Balance "Exceeds Expectations," Despite Hard Times

and Increase in Work

ECONOMIES GIVEN CREDIT

The Episcopal Church in the United States finished the year 1921 with a surplus beyond expectations, despite the hard times, it is shown in a report by

Lewis B. Franklin national treasurer

The actual surplus will not be known definitely until complete reports have felds in which the church operates. The Diocese of Pennsylvania last year sent to the national headquarters of the nation-wide campaign quota for Gen-

Franklin afford an interesting study of the upward trend of church financing.

even during the depression following the World War. In 1919 the entire rev-enue of the church for national purposes, exclusive of diocesan and paro-chial income, was $1,756,822.84.

campaign of the church, the income for 1920 increased to $3,483,124,50, or ap-1920 increased to $3,483,124,56, or approximately double. In 1921 this increased to $3,571,958,71.

These figures are not to be confused with the recently reported increase of $10,000,000 in the total revenues of the burch, which amount covered the re-cipis for parochial and diocesan as well

Prior to 1920 the church for many years had shown a deficit. In that year there was a surplus of $278,370.17.

and now comes the surplus of 1921, not-

Actress Suspected

ocation" was Marshall Neilan, di-ing which period she had seen him only

Probe Blackmail Theory

What was said to be a large autopublic of striking appearance, seen near the Taylor apartments the night has been an element in the crime. It is said to be considered possible the slayer tempted to extort money from Tay-arrest, shot to kill. An open the detectives, have been part i a plan of the director to "stall" on-khook on Taylor's writing dosk.

the police could arrive.
Another phase they are considering is whether Taylor might have feared for his life. From some sources the de-ectives were said to have gained the information tunt for a few days before his death Taylor had seemed "uneasy

the police that Taylor, who usuused his automobile, left his apart-

w hours before he was slain, and was with a considerable period.

What the police regarded as suspiem by many persons. Theodore Kosloff, dancer told of having heen "on location" in the country with Taylor about two weeks ago. They were waiking together. Suddenly from tobind a clump of bushes a man sprang toward Taylor. They faced each other for a moment, and then the stranger walked away. Taylor offered no ex-cumulation, Kosloff and Members of the Motion Picture Di-foot Wednesday afternoon, a about something."

Henry Feavey, his Negro houseman.

for and, when refused, or threatened with a pen nearby, might, in the opin entinued from Page One

Under the impetus of the nation-wide

Comparative figures compiled by Mr.

eral Missions

CALL AT WOMRATH'S LIBRARY

FOR THOSE BOOKS YOU WANT TO READ

Aave money by renting all the new popular fiction and the most talked of books of Travel, His-tory, Blography, etc. Prompt service of clean copies.

PHILADELPHIA BRANCH 15 South 13th St.

JACOBS Book Sale NOW ON

1628 Chestnut Street

Reliable Optometrist

J. E. STRECKER CO., Inc. 3017-27 Ruth St.

GENUINE TYPEWRITTEN LETTERS IN QUANTITY

Highest Class Merchandising Service

Write for our Booklet "A Plea for Real Letters"

HOOVEN SALES CO.

WERE YOU CAUGHT! MANY WERE!! Prepare for next cold snap-IT WILL COME.

Save Money! Buy Now! Egg Coal - - $13.50 per ton Stove Coal - - $14.00 per ton Large Pea Coal, $10.50 per ton Cash Prices for Short Time Only

HANCOCK'S COAL IS BEST

ALSO WOOD!

9th & Master Sts. 26th & Washington Av. 44th and Master Sts.

Own Letter's Sons

WESTMORELAND ST.

WRITE OR PHONE NOW! Bell, Frankford 2150 Keystone, East 7754

A Winner!

16 lb pkg, 23c; lb pkg, 15c

KARREN Y

mosel of veterans of British military tools with which Taylor served as an officer during the World War, also were naming to take part in the funeral In was stated the director probably

OF MOVIE LIFE Los Angeles, Feb. 4. - tolving greatest consideration to a theory that he was slain in a love vengennee plot, presum ably by a man, at the instigation of a weman who was lealous over the atten-tions he had showered on a widelyknown screen actress, the police depart-ment is bending its every energy toward solving the invsterious slaying of William Desmond Taylor, famous motion - pieture director. gest to be held today were issued late yesterday. The witnesses will include pouglas MacLean and his wife, Mabel Normand, Mary Mile, Minter, Edna Purviance, Miss Claire Windsor, Wilhiam Davis, chauffeur in Miss Normand: Henry Penry, servant of the shain man; Charles Exton, manager of the Lusky studio, and Mrs. C. F. Beddick, who lives near the Taylor bunga-Among the various phases of the investigation was a report that Taylor had ttended several so-called 'snow' parties, at which narcotics were served from tea wagons, for the purpose of obtaining local color for some of his operares. The slaying, one detective pointed out, may have been an after-math of such a party.

