

Locations of Early Days—Kidney Stew for Sunday Breakfast

By Mrs. M. A. Wilson

THE beginning of the eighteenth century brought clearly to the mind of the city fathers that better marketing facilities were needed.

This dish is made on Saturday, and then reheated for the breakfast. Cut the kidney in thin slices. Place in a saucpan, cover with cold water and bring slowly to a boil.

One bunch of faggots. Cook slowly until the kidney is very tender; now mince very fine two ounces of fat pork, and brown gently in skillet.

Chicken Dumplings Cook an old-fashioned tender; let cool, remove the bones, from legs, wings, thighs and back of carcass, reserving the breast for supper.

Two cups of flour, One teaspoon of salt, One teaspoon of baking powder, One-half teaspoon of pepper, One-half teaspoon of thyme, Sift to mix and add one and one-half cups of bread crumbs, Two well-beaten eggs, One-quarter cup of melted butter, of chicken fat, melted and strained, One cup of milk, The meat removed from the bones, Two grated onions, One-half cup of finely chopped parsley.

Mix and turn in a well-buttered pudding cloth, and tie in form of a sausage allowing the pudding room to swell; place in large kettle of boiling water and cook for one and one-half hours. Reduce the water which the chicken was cooked to two cups. Now add:

Two tablespoons of flour, One teaspoon of salt, One-half teaspoon of pepper, Pinch of thyme, Yolks of two eggs, Beat hard to blend and cover the top with three-quarters cup of soft cream. Cook for ten minutes, then add One-half cup of chopped parsley. Serve on the dumpling.

Strawberry Tart Line a deep pie plate with plain pastry. Now place in the plate a layer, one inch deep, of finely chopped apples, that have been pared and spread thickly with strawberry preserves and cover with a crumb prepared as follows:

Place in a bowl One-half cup of brown sugar, Four tablespoons of butter, Two tablespoons of nutmeg, One-quarter teaspoon of cinnamon, One-half teaspoon of cinnamon.
