Bigelow-Hartford, makers of fine Velvet, Axminster and Wilton rugs, recommend the HOOVER suction sweeper in this fashion: "We consider that a brush is a very important feature of a suction sweeper. We have used a large HOOVER in our showrooms for over six years with entire satisfaction." They indorse this sweeper because it removes all dirt—even the sharp grit that becomes deeply imbedded in the rug—straightens the nap and freshens the color. The HOOVER is really the only sweeper that does this. Price $52.50. Convenient terms.

ALUMNI ARE VOTING ON PENN TRUSTEES

Mail Poll From All Parts of Country Will Close Here Next Monday

WOOD SENDS MESSAGE

Alumni officers of the University of Pennsylvania have sent out an urgent call to all graduates to indicate their preference for the two vacancies which now exist on the Board of Trustees, and which are to be filled by general vote of the alumni.

Horace Mather Lippincott, editor of the Alumni Register, reported today 15,000 living graduates of Penn scattered throughout the United States, and all are eligible to vote.

The polls close Monday to allow time to tabulate the vote. The result of the election will be announced at the University day banquet, which will be held, as is customary, Washington's Birthday.

"The election is unique," said Mr. Lippincott today, "in that for the first time the candidates all represent cities other than Philadelphia."

"The University of Pennsylvania is the only one of the large colleges whose trustees are elected exclusively by the alumni. This custom was inaugurated in 1816. Other colleges permit of certain proportion of their trustees to be elected by the alumni, but the University of Pennsylvania now fills every vacancy on the board in this manner."

"Immediately after the election was announced and the polls thrown open to the alumni, votes began to pour in. We want every graduate, whether or not he pays dues as a member of the Alumni Association, to take part in this election."

The last occasion on which the alumni exercised their franchise was in 1900, when Judge Gest and Joseph Widener were elected.

There are two vacancies to be filled. The candidates are six in number in groups of three in the first group, Albert Brunner, '03, of Chicago; Robert C. Hill, '09, of New York; and C. B. Hurley, '76, of Tacoma. In the second group are Charles A. Patterson, '90, of Wilmington, Del.; George A. Sargent, '90, Boston; and George W. Wickensham, '80, of New York.

A cablegram has been received from General Leonard Wood, the new head of the University of the Philippines, from the Philippines, where he is now stationed as Governor General.

"Best wishes for University Day," he cabled. The cablegram will be read at the banquet. General Wood is expected here in the fall.

25 P. C. OF PENNSYLVANIANS WERE BORN OUTSIDE STATE

Census Shows 16 Per Cent Are Natives of Foreign Countries

By a Staff Correspondent

Washington, Feb. 16.—What is a "Pennsylvania?" The question is raised by a census report on the population of the State, divided according to place of birth.

It shows that seventy-five out of every 100 "Pennsylvanians" are actually born in Pennsylvania, and that the remaining 25 per cent came to Pennsylvania from other States or were born in other lands.

Of the 8,729,017 inhabitants of Pennsylvania, 6,564,988, or 75.3 per cent, were natives of that State; 702,472, or 8.7 per cent, were natives of other States; 1,361,557, or 10 per cent, were born in foreign countries.

Of the natives of other States, 181,482 were born in New York, 221,010 in Maryland, 82,824 in Virginia, 50,432 in New Jersey and 75,880 in Ohio.

The percentage of native Americans in the total population of the State increased from 81.2 in 1910 to 84 in 1920, and the percentage of foreign born decreased from 18.8 to 16. The percentage of natives of Pennsylvania increased during the same period from 73.6 to 75.3, and the percentage of natives born in other States and outlying possessions increased from 7.6 to 8.7.

In detail the "Pennsylvanians" enumerated in 1920 claimed nativity by States as follows: Pennsylvania, 75.3 per cent; New York, 1.5; Maryland, 1.0; Virginia, 0.9; New Jersey, 0.9; Ohio, 0.9; West Virginia, 0.4; Delaware, 0.3; North Carolina, 0.2; Georgia, 0.2; Illinois, 0.2; Massachusetts, 0.2; South Carolina, 0.2; Indiana, 0.1; Alabama, 0.1; Michigan, 0.1; Kentucky, 0.1; Missouri, 0.1; other States, 0.5.

TO PROBE FAKE TELEGRAMS

Prominent Names Signed Boosting Waiter for U. S. Treasury Job

President Harding has received at least three fake telegrams from this city bearing the names of prominent women and influential politicians which urged the appointment of J. C. Overton, 2132 North Marvino street, Negro waiter in a West Philadelphia hotel, to the office of Register of the United States Treasury.

Replies from the President's secretary perplexed the supposed senders, who got in touch with Washington authorities, with the result that an investigation will be made by United States Attorney Coles.

The telegrams carried the names of Mrs. George W. Barton Pepper, Mrs. John W. Wamaker, 84, formerly secretary of the Republican Women's Committee, of this city; Mrs. Charles L. Brown, wife of Judge Brown; and Harry B. Brown, secretary of the Republican State Committee; Thomas W. Cunningham, clerk of Quarter Sessions Court; Judge Brown of the Municipal Court; and Andrew J. Stevens, Negro banker and State Representative.

Overton is head waiter at the Hotel Normandie, Thirty-sixth and Chestnut streets. None of those whose names were attached to the telegrams know Overton. He admits he is a candidate for the job.

CONSUL PAILLARD PLEADS FOR FRANCE

Menace of Invasion Always Present, and the Deities U. S. Friendship Maurice Paillard, French Consul in this city, speaking at the annual dinner of the Military Order of the World War at the Ritz-Carlton last night, appealed for justice to and fair criticism of France.

"France has been charged with militarism and imperialism," said M. Paillard, "and I beg of you all, before you believe those charges, to give fair consideration. France is not as fortunate in her geographical location as other countries. She needs a large measure of protection, for she has been invaded thirty times. Is not a country entitled to take measures of security?"

The splendid co-operation in the United States between the National Guard and the regular army was emphasized by several speakers who have won high rank in military affairs. Colonel March B. Stewart, of the general staff, spoke on the citizen army.

"Let us not be too foolish," he said. "Each time in the past, from the Revolution on, we have, under stress, raised a great fighting force. In doing so there has been countless wastes. There is a spirit of retrenchment we have discarded all preparedness and have been forced to prepare over again."

Captain Louis B. Hunk presided.
