Mrs. Binns is an English woman, and a real smart cook, and I have urged her to give some of her splendid old family recipes to this corner. This one is quite new. I have found many cheese recipes, but not one as delicious as this. It is called

Surrey Cheese
 Place in small double boiler
 One well-beaten egg.
 One tablespoon of sugar.
 One tablespoon of vinegar.
 Two tablespoons of milk.
 One-half teaspoon of salt.
 Beat well and cook until thick. Remove and cool, and add
 One well-beaten egg.
 One tablespoon of finely chopped onion.
 One tablespoon of finely chopped green pepper.
 One cake of cream cheese.
 Beat and work to blend well, and serve in crisp nests of lettuce, with whole-wheat bread and butter.

English Penny Muffins
 This muffin is famous in England and quite easy to make. In some parts of the country this muffin is baked on griddle on the top of the stove and turned once.

Place in a bowl
 One cup of water.
 One-half cup of sugar.
 Five tablespoons of shortening.
 Two teaspoons of salt.
 Now pour in one cup of boiling milk and stir to dissolve the sugar, shortening and salt and let cool. When about 80 degrees Fahrenheit add
 One well-beaten egg.
 One yeast cake.
 Crumble in. Stir to dissolve the yeast cake, and add

Eight level cups of flour.
 knead to a smooth, elastic dough, then grease the mixing bowl. Now turn in the dough and press the dough firmly against the bottom of bowl and turn the dough over. Now cover closely and set away in place free from draughts, and let rise for four hours. Turn out on molding board; do not handle. Now roll lightly with the rolling pin, about one-half inch thick, cut with the biscuit cutter, work up the trimmings, cover and let stand for ten minutes, and roll and cut.

Sprinkle a cloth liberally with flour and lay the muffins on cloth; cover with a light dusting of flour and a clean cloth and let rise for thirty minutes; lift gently from the cloth, brushing off the flour and lay on a baking sheet and bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes. Serve hot, or split and toast, and serve with orange marmalade.

Devonshire Cream
 Place in a baking dish
 One-half pint of cream.
 One cup of milk.
 using the milk from the top of the bottle. Set the baking dish in a pan of warm water and then place where it will keep warm for one hour. Then remove and cool. Then place in refrigerator for twenty-four hours. Lift the thick clotted cream from the top and place in glass fruit saucers and serve with canned or preserved fruits for dessert.

Lancashire Pork Pies
 Place in a bowl
 One-half pound of pork sausage.
 One-half pound of veal, chopped as fine as sausage.
 Four lumps of parsley.

One onion, minced with veal.
 Now place in a separate bowl
 Five cups of flour.
 One teaspoon of salt.
 One tablespoon of baking powder.
 Sift and then rub in one-half pound of finely chopped suet and use two-thirds of a cup of water to form a dough.
 Roll out part of this paste and use to line the deep muffin pans. Place in a little of the prepared pork, and
 One teaspoon of breadcrumbs.
 One teaspoon of water.
 Roll out more pastry and cut a top, using the large biscuit cutter. Make three little gashes in the top crust and bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes.

Marrow Dumplings
 Have butcher split a marrow bone. Scrape the marrow from bone. Place
 Four tablespoons of marrow in bowl, and add
 Two tablespoons of butter.
 One tablespoon of minced onion.
 Two tablespoons of finely minced parsley.
 Three-quarters cup of breadcrumbs.
 Two-thirds cup of flour.
 One teaspoon of salt.
 One-half teaspoon of white pepper.
 Two teaspoons of baking powder.
 One-half teaspoon of sweet marjoram.
 One well-beaten egg.
 Seven tablespoons of milk.
 Mix and turn in a pudding cloth and plunge into a pot of boiling water. Cook for forty-five minutes, then lift to the colander, and let drain for a few minutes. Then turn on hot platter and serve with either brown gravy or parsley sauce. This dish is nice to serve with boiled beef or steaks.

Smoked Herrings (Bloaters)
 Split the smoked fish and scrape. Now cover with boiling water for five minutes, drain and pan in little hot butter. Lift to hot dish and season with a little melted butter.
 Sometimes the fillets of the fish after cooking are served on toast, with a little minced parsley and melted butter.

Beefsteak and Kidney Pie
 Cut in pieces and wash three lamb kidneys. Cover with boiling water and cook for twenty minutes. Now place in a bowl
 Three cups of flour.
 One teaspoon of salt.
 One tablespoon of baking powder.
 One-half teaspoon of white pepper.
 Six to mix, and then add
 Four ounces of finely chopped suet, rub in the suet well, and then add
 Ten tablespoons of cold water, to form a dough. Roll out little better than half of this dough. Now rub a round-bottomed bowl lightly with butter, and fit in the pastry, letting the pastry come up well over the side of the bowl.

Cut one and one-half pounds of round steak in small pieces, season the steak well and roll each piece in flour. Add the prepared kidneys,
 Two tablespoons of grated onion.
 Three tablespoons of finely minced parsley.
 Two tablespoons of Worcestershire sauce.
 Turn in the prepared bowl and roll balance of the pastry and use for top crust, pinching the edges well together. Now rub a pudding cloth lightly with butter, shorten and dust well with flour. Tie the pudding in this cloth, making the tie underneath the bowl. Plunge into a large pot of boiling water and cook for two hours, taking care that the pudding is well covered with the boiling water. Take up the pudding, remove the cloth and turn pudding on hot platter. Serve plain or with cheese or brown sauce.