TRAGEDY A MAZE

Weird stories of a mystic love cult also entered into the investigation when reports to the police linked Taylor's name with the strange life of the cult leaders. The weird love, which was ald to have existed as a part of the cult, may have inspired one of the somen members to have caused Tay . | lor's det h. according to another detec-

Taylor Tragedy Strangely Like Murder of Elwell

New York, Feb. 4 .- Will the nurder of William Desmond Taylor. amous motion-picture director, renain like that of Joseph B. Ellwell amous bridge whist expert - an un colved mystery? There are several parallel circumstances in Wednesday night's killing at Los Angeles and that of June 11 1920, in this city. And the characters of the victims were somewhat

Both were men of ample means. freed of matrimonial ties by divorce and given much to the company o women. Both were middle-aged and ived in bachelor establishments of heir own. Some indications are that both were sione when the murderers paid their, visite—though there has always been a suspicion that a woman was in the Elwel

The same question: "How die the killer gain entrance?" arises in each mystery. All doors were locked when caretakers-a woman servant in the Elwell case, a Negro in the Taylor case-found the bodies.

Another point of resemblance that in neither case was the weapon found. Still another is that in each incident a single bullet did the work. Joe Elwell was shot in the center of the forehead: Taylor through the

That woman was the motivewoman or revenge for a womanwas held in the Elwell case and also seems to be considered by the police in the Taylor affair.

delving into the mysticisms and en-Took Chaire to Parties

Mr. Taylor and a prominent moving. Chapters in the life of William Desin Taylor Murder in the Ambassador Hotel. Claire went.

It is declated that Taylor some few days later took Miss Windsor to another party, and that nothing was heard of her again until yesterday morning, some hours after Taylor was found dead in his apartment.

Miss Windsor could not be seen to the prior to 1908 as William Deane-Tanner, an art connoisseur. Taylor was manager for a prominent New York firm of art and antique furniture dealinh is apartment.

Miss Windsor could not be found yes, it was said.

In 1901 he secretly married Miss on location, with Marshall Neilan a director. At the office of the director this was denied.

In 1901 he secretly married Miss by MISS WINDSOR NOTED the May Harrison, a member of the original "Florodora" company and they had a child, Ethel, now fourteen years nor William Desmond Taylor, came between the murder and Miss Windsor's from a woman calling herseif Mrs. Ada unexplained disappearance from home, abouts or to assign any reason for beane-Tanner, of Montovia near here, if there be any connection, could not actions, and several years later Ibeane-Tanner of Monrovia near here, if there be any connection, could not who also described herself as the de- be learned. Mrs. Cronk could give no cried wife of Dennis Deane-Tanner, explanation, the director's brother. See said the di-returned this morning and went out Mrs. Deane. Tanner bas two children, again.

how remotely, is being questioned. In 1910 he left Los Angeles and it Things that may shock the world of was assumed he was going to British moving-picture fans are destined to come Columbia to resume railroad work. He out of the mystery, it is said. Popular had not been successful in the former stars, male and female, may be scorched city. He returned to Los Angeles about and smirched before the investigation is 1913 and soon obtained a position with over, and all the sins of the cinema a motion picture concern at Long belle. Many stunning gowns have been believed by the studio modified by of the slaying, is understood to be reover, and all the sins of the cinema a motion picture concern at Long ceiving some attention from the detectives.

and smirehed before the investigation is a motion picture concern at Long designed by the studio modiste to adorn the detection over, and all the sins of the cinema a motion picture concern at Long
designed by the studio modiste to adorn
the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modiste to adorn the designed by the studio modified and the designed by the stu tiends will figure in the tale before it is To friends be explained that he had Another point is whether blackmail all told, and strange effeminate men and played in theatrical stock companies peculiarly masculine women.

