UNIVERSITY HEAD REPLIES TO BRYAN
 Dr. E. A. Birge Vigorously Represents Charge That He is an "Atheist"
EVOLUTION NOT IRRELIGIOUS
 By the Associated Press
 Madison, Wis., Feb. 17.—Dr. E. A. Birge, president of the University of Wisconsin, today replied to assertions of William J. Bryan, made here a year ago and repeated recently, that he is an "atheist" and an unfit teacher for students because of his acceptance of modern science, including the theory of evolution.

Mr. Bryan had objected to expressions of President Birge that his teachings were causing injury to religion because of his attempt to unite the teachings of the Bible to "discredited scientific hypothesis" and he had declared that "when the people of Wisconsin have enough money to pay the salary of a university president they expect to find someone who will not ridicule the religion of the parents and grandparents of the students."

In a letter to the Rev. E. S. Worcester, pastor of the First Congregational Church, of which President Birge has been an officer for forty years, he reasserted expressions made to Mr. Bryan, following his speech to students here declaring that he had "never found it necessary to justify religion to science or to the people of this world," President Birge said.

Church History Cited
 "Mr. Bryan seemed to dislike especially my objecting to his uniting religion to a 'discredited scientific hypothesis.' I think that the history of the church gives good ground for my objection. In the fifteenth century people were told that the doctrine of a round world was 'atheistic,' and a century or so later the Copernican astronomy was called 'atheistic.' In the nineteenth century evolution in a like manner was called 'atheistic' by men of whom Mr. Bryan is a belated follower.

"Did such teachings help religion in the past? My answer is far from favorable. I think that Mr. Bryan will succeed where his predecessors have failed miserably during four centuries. Another thing that comes to my mind is that his teachings were 'atheistic' rather than the teachings of evolution. I had a real meaning and purpose in calling the situation of Mr. Bryan a 'deficiency and sharp' to the religious harm that may come from his teachings.

"Now if St. Paul was right, if God is to be sought for and found in the teachings that 'are not far from the one and the same,' then I urge us rather to look for God's creative activity in the remote past 'do err, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God,' when they were in a defective and sharp from the right track and putting him on one that is only too likely to lead him away from God.

Harmful Effects Pointed Out
 "The harmful effect of such teachings was clearly seen in many of those who used to oppose evolution. They told us that they bear an image of God because of God's work in the creation of a remote ancestor; but they never thought of telling us that God sent forth his spirit and created in his image and me and every baby that is born. They talked as men who had never found God, who is daily and hourly giving to all of us life and breath and all things.

"It was the presence in Mr. Bryan's speech of this attitude of mind that called out my protest to him."

HALE'S INTERVIEW WITH KAISER BURNED AT SEA
 Former President of Century Company Refuses to Reveal Contents
 Chicago, Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)—William Bayard Hale's famous interview with the German Kaiser Wilhelm II, sold to the Century Magazine in 1908, for $1000, and partly printed before it was suppressed, was almost made known to the world last night by William Webster Ellsworth, former president of the Century Publishing Company, and a great-grandson of Noah Webster.

Portions of the famous interview were told to the students of the Medill School of Journalism after reporters had promised to make them public.

"What was it," asked Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, at the conclusion of the address, "that the Kaiser said about my father? Do I tell me, even though it was unfavorable."

"My dear lady," replied Mr. Webster, "I can only repeat that it was unfavorable. Other than that I remember nothing of that part of the interview. Every copy of the interview was taken 500 miles out into the Atlantic Ocean and there burned in a picked detachment of German naval officers who spent the day in the furnace rooms of a warship to do it."

Mr. Ellsworth told Mrs. Hale obtained permission to interview the Kaiser, and how the latter spoke freely to him on scores of subjects while passing the deck of a yacht in the moonlight. He told how the Century people bought it and suppressed it after requests to do so had been made. He said President Roosevelt was given a copy and all the other printed papers were placed in a safety deposit vault and later were turned over to the German Government, which sent a warship here to get them.

But what it was all about he refused to tell for publication.

$75 PRICE OF SIGHTSEEING SEAT FOR MARY'S WEDDING
 Needy Hospital Hopes to Replenish Treasury by Sale
 London, Feb. 17.—(By A. P.)—It will cost some persons who can afford to pay it the equivalent of $75 or more for a glimpse of the royal processions between Buckingham Palace and Westminster Abbey on the day of Princess Mary's wedding, February 23.

Bidding for seats at windows or on the roof of buildings flanking the procession route, about a mile in length, is progressing briskly. The average points most coveted are those about Parliament square, adjacent to Westminster Abbey, as these will afford a view of the arrival and departure of the wedding party.

The Westminster Hospital, opposite the Abbey, is counted the "grand stand" for the occasion. This hospital is in urgent need of funds. The urgency will be lessened in a degree by the readiness of scores of people to pay generously for accommodations. The hospital realized nearly $100,000 from the sale of "sight-seeing seats" last coronation day.

CONSIDER how many times a day that you look at your watch and you will realize that a wrist watch will make an incomparable gift—a gift which combines beauty with utility, especially if it comes from the store of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company. One marvels at the skill which must be expended in making these exquisite, jeweled watches. One charming little platinum-and-diamond wrist watch had a unique clasp with a tiny pearl tassel, the latest thing, I am told. And I noticed that this season they are being worn on black-and-white striped ribbons. There are also many dainty gold watches at moderate prices, as well as attractive silver ones in modish shapes, appropriate for the schoolgirl.

ARE you being entertained over a Washington's Birthday? Why not send your hostess a Gift Basket of Fruit from Hallowells' (Broad below Chestnut)? I am sure she will be both surprised and delighted. The Baskets are most artistic and the Fruit so attractively arranged as to bring out the exquisite coloring. Such delicious Fruits, too, the finest obtainable from all parts of the world: huge clusters of Hothouse Grapes from Belgium, Spanish Almeria Grapes, Peaches, Plums, Apricots, etc., from Cape Colony, South Africa. And Hallowells' guarantees perfect delivery to any place within 1000 miles.

The store will be closed all day, Saturday, February 18th.

IT IS one thing to make money and quite another to know what is the wisest thing to do with it after you have made it. The Producers and Consumers Bank, 927-29 Chestnut Street, not only pays 2% interest on a check account and 4% interest on a savings fund, but also shares its surplus profits with its depositors. This is a comparatively new system, which has been successfully carried out in Cleveland and which you will do well to take advantage of here. This bank is open from 8:30 A. M. to 10 P. M., so why not put your valuable papers, etc., where they may be conveniently procured and where they will be safe? Safe Deposit Boxes may be rented as low as $3.
