

UB FURNITURE CO. AT ANY OF OUR 3 STORES 4734 Frankford Ave. 22 and 24 W. Chelten Ave. 2205 South St.

NEVAR BEFORE OFFERED AT THIS PRICE 10 DAYS: FREE TRIAL ONE YEAR GUARANTEE HOROUSHLY RECONSTRUCTED

005 Chestnut St. BUNDY TYPEWRITER CO.

CHARGE

At the Leading Stores WRITE FOR PARTICULARS FRAMBES & CLARK 1112 Chestnut St., Phila. Guarantee Tr. Bidg., Atlantic City

Food-Drink" for All Ages. k Lunch at Home, Office, and ntains. Ask for HORLICK'S.

Avoid Imitations & Substitutes

ampion 1313 Walnut St.

Day Books

Journals Ledgers Records S. E. Ledger Columnar Journals Time Books Bill Books Invoice Books Scrap Books and Many Other Styles of O. 12 N. 13" St.

on Coldest Day

Continued from Page One

fifteen minutes, registering the record low of 4 at 7:15. It began to rise again after that.

The worst of the cold weather is over, the forecaster thinks. It will be cold again tonight, but not as cold as last night, and tomorrow will be considerably warmer than today. By tomorrow afternoon it is expected that the temperature will have climbed up to above freezing.

to above freezing.

The Delaware Capes have been having another severe blizzard. Nine inches of snow fell at Cape May and the wind had risen to forty miles an hour. The revenue cutter Kickapoo is being held in readiness at its dock to aid any ship that may be in distress because of the storm.

The intense cold caused great suffer-

The intense cold caused great suffering throughout the city.
Huddled at the corner of Church read and Ridge avenue, Falls of Schuylkill, last night, were an aged woman and three children, lost, and near death from the cold. The woman had gathered the children about her, and was gazing hopelessly up and down the street when Police Caurain McFad. the street when Police Captain McFad-den found them. He was unable to make himself understood, and calling the patrol, took them to the Twenty-second and Hunt-ing Park avenue police station. There it was discovered the woman was Mrs. Mary Cryisik. The children are her grandchildren, Veronica, six years old; Sophie, seven; and John, eight, A few days ago the four arrived from Europe at Boston, and then went to Waterbury, Conn., where the father of the children. Antonio Uset, was living tending to join the mother at 2834 East Turning west instead of east, they walked miles, finally winding up in the Falls of Schuykill district. Captain McFadden provided a warm drink of coffee for the woman and children, while their story was investigated. The mother was located, and Mrs. Cryisik and the children were sent to her in the patrol wagon. The father, they said will come to this city from Connecticut in a few weeks.

Man Frozen to Pavement

Policemen who found a man uncon-cious in the street at Bath and Cambria streets last night had to cut away the ice which bound him to the pavement before they could take him to the

The man who later said he is Tyrus Erlandsire, a deckhand on the sloop Maple Hill, lying at the foot of Cam-bria street. Port Richmond, said he bria street. For Richmond, said ne was returning to his ship about 10 o'clock, when he tripped against an obstruction. He struck the pavement so hard that he was knocked uncon-He rolled into a mass of snow and slush, which froze and held him Doctors at the Episcopal Hoswho gave him restoratives and helped to thaw him out, say be will caused by the below-sero weather, resulted in more urgent demands upon aid that they were making every efrelief organizations and missions. fort to meet the situation, but some complained that money for relief work did not flow in as freely as in other years, although the need was much

The Salvation Army reported an in-crease in the number of families needing relief. These were so numerous that the organization was unable to give help to all who made appeal. Relief work will be extended as much as possible as long as the cold weather lasts.

About 200 men were given shelter by Volunteers of America also reported eting in another harvest of their product.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 17.—(By A.) East Chelten avenue, Germantown, it was said that forty-three men were sheltered last night. These men will be permitted to remain at the mission today and receive lodging again tonight. Efforts will be made to find employment for the men now at the mission.

I today in the coldest weather of the winterperature was reported from a number of nearby towns in this fight has been directed toward gradually committing the Government to a cash bonus.

President's Hands Tied for the men now at the mission.

It was said at the Galilee Mission.

823 Vine street, that 133 men slept there last night. The mission has been

SECTION OF U.S.