Three Movie Actresses Grilled

Three moving picture actresses whose names are household words were spitted names are household words were specification of the faster moving picture in important companies in Hollywood. time of the foremost moving picture netresses is to be closely questioned a matter of screen history, regarding her asserted love for Taylor.

a direct ray of light on some love tangle in which Taylor may have been principal.
One of Taylor's closest friends and armer business associate, said that ent to Europe. I do not know that he had been friendly in recent months with any woman other than the secret actress, but it seems likely to me that a man of his engaging perrectors' Association have announced sonaley and magnetic charm should but the funeral will not be held until have attracted a number of women. Since I am positive he had no bisi-ness enemies, I am inclined to believe The descrives sent into Hollywood after a hard buttle, the priest nursed to run down the slaver of Taylor were him back to health; instructed to overlook no whisper of, In spite of this experience he often quire especially, it was stated, about a recent "party" where ether, cocaine and morphine took the place of wine and whisky.

The party ended in a savage brawl, it was declared, in which two infuriated women attacked each other and force.

fought as men fight until their clothes were ripped off. Both of them, the report insists, were prominent actresses, whose names are known to the police.

Yesterday it became known for the first time that Taylor had been divorced ten years ago, that his former wife is still living—thought to be somewhere in the East, and that he has a fourteen-war-old daughter.

has a fourteen-year-old daughter, Ethel Daisy Taylor, in a private school in Long Island. Taylor never told any one that he had been married. On one occasion he did remark that he had a "tragedy" in his life. He was reticient, mysterious, a sphinx, when it came to discussing his private af-

He loved to talk about books and plays, and other people, about pay-chology, and motives and the human elements, about Freud and Nietsche, and the future of the photoplay.

His apartment was juxuriously furnished, and the pictures of beautiful women were everywhere. It was remarked, however, that Miss Nor mand's picture hung above his desk. Of the jewelry, perhaps the chain diamond ring, valued at $2500, is the best known to his friends. There was perhaps $20,000 worth of jewels in the apartment when Taylor was killed. His friends described him as witty, the girls say he loved to tease them.

Taylor was a man who possessed great nerve and coolness under any circumstances, friends say. He probably would have refused to obey the order of a burglar to hold up his hands. Such being the case, it is possible, according to the robbery theory, rust the burglar fired the one shot that ended the man's withstanding the large increase in the picture star called at the home of Miss work done in the many fields of the Claire Windsor's mother, Mrs. G. E. church during the year. The 1921 surplus is attributed in part to a large and asked to take Claire to a party at saving in the expenses of administration of the Ambassador Hotel. Claire went.

TAYLOR'S LIFE STORY

The Ambassador Hotel, Claire went.

The Ambassador Hotel, Claire went.

The Ambassador Hotel, Claire went.

this was denied.

Neilan, it was said, was on location.

but not Miss Windsor.

had a child, Ethel, now fourteen years old, according to Chicago friends. In 1908 he suddenly disappeared in mys-Just what connection there may be terious fashion, and his wife was unable to give any clue to his abouts or to assign any reason for his tained a divorce and since has married a prominent New York merchant.

the director's brother. See said the director's brother an allowance of Said Mrs. Cronk last night. "But the first time she ever went out with him ing which period she had seen him only was a week ago Wednesday night. She About two years later Tanner surshanghaied at night in lower Broad-way. New York, and taken aboard a feminine role in 'Grand Larceny,' the All Hollywood is being raked: all He said he reached a port on the Pa-during his absence from Los Angeles, and this stage experience, they believe was the foundation of his success in the motion picture field.

ment to the forefront as a director, is

While no suspicion rests on her, the police say, she may be able to throw FORMER FIANCEE PRAISES TAYLOR

Los Angeles, Feb. 4.—(By A. P.)he has arrived at the conclusion the Neva Gerber, alm actress, who said director was killed at the instignation she once had been engaged to marry of a woman. He added:

I have been in touch with the policy for twenty-four hours and I know the theories on which they have been they arrived a large for twenty-four hours and I know the theories on which they have been believed it an unsuitable match.

I have never known a finer, better than Mr. Taylor, said Miss at the police regarded as suspicircumstances concerning recent working. They now have arrived at the belief that he was murdered in a min than Mr. Taylor's said Miss follow the stage, gave Taylor a college to the belief that he was murdered in a min than Mr. Taylor, said Miss follow the stage, gave Taylor a college of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of that he was murdered in a min than Mr. Taylor, said Miss follow the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of that he would not the belief that he was murdered in a min than Mr. Taylor, said Miss follow the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the west of the policy of the mount in the second ballot, according to the mount of the working. They now have arrived at the belief that he was murdered in a min than Mr. Taylor, said Miss follow the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the left of the stage, gave Taylor a college of the stage, gave Taylor a c I know Taylor was very friendly and refinement, but possessing a with one woman screen star. He gave he a farewell party last summer before benefited. "So far as I know he did not have an enemy in the world, although he mentioned causally fights he had on his rious trips to the Klondike. He had led a most eventful life, and he told me on one occasion of being in a village in the Far North when it was scourged by smallpox. He went about nursing the inhabitants, including a we man's hand was at the bottom of priest. The priest fell a victim and Mr. all and that the man who fired the Taylor nursed him back to health. Then The priest fell a victim and Mr. Mr. Taylor caught the disease, and that might bring answer to the longed for the Fax North and he used of death. They were told to in- to talk about it is the rests between

HONEST, MEN ARE TO BLAME FOR FLAPPIN' IN GALOSHES

"Flappers" Wear 'Em Now, but They Started at Harvard, With Buckles Open and All, Bryn Mawr Psychologist Says

Where did the sloshing "galosh" ful. A useful fashion can be started come from and why? Its appearance by almost any person. But usually in this city on the feminine foot has 'any person' does not quite dare until sudden and tremendons.

But it was the men who started it ! But it was the men who started that it what psychologists believe; the boys at Harvard were galoshes years ago. But rising late in their dorms and fearing to be late for tenisty and extensity because fushion of the present generation will have better the books unfastened, and so pleasurable was the chek-click-dense population. In a large city the factors ild, J. N. Murdock, of Johnspale was the chek-click-dense population. In a large city the factors ild, J. N. Murdock, of Johnspale was the chek-click-dense population. In a large city the factors ild, J. N. Murdock, of Johnspale was the chek-click-dense population. clacking of the open buckles, that they stric moves in mathematical progres-tened. Winter athleties may be responsible for bringing the style to Philadelphia. As for the girls adopting the stunt, if they copy the knickers and eigarette where why not the flapping galosh? of boys, why not the flapping galosh?

Just Case of Imitation said Dr. Will S. Taylor, sheial-psychologist at Bryn Mawr College. "A little if few influential persons broke the cake of custom" and wore them. They un-

If One Does It-Three Do It

never again were that footgear fas- sien-each person starts off two others, and Teach Club last night at their mid-But few of the girls themselves, when winter dinner. The affair, which took asked, "What's the idea?" refer to place in the Rose Garden of the Belle-the usefulness of the unfastened galosh, vue Stratford, was deliced a "doe dis-ruped.

"I guess it's sheer laziness." said a little light-haired girl with a Southern doubtedly were taughed at, just as were loshes are turned back they make me those who first used umbrellas. Look thinner," sighed a young woman "But there is a satisfaction in being of comfortable proportions. doubtedly were taughed at, just as were those who first used umbrellas.

But there is a satisfaction in being was like persons with prestige; so after a while the less influential copied the fooigear.

But perhaps the whole question can be reverted to a remark of the famed sociologist. Veblen. "So leng as it is a novelty, people very generally find by the Mountain City Candy Company, causing a loss of $25,000, partly in fashion is felt to be beautiful."

Stopped by ice in the Sasquehana. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. They erected huge posts and installed their coal-screening machine on the foot-thick ice. Then holes were cut and the suction dredges started. The perhaps the whole question can be reverted to a remark of the family and the suction dredges started. The perhaps the whole question can be reverted to a remark of the family and the suction dredges started. The perhaps the whole question can be reverted to a remark of the family and the suction dredges started. The perhaps the suction and the suction dredges started. The perhaps the whole question can be reverted to a remark of the family and the suction dredges started.

Overcrowding Hit

MISS BUTH ALMA WALRATH One of the St. Francis Junior Aides who assisted in a recent show in aid of orphans scenes in pictures. He told me be had made two fortunes and spent both of them upon his return from Alaska. "He often spoke of his mother, then London, and his little daughter, He always termed the latter a 'child and was planning to bring her to Los Angeles. It was my understanding his former wife was living in New York. I always assumed he was divorced, for had he not been, he would not, I be-LIKE MOVIE SCENARIO were engaged for some time, but broke off the match two years ago, when he off the match two years ago, when he concluded we were not suited to each P.) - other. This terrible affair is all the more mysterious because it was a common strying among the studios and in Holly-wood generally that Mr. Taylor had not an enemy in the world.

He may have made an enemy

the past who nursed a grudge through the years which finally resulted in his murder, but he never gave the slightest indication to me of having any foc."

In the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER'S Movie Magazine page there recently ap-peared the following article about Claire Windsor, now mentioned in connection with the death of William D.

Many stories of waiting and working for years before obtaining any recognition in motion pictures are told. been in pictures only two and a half Goldwyn picture with an all-star cust

Mrs. Denne-tanner as the declared their father. Dennis the queer meeting places of the movie deserted her after the birth of the younger, Mariel, now thirteen years old. He said he reached a port on the Pathonis deserted her after the birth of the younger, Mariel, now thirteen years old. He said her reached a port on the Pathonis deserted her after the birth of the younger, Mariel, now thirteen years old. He said he reached a port on the Pathonis deserted her after the birth of the declared and subsequently sought is stant directors, camerame and extrastic went to work for the Transcontine after which he said.

She had little information concerning the life of the dead director. She as where opin and marihuana and other strange drugs are common, densy vorted, and that his former wife lived in New York. She said she thought his former wife lived in New York. She said she thought his former wife lived in New York. She said she thought his former wife lived in New York. She said she thought his former wife lived in New York. She said she thought his mother the was dead, but believed his mother the rank of leading woman. She her to the rank of leading woman. She he her to the part on the Path of the wint to work for the Transconting with her the collision of the thins will be adding man Elliot the held of the commonwealth in their connections o

SPENT THREE YEARS AS MINE PROSPECTOR Pope Not Elected

Denver, Col., Feb. 4 .- (By A. P.) William Desmond Taylor spent three years as a mining prospector in Colorado, according to Fred E. Carroll, of Denver, former State Mining Commissioner of Colorado, Mr. Carroll designation of Color somer of Colorado. Mr. Carroll described Taylor as having been of very "mysterious" turn of mind, talking of his own affairs very little.

A Denver newspaperman who visited Taylor last year in Los Angeies recalled that Taylor had related to a party of friends at his studio that he was born in Ireland, left home to follow the stage and finally came to Americans. Los Contains and Laurenti next. was born in Ireland, left home to fol-low the stage and finally came to Amer-dinals La Fontaine and Laurenti next ion when eighteen years old. Taylor said he went first to Harper, Kansas. Later he returned to his home, where his father, upon receiving a promise from young Taylor that he would not The second ballot, according to the se

In his hope to "get rich quick," he told friends, according to the newspaper writer, he came to Colerado and prospreted near Ouray and Silverton. said he made several trips to Alaska in search of "gold and adventure."

QUARREL ENDS IN SUICIDE

Who Stabbed Sweetheart Found Lifeless at Mine

it was alleged, struck her over the head with a club. He dragged her to a small outshed, it was said, and stabbed her tive times. She was found in an unconscious condition and removed to a hospital at Monorgahela.

BETTER HUNTING SEEN

Prediction Is Made at Camp and Trail Club Meeting

table the members of the Camp refer to place in the Rose tarden of the Belie- on his way and "going strong."

One Bryn Mawr girl remarked that it was because of the musical accompaniment. "It's fun to do it yourself, but I hate to hear others," she chirguist at the stage was decorated attractively with spruce trees and camp paraphermatical accompanies." nalia, giving an out-of-doors touch to the scene. The aroma of balsam gested by the buckskin and hunting in Phila. Schools

Continued from Page One

There is not merely verbal descrip-tion, suggestive and condemnatory, but there are photographs that illus-trate the worst and the best.

And there are more than photographs, Ground plan surveys, and blue-prints by architectural experts and technicians are shown aplenty.

