Jolly Revelers." Nick suspects the truth and is fearful that another man may awaken her love. Then Jervis Britton comes into Carol's life and he exerts a queer fascination over her.

CHAPTER XXIX

Two Men and a Woman nature, for his eyes drew her compelingly, and she was conscious that her old reserve melted away under the charm of his personality.

Always she had been able to hide behind that reserve of hers. Once she had never wanted it otherwise, one escaped so much by pretending not to under-stand, and it had always been possible to hold Nick at bay by erecting it as a barricade between them.

Ilis entrance into the room, sleek and well groomed, had startled her. For the first time she ceased to be sorry for what she had done, she thought only of the fact that because she and Nick had murmured vows in the presence of several hundred people and a consister. had murmured vows in the presence of several hundred people and a minister. she was bound to him, he had the right until death writes "finis" under his included every one. Jervis Britton re-life. So it is best not to scamp any ceived no more than a fluttering or the But I were given them.

But I were given them.

But I were given them.

Prisoner who for fifteen years has of the details, but to live as though eyelids in his direction, but he was conwalked under the shadow of death, and each act might prove to be the last and tent. He knew that if his meeting with question which if put into words might have run like this. "Are you the man Carol will love? Have you the power to take her away gance. In his mind he was thinking, "Can you hold her, and if not, can you the ground.

"And there's nothing I can do." Nick Carol sat beside him strangely quiet and they do to every one of us, then she uncommunicative. "My hands are tied; can feel that it is possible to give the Once before he had faced this question and there had been only one satisfactory answer to it. Nick's first thought had been, "I'd kill the man who took her from me," that had been during their honeymeon when he had been so sure of winning her love. Now everything was changed. He was miserable, but Carol, too, was unhappy. He wanted her to have happiness far more than he wanted anything for himself. than he wanted anything for himself. am joining you."

But if he knew that her happiness could The rule in this class is, take your

in his thoughts. Monday-Vigils

Read Your Character Oh, yes: must you bring him home down and sobbed if I had seen a plate Mathematical Ability By Diaby Philling dinner?"

Oh, he's an awfully fine fellow-"
No baked beans?" If you were hiring a bookkeeper you Mr. Morris was a poet. That is, he passessed all the exterior marks. The scenery. In fact, he was a very able selesman and executive.

Virginia did not like him from the warr.

"You are devoted to England now.

No baked beans?"

Mr. Morris waved his hand in a large, encompassing way.

"Listen! I am no sentimentalist. I never read a line of American history.

In school, I was always strong on figures and planning ways to get out of school before 4 P. M."

No baked beans?"

Mr. Morris waved his hand in a large, encompassing way.

"Listen! I am no sentimentalist. I never read a line of American history.

In school, I was always strong on figures and planning ways to get out of school before 4 P. M."

No baked beans?"

Mr. Morris waved his hand in a large, encompassing way.

"Listen! I am no sentimentalist. I never read a line of American history.

In school, I was always strong on figures and planning ways to get out of school before 4 P. M."

Again Paul hung up.

Mr. Morris waved his hand in a large, encompassing way.

"Listen! I am no sentimentalist. I never read a line of American history.

In school, I was always strong on figures and planning ways to get out of school before 4 P. M."

Again Paul hung up.

Mr. Morris waved his hand in a large, encompassing way.

"Listen! I am no sentimentalist. I never read a line of American history.

In school, I was always strong on figures and planning ways to get out of school before 4 P. M."

Again Paul hung up.

No baked beans?"

Mr. Morris waved his hand in a large, encompassing way.

"Listen! I am no sentimentalist. I never read a line of American history.

In school, I was always strong on figures and who is well grounded in mathematics, and who is able upon occursions to pass severe tests in one or more of its branches, is necessarily one.

Again Paul nodded sympathetically.
"I don't know where George Washington was born. I have no idea when Abe Lincoln entered Washington. I don't know what the Civil War was all about. But, believe me. I know the maties and the man or woman to whom maties and the man or woman to whom "Ab—" he stammered, "ab—you mean I'm delighted to be home again, I suppose?" * * * * 11e did have a charming smile. Virginia remembered. "I thought you loved England," she said hastily.

don't know what the Civil War was all matics and the man or woman to whom you are talking mix well, look straight into his or her face. If your subject is a natural-born mathematician, there is an another than a new sould be said based only once since I was switched at the age of seven years.

