Life Insurance Figures Reflect Business Stability

There is a note of optimism in the figures below, which should give encourgement to all thoughtful business men. The new paid business of the Fidelity Mutual Life in 1921 was within 71 per cent. of the unparalleled total of 1920. This large volume of new insurance, together with the advance in interest rates on invested funds. increased our income to $11,013,423.58. After meeting all obligations Fidelity Finances and providing the required reserves, we show a surplus Forty-Third Annual Statement, December 31, 1921 The Fidelity increased its insurance in force or reserve for contingencies of $1,904,844.03, a gain during to $222,815,106. The Fidelity's new paid business in 1921 the year of $429,545.05. amounted to $40,521,723. While FIDELITY issues all forms of modern life insurance, ASSETS much of its rapid progress is due to specializing on retirement inincomes, under an original FIDELITY PLAN which provides for the insured as well as his dependents. This plan is known the country over as the FIDELITY'S

Before You Buy That Safe—

First look for the label of the Underwriters' Laboratory-this is your assurance that the safe has passed the "Fire," "Crash" and "Explosion" tests.

Then see if the price is as interesting as those we are quoting on "Allsteel" Safes.

The prices and the value of "Allsteel" Safes will decide your choice. Come in or phone for a salesman.