The coldest spots in the United States today were Canton, N. Y.; Northield, Vt., and Greenville, Me., where the thermometer hovered around 22 degrees below zero. New York City, with a temperature of flat zero, Weather Bureau officials said, probably was undergoing "colder weather" than cities with lower registers, however, because of the abnormality of such temperatures in the metropolis, and the fact that it was necentuated by a moisture-laden will be reported to the soldier would assure, first of all, getting the stock subscriptions necessary for the fair's success. The Federal Government, as well as individual subscribers, would have every confidence in both the planning and execution of any undertaking behind which Mr. Hoover stood.

No less important a consideration, they point out, is that of Mr. Hoover's relations with foreign peoples.

Ilis friends among the backers of the fair believe that he may be able to never the compromise to pay will be something for the Congressment to go to the soldier voters with in the next election.

UPROAR IN HOUSE IN BONUS DEBATE

Washington, Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)—
The Soldier Bonus Bill will be reported

- 1
		40.00
ï	Chaifont
П	Chester
	Chestnut Hill
B	Quakertown	. 5 below
18	Berwyn
ď	Holmesburg	 4 below
P	Paolt	. 4 below
1	Roxborough	. 4 below
Н	Valley Forge
	Cynwyd	. 3 below
	Devon	. 3 below
Ф	Tacony
	Bryn Mawr
1	Norristown
ď	Willow Grove
i,	Abington
U	Ambler
	Ardmore
	Nurberth	Company of the compan
1	Woodford Guard House
h	Overbrook
	Media
ţ
П	Lansdowne
1	Llanerch
	Moorestown
	Gloucester	50 CCCCCCCCCC
1	Palmyra	. 2 above

suburbanites.

You Bet It's Cold!

Here's Winter's Lowest	١
Chaifont 7 below	١
Chester 6 below	۱
Chestnut Hill 5 below	ı
Quakertown 5 below	١
Berwyn 4 below	I
Holmesburg 4 below	I
Paoli 4 below	١
Roxborough 4 below	1
Valley Forge 4 below	ı
Cypwyd 3 below	١
Devon	١
Tacony	ı
Bryn Mawr 2 below	ı
Norristown 2 below	ł
Willow Grove 2 below	ı
Abington Zero	١
Ambler Zero	١
Ardmore Zero	ı
Narberth Zero	ı
Woodford Guard House Zero	١
Overbrook 1 above	ı
Media 2 above	١
Lansdowne 2 above	ı
Llanerch 3 above	ı
Moorestown 7 below	ı
Gloucester Zero	ı
Palmyra 2 above	ı
Atlantic City 7 above	1
The temperatures given above are unofficial. They reflect the tem.	١
peramental qualities of home ther- mometers and the friendly rivalry of	l

ROBBERS CUT THROUGH FLOOR; DRILL SAFE

After blackjacking and binding the watchman, Christopher Welsh (lower cutting through the floor from above. The aperture is shown in the upper left picture. They then started to crack the safe in a tailor shop on the first floor, but were scared off before they got the door off

Whaddya Mean Cold Here? It's 20 Below in Vermont

The coldest spots in the United States today are Canton, N. Y.; Northfield, Vt., and Greenville, Me., where the thermometer hovers around 22 degrees below zero.

ern tier today, with temperatures below zero generally in New England, Eastern Central New York and Northeastern Pennsylvania, with much warmer weather Saturday.

Hazleton, Pa., Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)
—The Lehigh coal fields experienced the coldest weather of the winter today.
Temperatures ranged from 6 to 10 degrees below zero, the severest condition prevniling in the exposed districts.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 17 .- (By A. P.) -Low temperature prevailed in the mountain sections of Northern Berks County this morning. In this city and suburbs it was from 2 to 4 degrees be-Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 17 .- (By A. Fuel became as pressing a need as food when the zero weather came, it was today in the coldest weather of the winstaid. At the Whosoever Mission, 101 ter, the official minimum temperature impression on his audience. Especially were they impressed with the suggestion that moral values should be uppermost. Washington, Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)— Since that time there has been a economics were adequate would commit the Government to the policy of sheeted in ice today as a result of a himself be the ideal candidate for the cash payments. Later to direct the

The coldest spots in the United States point out that his association with the the compromise that will be worked oday were Canton, N. Y.; Northfield, fair would assure, first of all, getting out of the present tangled situation. A

The cold wave was in effect today far below the Mason and Dixon line, several cities reporting record low tem-ington.