NEW STORM AT CITY HALL

Boothblack's Helper Ejected and Reprisals Are Threatened
 Shoeshining circles in City Hall have been shaken by the latest development in the political struggle among the bootblacks.
 Rocco Richetti, who shines all the Vice shoes, recently introduced an apple of discord in the person of William Walker, one of his Negro followers.
 At this flooding of the labor market there was a strategic if momentary rapprochement between Mike Piacchi, the Administration bootblack, and Frank Giarrano, the Independent, who shines the Mayor's shoes.
 They interviewed Chief Baxter, of the Bureau of City Property, who also acts in an ex-officio capacity as major-domo of the City Hall bootblacks, and the result was the summary ejection of William Walker from the premises.
 Rocco has called upon the world at large to witness this deed, which he lays at the door of political preferment, and his threats of reprisal upon the contents are of the most bloodcurdling nature.

Central Aisle Opportunities

600 Percaline Petticoats Are 50c
 Lowest price of the season for full-length petticoats with tucked or accordion-pleated flounces and elastic at the waists. Mostly black, though a few are purple.

Women's Black Silk Stockings, $1.25
 Full-fashioned ones of extra-heavy pure black silk with mercerized soles and reinforced mercerized tops. Such slight "seconds" that irregularities in the weave are barely perceptible.

Knitted Petticoats, $1
 Soft, close-fitting ones that women find most comfortable. Light gray with stripes of pink, blue, black or white.

Wool Jersey Overblouses $3.90
 Navy, reindeer, henna and beaver blouses of fine twill wool jersey with linen collars and cuffs—models that have proved extremely popular for sports and street wear.

A Fine Lot of All-Wool Overcoats for Men and Young Men at $35
 The overcoats that men want!
 Made of thick, all-wool coatings with plaid or contrasting backs. Substantial enough to withstand Winter storms; heavy enough to be warm in coldest weather.
 They are in ulsterette style, double-breasted, with convertible collars, deep pockets and belts across the back or all around.
 All regular sizes for men and young men.
Men's Oxfords at $5.25
 "No better Oxfords at anywhere near the price!" More than one man has given that as his opinion.
 We know that they are good Oxfords. The tan leather is sturdy quality, the Oxfords have a good appearance and the soles are made for long and satisfactory wear.
 (Galleries, Market)

Hundreds of Seasonable Coats, With or Without Fur, Under $30

As low as $12 they begin—good-looking sports coats, fully lined with silk.

Sports Coats at $20
 One of the smart tweeds is sketched. They are fully lined with silk and especially well tailored. Polo coats are in various dark and light mixtures. Many are of contrasting-back heavy coating.

Three Groups All at $25
Fur-trimmed coats—almost all have large collars of beaverette. Materials include velour and cut bolivia in brown, Sorrento blue and navy—many models, a few of a kind. $25.
Dress coats, as they are best known, are finely tailored of soft good bolivias. Some exceptional sample coats are among them. Throw ties, interesting sleeves, etc., are worth noticing. $25.
New Spring sports coats are mostly three-quarter length and quite full. Some belts show several cloth loops in back. The raglan shoulders still prevail. Materials are in warm browns, tans and creamy camel's-hair. $25.

Fur-Collared Coats at $27.50
 Many extraordinary sample coats—few of a kind—make up this lot. Good quality beaverette fur is generously used and the bolivias are particularly fine. All are fully lined with silk and interlined.

Practical-Front Corsets Are Very Practical, Indeed

The fronts are of ingenious design, being of strips of elastic which hook next the figure. Over this is a lacing, which laces easily on flat hooks like a man's shoe. It's a perfect reducing contrivance. Backs are smooth, like any front-lace corset, though these are more strongly boned.
 They are double-boned throughout and are of pink batiste, coutil or broche.
 There are models suitable for average figures as well as for the hard-to-fit figures—those who are tall and stout or short and stout.
 Prices range from $5 to $7.50.
 (Central)

All-Wool Blankets, $7.50

Various kinds, some lowered in price because they are a little soiled along the outer fold. All are pure wool and measure 66x80 inches. Pink-and-white block plaids and gray blankets with line plaids of darker color.
 (Central)

Satin Pantalettes, $4.50

They are finished with accordion-pleated ruffles. The satin is in brown, navy, black and many lovely changeable hues, such as plum-and-blue, gold-and-turquoise, garnet-and-emerald.

"I know my competitor is a quitter"

LAST spring, when his business was very bad, a man decided that he would cut out all the booklets, catalogs, and sales helps he had used in other years.

"I suppose I am a quitter," he told his printer.

A second later he said, "Wait a minute. I know my competitor is a quitter—I am going ahead."

He did. He put his printed messages before every prospective customer he could afford to reach. It cost money. It took nerve. It brought business.

This year is the first year that he has done more business than anybody else in his line.

Better paper produces better printing. Better printing means better seeing, and better seeing means better selling.