Southern Virginia rear deeper to the age of seven years.

Somehow Virginia was drawn to this experience and a width to that part of the face.

A good development of the brain under this part of the skull is essential Mr. Morris stared absently at the to all the processes of mental calcula-

Mr. Morris laughed : haughed so loud-it as to be almost impolite.
"I love England? You might almost fireplace for a moment. eplace for a moment.

That was when I walked out of the who can add up a column of figures unwell accuse me of reveling in the railroad station of this town when I hesitatingly and with confidence. It is got home, and I saw the same old street the faculty principally of arithmetic. cars, the familiar figure of the cop on the corner——" "Oh, yes," he laughed, weth an tide wave of his hand. "I know! When the firm sent me abroad I shot off a lot of "Mr. Morris," murmured Virginia and logic, also are involved. strange stuff about personal liberty and softly. 'you rights and all that sort of ining. I this dressing.'

dare say we all do that.'

She glanced softly, "you must have some more of She glanced at Paul meaningly, "Yes, yes, Ed, have my life as I did a plate of buckwheat with an argument about whether one cakes and Vermont maple sirup in Ver-Monday-"Gladiator Stuff!"

Through a Woman's Eyes

Mrs. Wish-I-Didn't-Wish-I-Hadn't

And I tried to get pork chops and fried potatoes in the Carleton, in

"I wish I hadn't taken this one-of reason that they held off saying "Yes" course it's too late now. There was for fear of regreting afterward another suit—I can't think why I didn't But usually the Wish-I-Didn't-take that. This one will be an eyesore every time I have to wear it."

Wish-I-Hadn't people don't pick. They take anything that comes along. I know Do you know Mrs. Wish-I-Didn'tWish-I-Hadn't? Poor woman, she has an awful time of it.

If she buys a black hat she can't lim not at all fussy." And she isn't—think why she dun't take the blue one.

think why she didn't take the blue one. If she took patent leather shoes she is sorry she didn't take the dull. If her coat has a for color she thinks she would have preferred it plain.

After she has taken a first-floor apartment she thinks of the advantages of living upstairs. If she has engaged at Irish maid she is haunted by a certain Swede.

I'm not at all fussy." And she isn't—not when she is buying. It is after she gets her purchase home.

I think it was Huxiey who said.

Life is like walking along a crowded of the color of t

How fortunate are the people with blance of

Monday-The Balance Bump

W HAT'S WHAT

By HELEN DECIE

has finished, and that all are retarded Ginger Bread Pudding

If she is ordering a la carte her dinner is spoiled because she regrets taking grapefruit instead of oysters and she ish't sure she wouldn't rather have had the other kind of soup. If, fearing nervous prostration, her husband takes her to a table d'hote, she has something to be sorry for in the restaurant arross the street!

How fortunate are the people with blance of continuing the dinner or the power of seeing the advantages of the side they have chosen,
of standing by their bargain, of liking
what they have. How much energy they have how much irritation they miss, how much happier they are.
UNUSUAL PICTURES OF POPE

How fortunate are the people with blance of continuing the dinner or course, by taking a bit of bread, or by using a fork to eat a morsel from her plate now and then. The olives, nurs company dinner' are very useful for the other kind of soup. If, fearing
what they have. How much energy
they have chosen,
of standing by their bargain, of liking
what they have had what they have hove now and then trifles usually served at a
"company dinner" are very useful for the other kind of soup. If, fearing
what they have. How much energy they have had only the power of seeing the advantages of the side they have chosen.
of standing by their bargain, of liking
what they have. How much energy they have of continuing the dinner or course, by taking a bit of bread, or by
using a fork to eat a morsel from her
course, by taking a bit of bread, or by
using a fork to eat a morsel from her
course, by taking a bit of bread, or by
using a fork to eat a morsel from her course.
The ourse, by taking a bit of bread, or by using a fork to eat a morsel from her
course.
The ourse, by taking a bit of bread, or by using a fork to eat a morsel from her
course.
The ourse, by taking a bit of bread, or by using a fork to eat a morsel from her
course.
The ourse, by taking a bit of bread, or by
using a fork to eat a morsel from her
course, by taking a bit of bread, or by
using a fork to eat a morsel from her course, by taking a bi her to a table d'hote, she has something to be sorry for in the restaurant suross the street!

