Virginia laughed—gayly now.

So Paul invested fifty dellars.
But it was four days before he teld Virginia of it, and then did it in a casual way. He tossed the quiet, solid-laking certificate into her lap when he lentlessly.

"Yust a little investment, honey," he with a shring. "It is funny. I admit and carelessly. "It's for you; it's in four name. Now we can just put it you and forget we have it, and some lay—well, some day it will be worth a for of money." He paused and then hed the judgment to add in a voice just the least bit shaded: "Maybe."

Two artists can set out to paint a sunset. The sunset of one may be dull and commonplace, while the other's creation will stand out, almost living in its realism. Both use the same pigments. The difference is in the painting.

Our Master Bakers use the purest of ingredients in baking Victor Bread, but they also take a genuine pride in their art, which is evidenced in the quality of the finished loaf. They are artists the same as the painter.

When you eat your first slice of the delicious Victor Bread, you'll realize that they have something to be proud of!

While her Daddy was away in the War

LITTLE MAY JANETTE was a "war baby" born while her father was in the service. Mrs. Martin, finding it necessary to return to her work, started her baby on Borden's Eagle Brand Milk. As May Janette's five little cousins were brought up on Eagle Brand, naturally Mrs. Martin had great confidence in it. And with good reason. For May Janette now three-anda-half years old-"is strong, sturdy and full of life and energy" her mother says.

Don't experiment with your baby's food. Eagle
