

"CYCLING" IN THE SNOW. The rider, Miss Gwan Chewett, is having a splendid time at Murren, in the Swiss Alps. She was snapped as she started the cycle-sled. The "braising" is done with the feet Underwood & Underwood

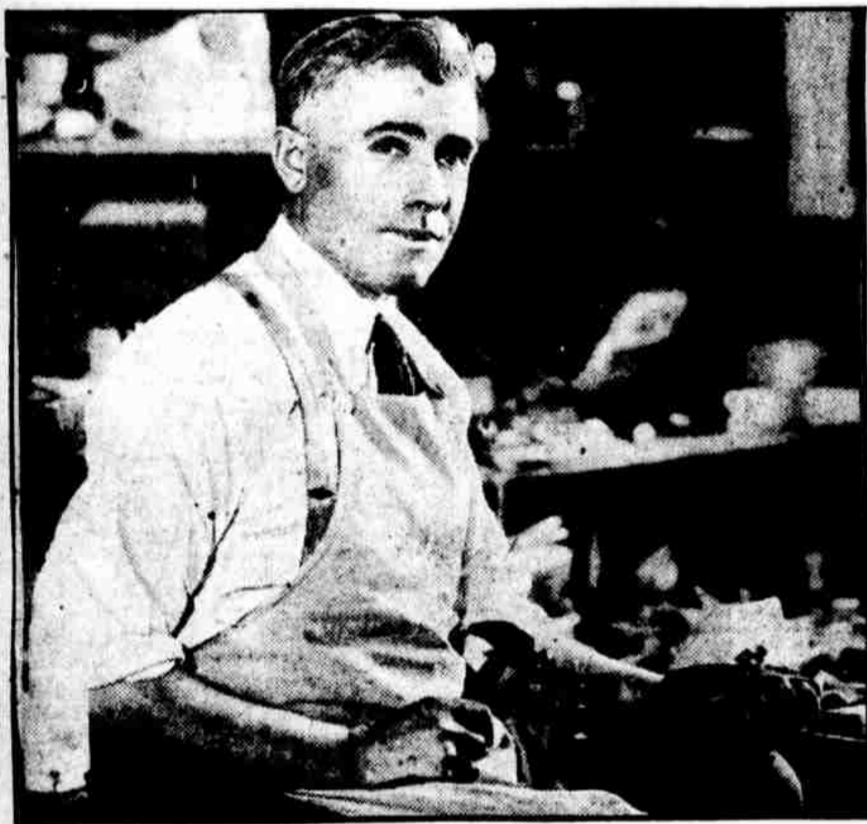

DO YOU ENVY HER? Mrs. Glenmore Sweeting, of Pittsburgh, in an orange grove at Palm Beach Underwood & Underwood

MAY COME TO AMERICA. The Queen of Rumania and her beautiful daughter, Princess Iloana, soon to arrive in London Central News Photo

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? WHERE A FORMER NAVY YARD WAS LOCATED. View of the entrance to the old Philadelphia Navy Yard, at Front and Federal streets. All naval work was done here until the League Island site was taken over by the Government. F. A. Fuhrmeister, Jr., of 2000 Emily street, contributed the photograph. Have you an old-Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

HE'S GOING TO LEAVE KANSAS. Very good reason, too, for E. A. Spady has been appointed cobbler for the White House family. He was born in Ohio Keystone View Co.

MISS MILDRED LONGSTRETH

MISS ERNESTINE APPLETON (LEFT) AND MRS. JOSEPH R. ROLLINS

MISS JEANNE DE ROUSSE

SOCIETY FOLK WHO APPEARED IN "SPORTS OF THE WORLD," AT ACTORS' FUND BENEFIT

PRINCE OF WALES ON BIG-GAME HUNT. This is part of the huge program arranged by the people of India for the entertainment of this popular member of Great Britain's royal family. The Prince is on the first "pad" elephant Central News Photo

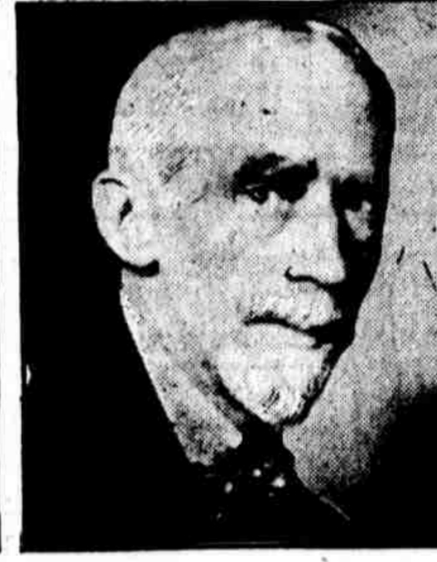

FREDERICK M. FEIKER, special agent Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce Central News Photo

MAY BE ITALIAN PREMIER. Signor Giolitti, a former Prime Minister Central News Photo

AT THE ARMS CONFERENCE. Former Secretary of the Navy Daniels was interested in the naval treaty discussion. Mrs. Daniels was with him. They are shown leaving the Conference headquarters Underwood & Underwood

JUDGE J. WILLIS MARTIN talks of aid to prisoners' families in Editorial Page interview