No doubt there are Miss W. I. D-W.

L. H.'s who are spinsters for the sole

Section of tomorrow's Pushed Lebess. Adv.

In the Retegrator of the sole of the sole of tomorrow's Pushed Lebess. Adv.

In the suross the street of the sole of the sole of tomorrow's Pushed Lebess. Adv.

In the suross the street of the sole of the sole of the sole of tomorrow's Pushed Lebess. Adv.

In the suross the street of the sole of the sole ability have more to do with style now than ever before. the various ways of putting on a veil, all of which are in good style. If your hat or your face looks bet-ter with a flowing veil, you drape a lacy thing loosely and let it flow. If, on the other hand, you or your hat happens to be the chic, neat, piquent type, the little close-inched well that reaches just to your mouth and is held in firmly is more becoming and just as correct. In the center above is a new arrangement for the veil, two huge rings at the sides of the turban, put there to hold a long veil with chiffon border, which can be worn in the charming manner shown here, or as a harem vell, or thrown back over the hat and held in in white and have pink or blue stripes on the borders, and are of excellent quality. Don't you think that is a originally priced as high as fifty cents and seventy-five cents. But the whole lot has been repriced at twenty cents each. Some are plain, others have bristles on the back. They seem to me to be very nice brushes.

If you see about them immediately.

I ran across a sale of nail brushes bargain price for woolen blankets?

Search for Inexpensive Dishes Mrs. Wilson Lends Invaluable Aid Simply tell either one when their destress for a date with you conflict with each other that you'll go with the one who asks you first, that you have no favorites, In the Search for Inexpensive Dishes

Britton were a look of careless arro- She Gives Today a Daintily Varied List That Will Take Care of an Entire Week in a Most Economical Manner

> By MRS. M. A. WILSON Copyright, 1922, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson, All rights reserved

BUSINESS conditions make it imperative for the housewife to recoga blow that would send it crumbling to have had both financial reductions in wage and also many idle weeks. The "And there's nothing I can do." Nick wise woman always seeks to save a diought later. They were in a taxi, and dollar, and when hard times come, as it would do more harm than good if I family nourishing food, because she has asserted my rights and held her by economized in the days of plenty.

I have a class of mothers, who have he bought by handing her over to au- basket and market, buy best of its other man, could he be brave enough kind, and do not make the mistake of buying poor or spoiled foods. Nick shrank from this question even A Week's Menu From the Thrifty Club

MONDAY Stewed Prune Griddle Cakes

Coffee Luncheon Potato Salad Bread and Butter

Tea Dinner Boiled Beef With Potatoes

Apple Pie TUESDAY

Breakfast Baked Apples

Fried Mush Coffee Luncheon

Rice Soup Brend Omeie Fried Potatoes Ginger Bread

Dinner Pea Pudding Holled Potatoes Spiced Beets

Apple Tarts WEDNESDAY Breakfast

Stewed Penenes French Toast Coffee

Luncheon Paked Macaroni with Cheese Cabbage Saind

Jelly Ginger Brend

Dinner en Croquettes Cream Potatoes Cheese Sauce Ce'ery and Onion Salad Cereal Pudding Tea THURSDAY Breakfast

Apple Sames Home-Made Scrapple Panned Reheat of Creamed Potatoes Bread Coffee Luncheon Weish Rubbit on Tous:

Cereal Pudding Apple Sauce Dinner Latab Store with Vegetables

Sliced Oranges Ontmest with Raisins and Cream Bread Butter Coffee Luncheon Tomato Soup Cheese Sandwiches

FRIDAY

Breakfast

Ginger Pudding Dinner Sait Mackerel Spanish

each other that you'll go with the one who asks you first, that you have no favorites.

Anent Various Matters

Dear Cynthia—When a girl attends a dance accompanied by girl friends, is it proper for her to accept the company of a young man home?

If a girl accepts presents, such as candy, from a young man, does that obligate her to him in any way?

If a young man attempts to quarrel with a girl through the mall, because she has refused to go to a dance with him, after she has given him a perfectly sensible excuse, should she answer him or just let the matter drop?

A CONSTANT READER.

You will find a list of addressing companies under that head in the business section of the telephone book. They are always glad to have the names of any one who can do this work at home, in case they have large assignments to be inished quickly. Apply by letter for this work, so that they can see your handwriting, and be sure to make the writing just as clear and firm as possible, as that is a decided point in your favor in work of this kind.

How to Keep Linen White

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—I would appreciate very Whole Boiled Potatoes Pick'ed Beets Taploca Pudding SATURDAY

Breakfast Sliced Bananas Griddle Cakes Coffee

Luncheon Creamed Beef on Toast Tapioca Pudding

Dinner String Beaus quarrel, better let the matter drop. Baked Lima Beans with Tomatoes Cabbage Salad

Breakfast Stewed Prunes with Raisins

Lamb Liver with Bacon Coffee Dinner Rolled Shoulder of Lamb Brown Gravy 1 Potatoes Mashed Turnips Brown Potators Mas Colery Salad

Why, he has not been any place to brag about, yet. I, too, am an exsallor and have been around to all parts of the globe, such as France, England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Russia, Turkey, Ireland, Sweden, Norway, Canada, Mexico, Panama, Cuba, Brazil and Chile, etc. I have also been from coast to coast and have traveled over 6000 miles in the U. S. A., and been in every State in the Union. I will give the Oregon and California girls the benefit of the doubt, but so far as England is concerned. I am bound to knock the girls, because I got into a dittle party with them and landed in jail. You know, the American gitl says, "I can get a divorce," Where does any love come it in a divorce? The foreign girl says, "I love you, no other girl will get you," and believe me, Mr. Globe-trotter, they would sooner knife you than see another girl get you. What could be sweeter? Well, Dixle, old boy, am I right or wrong? Let's hear from you, Hoping this will hold the Globe-trotter for a while. Brown Betty Supper Derived Eggs Potato Salad

Crumb Cake Apple Sauce Ten

Pea Pudding Wash and soak overnight one pound of dried peas; in morning, cover with cold water and add One onion, minced fine, Cabbage Salad and cook until tender; drain and rab one-half of the cooked peas through a sieve and add Two teaspoons of salt, One-kalf teaspoon of poultry sea

Two tablespoons of grated onion, Three tablespoons of batter, mix, then add Two well-beaten eggs.
One cup of thick cream sauce, made using half milk and half of the liquid drained from the peas for making sauce.

Two thirds cap of bread crumbs, mix well and turn in well-greased, custard cups and bake in slow oven for thirty-five minutes. Use balance of the liquid drained from pens for soup.

For the pea croquettes, much balance of peas; teason; add

Two-thirds cup of bread crumbs, Grated onion, One-half teaspoon of poultry seasoning. Mold into croquettes, rell in flour; then dip in beaten egg and milk and roll in time bread crumbs and fry in hot

Things You'll Love to Make

A PAPER AND BAG RECEPTACLE is very convenient to have on the inside of a kitchen or pantry cupboard door: the housewife always has so many tags and papers she wishes to keen. Cur a plece of heavy paper or offcloth a few inches narrower than the door and few mones narrower than the door and about the same length. Make a one-inch fold on each side to give room for thickness of papers. Tack the piece of olicioth to the door with thumb tacks-hing or white-headed ones are the pieces. hine or white-scance towards the back-Hefore tacking on your PAPER AND BAG RECEPTACLE decorate it with a simple design. FLORA. a simple design.

ANOTHER GREAT LOVE STORY
"A Man's Way," by Ruby Ayres, shows what happens when two women love the same man Start this story Wednesday, February 1, in the Evening Puelic Ledge.

The Thought That You Give Out With Your Small Alms to a Beggar

May Have the Effect of a Prayer for His Shame, His Welfate or His Fortitude if It Is Aimed in That Direction

As YOU walk along a city street on again you don't feel as if you really ought to help them all.

But, again, you'd like to, because they might be hungry, and some of them are undoubtedly cold and in need.

in his darkness with a cane. There, a woman sitting on a cold

Y away.

Even if you have given just a little, as much as you can afford, you feel as if you should have given more.

But I think you do help that person you give just a little or the tone step with a child in her arms. Running along beside you, a limping, sad-eyed boy trying to sell chewing to whom you give just a little or the beggar whom you turn away if your thoughts are given with the deed.

I like to feel that the thought counts as much as the whole gift and adds more to it.

You don't know whether they are in need or not.

how unscrupulous men, and women, too, go about the streets in rags begging, telling piteous tales of their poverty and need; and after "work," going back to comfortable homes and putting on good clothes, to eat a plentiful meni.