It has taken this disinterested survey, as nothing else could, to reveal the indefensible conditions that environ the, at least, physical side of the edu-

Schools Are Overcrowded Schools overcrowded to the point of ndangering life, conditions not only hygienically monstrous in the present age, but absolutely conducive to im-morality are handled fearlessly by the nen making the report. In some instances the worst conditions that may prevail in remote country districts are duplicated in the heart of Philadelphia.

Questions of curriculum, manual training and education along special lines with regard to the future use-fulness of the pupil, are treated in xtenso. What is simed at. however, is illumination and helpfulness rather than rolution.

The survey contemplates the future Its experts submit plans of wide vis-ion, and their suggestions cover the possibilities of growth and expansion of the schools for thirty, forty years

"Slams" Bandled Freely

Trend of population, creation of industrial conditions as affecting the school attendance in the far future, is considered definitely and conclusively Incidentally, that reversion to the vernacular "slam." which it not as elegant as it is expressive, may in a roundabout way be applicable to a slept all thr more immediate action of the Super-intendent of Public Instruction.

He has been slammed pretty hard new and improved school system and its alleged exhorbitant cost.

With tightly closed lips he has maintained silence under it all—that is, up to the present. He has been too busy to make a reply.

Next week, though, his period of self-restraint will end. There isn't going to be any uncorking of the vials of wrath. There is going to be, though, a direct and forcible reply to all his critics, large and small.

Favors Work, Not Words

There are to be no vituperative expletives or verbosity of descriptive language.

garnished with efficial figures from the records I am reliable informed that Dr. I Finegan will not hesitate to call a spade present I am so completely wrapped a spade, nor a four flush a four flush up in another matter." pointing to spade, nor a four flush a four flush up in another matter. Pointi-not saying that the doctor is an the small bit of bumanity on the expert with cards.

The cost of running the public schools

One mill more than under the old Windsor's natural blonds and sluggish pre-war regime with its anti-Think that over!

in Morning's Vote

El Mundo, under the heading: "The there being scattered votes for Cardinal celli. All these are Italian members of the Sacred College.

The second bullot, according to the Vatican officials who, attnough

nttending the conclave, are reputed to be best informed say all this is merely speculation. The officials, however, ar unable to say whether four ballots as being taken daily, or merely two. Some point out that the fifty Cardinals sitting in the Sistine Chapel aver is aged one minute each in depositing their ballots, but that the votes of the three Cardinals who were ill consumed about Donora. Pa., Feb. 4. - Search for five minutes each, as the bullot takers Steve Novak in the police for stabbing were required to go to the apartments of the invalids to collect their ballots.

The counting, tallying and announce-The counting, tallying and announcefound his body at Sampson's mine, two miles from here. They said he had shot himself.

According to the police, Novak and Miss Dentry, sweethearts, quarreled Thursday when Novak asked her to consent to a reconciliation. Miss Dentry refused it was said, and Novak, it was alleged struck her over the
it was alleged struck her over the time clapsed during the sittings.
Others, however, claim this was done

where her condition was said to be DYNAMITE DRIVER SPEEDING

Motortruck Rolls Sixty Feet Down hill, but Fails to Explode Winchester, Va., Feb. 4.—A motor-truck loaded with more than 1000 pounds of dynamite skidded on ice.

plunged over a retaining wall on the Shenandonh Valley pike yesterday at Fishers Hill and rolled nearly sixty feet bottom of the hill. The dynamice did not explode, but the driver, who is said to have escaped unhurt, hus not been seen since the accident. There's no doubt he's still

DREDGE COAL THROUGH ICE

Selinsgrove Men Erect Reclaiming Outfit on River's Surface

Selinsgrove, Pa., Feb. 4. — A new move in anthracite coal-mining was made yesterday by Mason & Hoover, whose coal reclaiming outfit had been stopped by ice in the Susquehanna. They erected huge posts and installed their coal systems on the

Sonia Introduced to Dad Stokowski

Home-Cooked Di

ZEISSE'S HOTE

S20 Walnut St.

hole Grain Blue Ross

Rice

Corned Beef Hash ble &

Many other big values is

the Asco Stores

Where your money goo

the farthest'

Everything About

Cuticura Soap

Suggests Efficiency

"Make Your Job Our Job"

Big Job or Little

We Do It Equally Well

Let Us Bid on Your Work

STRUCTURAL STEEL

-FOR-

Mill, Factory, Office and Store Buildings, Warehouses, Power, Houses, Machine Shops and Foundries.