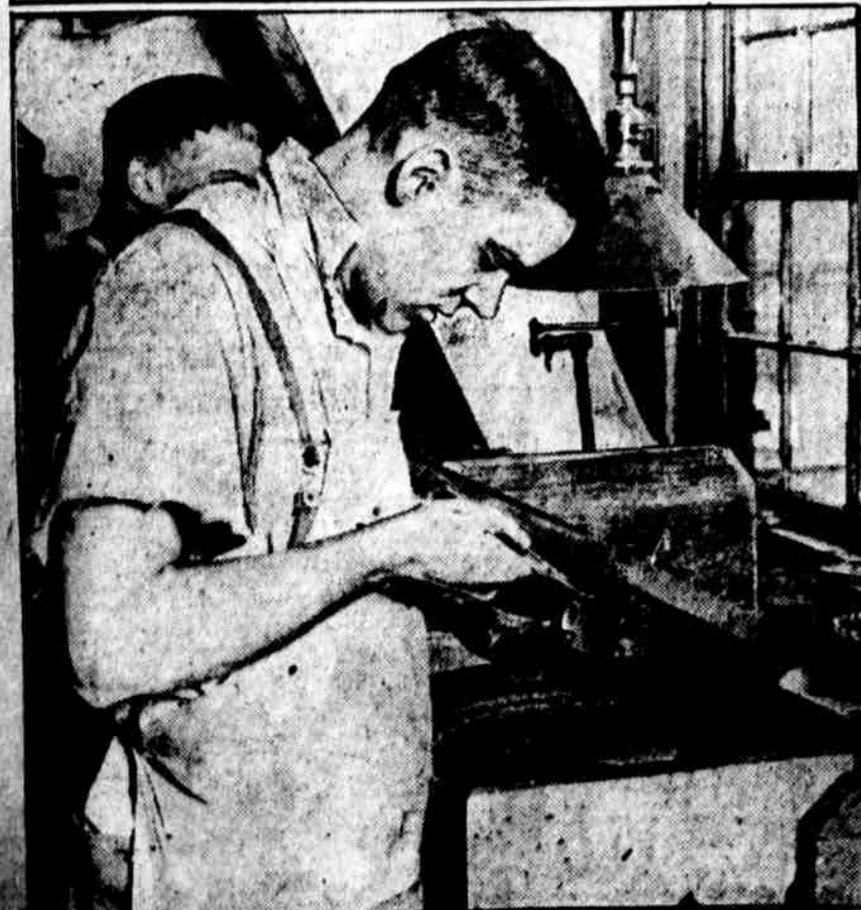

WROTE "JUST BECAUSE." Mrs. Lewis B. Woodruff, well known in New York social life, has written musical play Underwood & Underwood

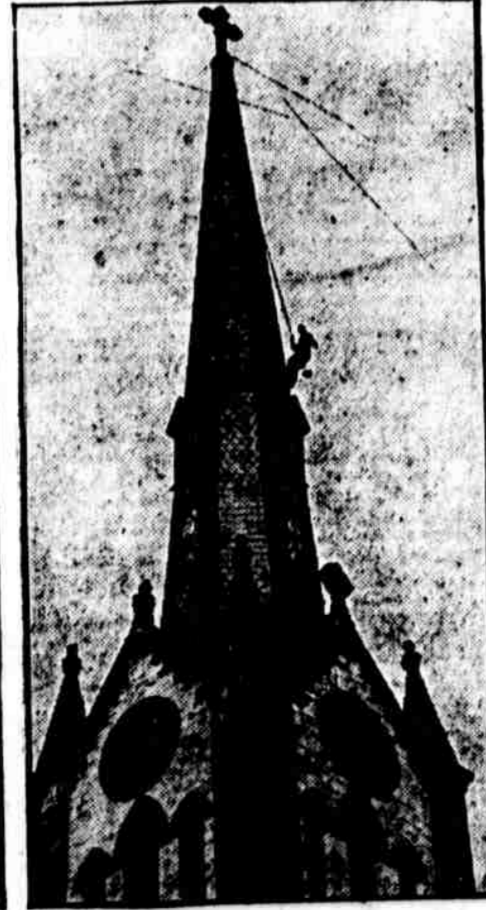

ON THE SANDS AT ATLANTIC CITY. James Walters, youthful citizen of Philadelphia, his dog Chummy and a borrowed pony

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WILLIAM DEBRING, 2620 Somerset street, operating a grinding machine for D. V. Brown, manufacturing optician, 740 Sansom street. He grinds lens surfaces at the rate of seventy-five pairs a day Guide

REPAIR WORK. A steeplejack busy at the German Reformed Church, Thirty-eighth and Baring streets

THEY SUPPLY THE FAMILY MUSIC. Billie Birmingham, who has busy feet, is ably supported by his sister Helen in their player-piano "duo," at their home, 2361 E. Clearfield street

A PHILADELPHIAN. Eddie Hill is playing with St. Nicholas ice hockey team

H. F. RICHARD, 1817 Pine street, vice president of the Federal Trust Company, Broad and Federal streets. Mr. Richard is a member of the Merion Cricket Club. Golf is his hobby.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS