Rome, Feb. 6 .- (By A. P.)-Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Besten, arrived in Rome at 12:40 o'clock this afternoon, an hour after the new Pope had been elected. Cardinal O'Connell reached Naples on hoard the steamer Presidente Wilson, from New York, at 6.30 o'clock this morning. He left immediately for Reas on a special train as guest of the Ital-ian Government.

The Naples authorities dispatched a launch to take the prelate off the steamship and facilitate his transfer to the train for Rome. Cardinal O'Connell received a most cordial greeting from the populace and officials. All custome and passport formalities were waived. The Cardinal's train, consisting of a locomotive, day coach and bagrage cat, was placed at his disposal by the Italias Government, and he traveled to Rome as the Government's guest.

Reports were current here last night that a new Pope had been chosen, but that out of deference for America the announcement would be deferred ustil Cardinal O'Connell arrived.