Mr. Bok has made a most liberal offer and has demonstrated that he is a staunch backer of the fair. I think that a director for the fair should be secured before we go much further." Bayard Henry, another committee gave it.

Bayard Henry, another commutee member, said:

"It would be admirable if we could obtain the services of Mr. Hoover as director general of the fair. We should have a directing head for the fair immediately, for I feel that the time has come when something must be done. It is a very fine offer from Mr. Bok in agreeing to pay the salary of Mr. Hoover as director general of the Sesqui-Centennial."

Predicts Passage of Bin The Bonus Bill will be presented to a caucus of House Republicans in tending have a directing head for the fair immediately, for I feel that the time has agree wifn what we have framed or will direct us how to fix it."

In making his attack on the committee. Mr. Garner, without mentioning makes, had reference to the appearance of John Thomas Taylor, of the American Legion, and Richard Jones, replicant the said of the committee.

scitled upon the sooner that a director is selected the better."

A personal inspection of all the proposed fair sites is to be made by the posed fair sites is to be made by the not to exist and the House should pre Executive Committee of the Besquir vent it," Mr. Garner said. "If the Centennial Association before final choice is made.

The report of the Engineers' Club Cret plan as inadequate for the big fair, but makes no specific recommendations concerning other sites. aside from rating them in the order of neers.

The report rates as first in considera tion from all the engineering stand-points among the five sites studied by the experts, the upper Fairmount Parkway site. The upper Roosevelt boulevard-Pennypack Park and the Roxborough sites are rated second, both being considered eligible, but no distinction being made as between them. It rates the League Island site third and Hog Island last, but with the opinion that neither is eligible because of the conditions involved.

Bonus Measure May Pledge Future

whether Congress will merely promise the Salvation Army last night or sent low zero. Lee men have started gath- to pay a cash bonus as soon as economies are adequate to meet one.

Tactically there would be a certain gain for the soldier lobby, if they become convinced that the cash bonus is dead for this session should they be able to get into the law a pledge to

The first step was the committing of President Harding to such a payment when he was seeking the delegates from Ohio to the Republican National Convention. Mr. Harding regrets that commitment, but feels bound to it, even there last night.

crowded for four nights.

The Seamen's Church Institute, Second and Walnut streets, housed 150 men during the night, and today gave soup and coffee to hundreds of unemployed scamen.

Continued from Page One there is a favorable constellation for this fair in Philadelphia. You might make it the consummation of the effort when the consummation of the effort when the second step was the President's recommitting himself to the bonus last spring when he asked the Senate to put bonus legislation over for that session, but indicated that he favored a bonus later on.

The actual writing into the law of a promise to pay a each bonus when the sheeted in fee today as a result of a direct the director generalship.

other hand, the Northwestern section. Recently the sentiment for Mr. which normally would be enduring the coldest period of the season, was said to have comparatively high temperatures.

The coldest spots in the United States several cities reporting record low temperatures for periods of several years.

The official forecaster predicted "fair and cold" weather throughout the Eastof One Hundred appointed to arrange in the House today during a discussion of One Hundred appointed to arrange plans for the fair praise Mr. Book for his offer, and advocate Mr. Hoover as the logical man for the job. That a director for the fair be obtained as speedily as possible is urged by some of the committee members.

Samuel M. Vanelain said that if any man would be able to make the Sesquitage of the American Legion to advise with them at a secret session to the discussion of the measure after Representative Garner, of Texas, ranking Democrat on the committee, had protested against the action of the Republican members in calling in a representative of the American Legion to advise with them at a secret session. man would be able to make the Sesqui-Centennial a success Mr. Hoover would be the man to do it.

"He is a very valuable man," said Mr. Vanelain, "and would surely make the fair a great success, although I have some doubt as to whether he could be persuaded to leave his post in Wash-iester."

"The Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee have not thought it proper to call in men unthought it proper to call in men un-alterably opposed to the bonus for a discussion of that bill," the chairman tennial."

John H. Mason said:

"Mr. Hoover is a man of the highest ability and I am sure his efforts would make the fair a great success. It is a most splendid offer on the part of Mr. Bok and shows his great interest in wanting to make the Sesqui-Centennial a success. After the site has been settled mean the scener that a director nesses were called to determine legis.

O. Atteson, Washington representative of the organization, declared today in letters sent to Chairman McCumber, of the Senate Finance Committee, and Chairman Fordney, of the House Ways and Means Committee.