That is one thing that makes you hesitats; your impulse and desire is to hand out at least a little to each one.

But another thing that makes you hesitate, especially if you walk that street often, is that there are so many, and if you are an average person. You have heard so many stories of

But another thing that makes you hesitate, especially if you walk that street often, is that there are so many. and if you are an average person, you cannot do more than contribute to about one charity, outside of your regular There is not too great a difference in your ages. Do not be so self-conscious. No one is looking at you. Have a good time talking to the girl you are with. When you are older perhaps you will want to marry her. Four or five years' difference between a man and his wife is quite an ideal difference, when the years are on the marry side, as in your

To "D. S. J."

cars are on the man's elde, as in your

How to Handle Her Admirers him or just let the matter drop?

Just Which Girls Is He For?

pour column daily and have seen a little argument between "Dixle" and the "Globe-trotting Englishman," and I agree with Dixle as to what that Englishman saw in his traveling.

Why, he has not been any place to

THEN sometimes there seem to be your door.

Some from real charities that you know about and want to help.

Some from charities that you know about and want to help.

Some from charities that you know about and want to help.

Some from charities that you know are the can give more material help than you ca know about and want to help.

Some from charities that you know nothing of, but would like to help if they are what they claim to be. they are what they claim to be.

Others from people who tell a straightforward story of perfectly true and perfectly frightful hard luck— and leaves toward them must have some Dear Cynthia—Here is my trouble: I am a girl in my teens and have quite a few boy friends, but there are two of these I think most of. They both belong to the same fraternity, are good-looking, good dancers and good sports. Now one of these seems to think the other gets more dates than he, although he never said so, but by his actions sometimes he shows it. You see, Cynthia, I do not want to lose either of these boys' friendship, as I have known them for some time. One I met at a seashore resort a few years ago, and the other on a moonlight party the early part of last summer. I am afraid I will lose this one boy's friendship if I can't explain, if he should ask me, so please tell me what to do, hoping to see an answer soon.

K. T. H.

Simply tell either one when their de-Dear Cynthia-Here is my trouble: don't like to tell it.

Still others from people who are obously "fakes." themselves, we can make Again you cannot help them all, and by thinking that they do.

Dear Madam—I would appreciate very much if you would advise me how I could rather you suggest something that Wrap your linens in an old sheet that has been dyed a faint blue, and you will keep them from turning yellow.

It is better to go home with the girls you go to a party with, unless you have a different understanding with them beforehand. It's never polite to drop some friends and go off with others.

Candy and flowers do not put a girl under any other obligation than politeness, and one should always be polite, anyway.

BLUE EYES, much if you would advise ne how I could keep my linens from turning yellow. I have some very beautiful handwork and do not intend to use it for a while, as I am keeping it for my hope-chest. I've noticed that it is turning yellow. Thanking you in advance, would disappear in washing the linens. I would not like to wash them. I would rather you suggest something that

BLUE EYES.

The Woman's Exchange To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—Can you please advise me in what way I can earn some money in my spare time? I would like best to address envelopes. Can you give me the names of some firms who would like such work done?

A CONSTANT

roundabout effect like this.

And if they don't have that power is

VOU feel bad when you turn the PRAYERS are used in so many diff.

ferent ways.

Fresh from the nest!

I $1000 DURANT TOURING CAR FOR LARGEST NUMBER OF SALADA TEA PACKAGI PRICE ENDS, FOOD EXHIBIT, S. E. COR, 12TH & CHESTNUT STS., 2D FLOOR, CAR TO BE SEEN AT REEVES, TYSON & CO., 431 NORTH BROAD STREET

been reading will find they will keep the origina

Is the Essence of all That is Best in Tea

"To Taste is to Believe"

It stays fresh over Sunday

Besides the high quality of Victor Bread and the generous size of the loaves, there is still another feature to account for its tremendous popularity.

That is its "stay fresh" feature—its keeping qualities. Victor Bread stays fresh because it is made from pure ingredients and baked carefully, scientifically, exactly.

Victor Bread

Buy Victor Bread today. You'll be surprised and delighted to see w fresh it will keep over Sunday.

> Victor Bread is bread as it should be baked sold only in Asco Stores, located all over Phila, and throughout Pennsylvania, New Jerssy.

Delaware and Maryland