Bridges and Coal Treaties Designed, Pabricated and Erected Pavement Light, Fire Recapes, Ornamental and Miscellaneous

MONTGOMERY IRON

& STEEL CO.

tion of this phase of the system that will quite equal the startling revelations made by the Finegan experts.

And nothing has escaped the probe in this inquisition.

There is not merely verbal descriptions where it is not merely verbal description. There is not merely verbal descriptions where it is not merely verbal description.

There is not merely verbal descriptions where it is not merely verbal description. There is not merely verbal descriptions where it is not merely verbal description. There is not merely verbal descriptions where it is not merely verbal description. There is no the content of the system that tinued Mrs. Stokowski without notice ingents of the content of the con was her next natural if not altogether original remark. "She actually waves her arm exactly as her father does when he is conducting, with her little finger extended—so!"

"Cluck, cluck," said Mr. Stokowski earnestly to his child.
"She has a very good appetite," continued his wife. "I feed her milk in bottles every four hours. She is very fond of bottles," 'Like her father." murmured that gentleman.

"She has wonderful lungs, too." pursued her mother breathlessly. "She can cry, ob! so loud!"
"Wouldn't it be awful if she were to become an opera singer?" remarked her doting father, tenderly touching her cheek with the tip of his finger. "Well, cheek with the tip of his finger. she can at least do the symphonica do mestica now," he added.

"Strauss was in London while I was there," said Mrs. Stokowski parenthetically, "and he had a great suc-

"He was greatly interested in Sonia when he was in Philadelphia," vouch-safed her husband. "He left a gift for her when she should come home.

Her bed at home is covered with gifts. Everybody has given things, I have arranged them all nicely."
All this time the subject of discussion was slumbering peacefully on her pillow. She stirred slightly and her father extracted himself with infinite caution from her immediate presence. She has already had a proposal she was born in London that if she was like her mother he wished to offer his heart. I answered that she was lil me. Then he wired back: 'It's all off. the me. Then ne said her mother gleefully slept all through the greater part of the ceremony, but just as the clergyman came to the part about renouncing Satan she opened her eyes and winked at him It was perfectly plain, and I almost dies on the spot. I wanted so much to laugh. New don't you think that was cute?" "This light here, does it hurt her eyes?" asked Mr. Stokowski anxiously.

said Mr. Stokowski, with a smile. "A

He was assured that it would not, so long as the baby kept them closed.

When asked what plans had been made for the education and career of her daughter, Mrs. Stokowski, or Olg. Samaroff, as she is known on the concert stage, replied:
"She will not be a planiste—or a conductor—unless she shows a positive genius in either direction. That much I know. But I cannot say just now what our plans for her arc. My first will be straight conversation in life.

will be straight conversation in life.

Oh, as for mc. I have no plans for other I can't say whether shall continue my playing. At > in another matter. terpane-"that I have no thought for

ReliableSkinTreatment

Cola BROAD AT SAMPHOUNT

The Jolliest Aughor. Randsprops in San

DARCING

ESTRUTALISMENT

Lorraine

OPPOSITE -

887 INDEPENDENCE HALL-1922

Our Spring Designs in

LIGHTING

FIXTURES

Will modernize your rooms, enhance your furnishings and increase comfort, health and sociability

See the most exclusive fixtures in town at very

MODERATE PRICES

WALKER & KEPLER

WASHINGTON Personally Conducted

3-DAY TOURS $21 from Philadelphia Feb. 11. Apl. 6, 17, 20. May 4, 18, 29

For details address
R. C. HAASE, Div. Pass, Agt.
1337 Walnut St. Phone, Locust 1455 BALTIMORE & OHIO

48°

SAVE THE PARK

· Every requirement necessary for the success of the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition can be had only in South Philadelphia.

South Phila. Sesqui-Centennial Committee

Have You Money to Rent?

CHECKING ACCOUNTS

THIS Company will lease it for as long or as short a time as you desire, paying you interest as rental. Did you ever look at the opening of a DEPOSIT ACCOUNT that way? Start now and be the landlord of your own money; get the habit of saving and you will soon be the landlord of your own home.

COMMONWEALTH

Title Insurance and Trust Company N. W. Cor. 12th and Chestnut Sts.

ACCOUNTS