The National Grange, Mr. Atkeson said, has suggested an cess-profits tax to pay the cost of the bonus and "should that be inexpedient, the tax decided on should be so levied that it will not be levied to the direct cost of necessities of the great number of people of limited income."

Chicago, Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)—The American Farm Bureau Federation, in a statement today, declared that reports to it showed that "organized agriculture" was opposed to any form of sales of consumption tax as a means of raising the soldier bonus.

Nelson Robinson Will Back Mitten

ontinued from Page One

Cites Democratic Precedent

e tax on lemons and the Democrats entirely the cash payment provisions of the Five Option Bonus Bill spona big asset foward public comfort. While strife and labor trouble have oc-curred in many other cities, P. R. T. has gone along giving uninterrupte

Mayor to Take Stump

"It is very reassuring to feel that the present pace of progress will continue. Therefore, why tamper with the machinery which keeps the wheels going without friction and has brought about such splendid results? When service all around is superior it is high time to let it alone."

Mayor Moore is going to stump the city in the interest of municipal opera-tion of the Frankford elevated, a plan sired without admitting Democratic members." which was scoffed at yesterday by Council when the Mayor urged speedy action on bills that would make city Mr. Mondell declared that the protest operation possible.

The Mayor said he wants the public to be fully informed on the situation before operating plans for the city-built elevated are agreed on. His first address will be made next Tuesday night before the Frankford Business Men and Taxpayers' Association.
Richard Weglein, president of Council, has been active in attempting to have the "L" operated by the P. R. T. Differences still exist about the return the company would pay for using the line as part of the unified system.

Councilman Hall, Combine spokesman in Council, was blunt in his opposition to municipal operation at vesterfore an agreement is reached as to whether the sales tax plan, commended by President Harding, should be pro-vided for furnishing necessary revenue. sition to municipal operation at yester-day's session, stating the public would prefer to pay one cent more on the tax rate than ride on "a bobtailed line." Weglein and Hall left last night for Feasibility of reducing or climinating St. Lucie, Florida.

Will Speak in Frankford Mr. Moore announced his purpose in sored by Chairman Fordney was said to have been considered. The two repreentatives of the war veterans' organi this statement:

"The Mayor indicated that the pubnations were questioned as to how for-mer service men would feel if no cash lic was getting a wrong slant on the Frankford 'L' situation owing to the activities of the traction company and payments were authorized. Both were have taken the position that since their organizations in conventions council, and through the newspapers, had indersed the Five Option Bill, and that the time had come to talk which includes cash payments, it would be unfair to the membership of either "It is probable that the Mayor will "It is probable that the Mayor will make a number of addresses throughout body for any individual, as their spokes-man, to take a different position.

The National Grange is "unalterably on this question. The Mayor said he did not expect much help from doned, the councilmanic leaders, who had inopposed" to the sales tax or to any form of "direct consumption tax." T.

to be fully informed before their $15,-000,000 Frankford road was disposed of, or before new subway plans were launched at the expense of the city in the interest of a private corpora-

"She may have had a book, but I did not see it," Davis said.

According to other information in the hands of the authorities, an actor until recently connected with a film company here may have been jealous of Taylor.

This actor went East about five months worshiping in the Canton High School. This actor went East about five months ago and was gone for two months. During that time his wife was seen several times with Taylor. The actor has left Los Angeles since the killing.

The Sheriff's office is trying to clear up certain contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather there was a month of the contradictory testimony as to whather the cont whether there was a mysterious man or woman or both in the vicinity of the Taylor home on the night of the mur-

Early in the investigation, Miss Nor-mand said that Peavey, Taylor's valet, had left before she did. William Davis, Miss Norman's chauffeur, corroborated her story that Taylor had come to the curb with her when she left the bunga-

The resultant theory that Taylor was killed when he returned to the house was strengthened by the story of Mrs. Douglas McLean, a neighbor, who testified that she saw a man on Taylor's porch. Later, however, George Arto, a mechanic, said that he saw Davis and Device in conversation with another Peavey in conversation with another white man, but this was denied by both. hite man, but this was denied by both Finally it was reported to Mr. Woolwine that a bootlegger, preparing to deliver liquor to Taylor, heard a shot and saw a woman walk out of the bungalow and hurry away. The figures of the unknown man and woman have moved through all discussion of the mystery, and it is generally felt by officials that their success depends upon successfully checking up the stories about the clusive pair.

Though some of the investigators have eliminated Edward F. Sands, former butler for Taylor, from any connection with the case, the search for the missing man has not been aban doned. Latest reports to the authorities relating to him came from Hart dicated their preference for Mr. Mit- ford, Conn., where Sands was said to

Link Mystery Girl

to Taylor Murder

Continued from Page One
the car and how Taylor waved to the actress as they left at 7:40 o'clock, a factor of the murder.

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)—Navai Reserve men who were on duty at New London during 1919 and who live here said today that the printed likenesses of Edward F. Sands, wanted as a witness in the Taylor murder case resembled a warrant officer known to them as "Chief Snyder."

This man was a chief commissary steward and afterward chief storekeeper and was on duty on the State pier at

This man was a chief commissary steward and afterward chief storekeeper and was on duty on the State pier at New London. It is asserted that while he was waiting for Miss Normand, who had purchased a bag of peanuts and a copy of the Police Gazette before going to the house. Peanut shells, which Davis said he swept from the automobile while Miss Normand was talking to Taylor in the house, were found in the parkway.

Davis said that Taylor appeared in good humor and without sign of any fear or worry.

Davis was asked if he had noticed a book in Miss Normand's hand, when she returned to the machine. Miss Normand told Woolwine that she went to Taylor's home to get a book which he had promised her.

"She may have had a book, but I did"

This man was a chief commissary steward and afterward chief storekeeper and was on duty on the State pier at New London. It is asserted that while on duty in New London. Snyder took an officer's automobile and was released. He was arrested but promised to make good the damage and was released. He was permitted to go to New York and did not return and failed to pay the repair bill. Eventually the man was posted as a deserter.

Cofficers at the submarine base at New London said there is no record there of an enlisted man or warrant officer named either Sands or Snyder, serving at the base during 1010.

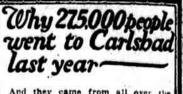

CHURCH, JUST BUILT, BURNS

CHURCH, JUST BUILT, BURNS

CHURCH, JUST BUILT, BURNS

fore Being Occupied

Williamsport. Ps., Feb. 17.—The Presbyterian church at Canton, just completed at a cost of $50,000, was de-

And they came from all over the world to partake of the natural curative properties for atomach trouble, liver and kidney diseases, rheumatism, constipation, etc., contained in Carisbad Sprudel Springs—Famous for centuries.

Now you can obtain these natural remedies at your druggist.

West St., New York

More Fun and Money for Limerickers!

$200 First Prize $100.00 Second Prize $50.00 Third Prize

> For "the best last line" furnished to the incomplete Limerick which appears in

Next Sunday's Public Ledger

Sunday Public Ledger readers have "kept after us" so strenuously to run a Limerick Contest on Sunday that we have arranged to gratify their wish. The first Big Three-Prize Limerick Classic will begin next Sunday, February 19, and will continue each Sunday thereafter until further notice.

The same easy rules which prevail for the Limerick Contest running every day in the Evening Public Ledger will apply to contestants of the Sunday Public Ledger Limericks.

Now, Limerick Fans, you can be a jolly Limericker seven days a week!

Six days a week in the Evening Public Ledger, where the Daily Prize for "the best last line" to incomplete Limerick is One Hundred Dollars.

One Day a week in the Sunday Public Ledger, where you have a chance to receive Two Hundred Dollars First Prize, One Hundred Dollars Second Prize, and Fifty Dollars Third Prize for writing "the best last line" to one incomplete Limerick.

Remember, each Sunday's Limerick must be answered and your "best last line" received not later than the following Wednesday.

Successful contestants to each Sunday's incomplete Limerick will be announced one week later in the Sunday Public Ledger.

Bear in mind it is just as easy to join and participate in this Big Three-Prize Limerick Contest in the Sunday Public Ledger as in the Limerick Contest which is running every day in the Evening Public

See Next Sunday's Public Ledger for Full Details

MAIL NOW

... Special Offer to New Subscribers..... Public Ledger Company, Independence Square, Philadelphia. Please enter six months' subscription for Sunday Public Ledger.

Name City..... City..... Terms: Check for $2.00 is attached

SEND TODAY

SUNDAY

PUBLIC

of Philadelphia "Make It a Habit"