

WHEN IT WAS 8 ABOVE. Park Guard John Jones warming his ears and kicking his toes

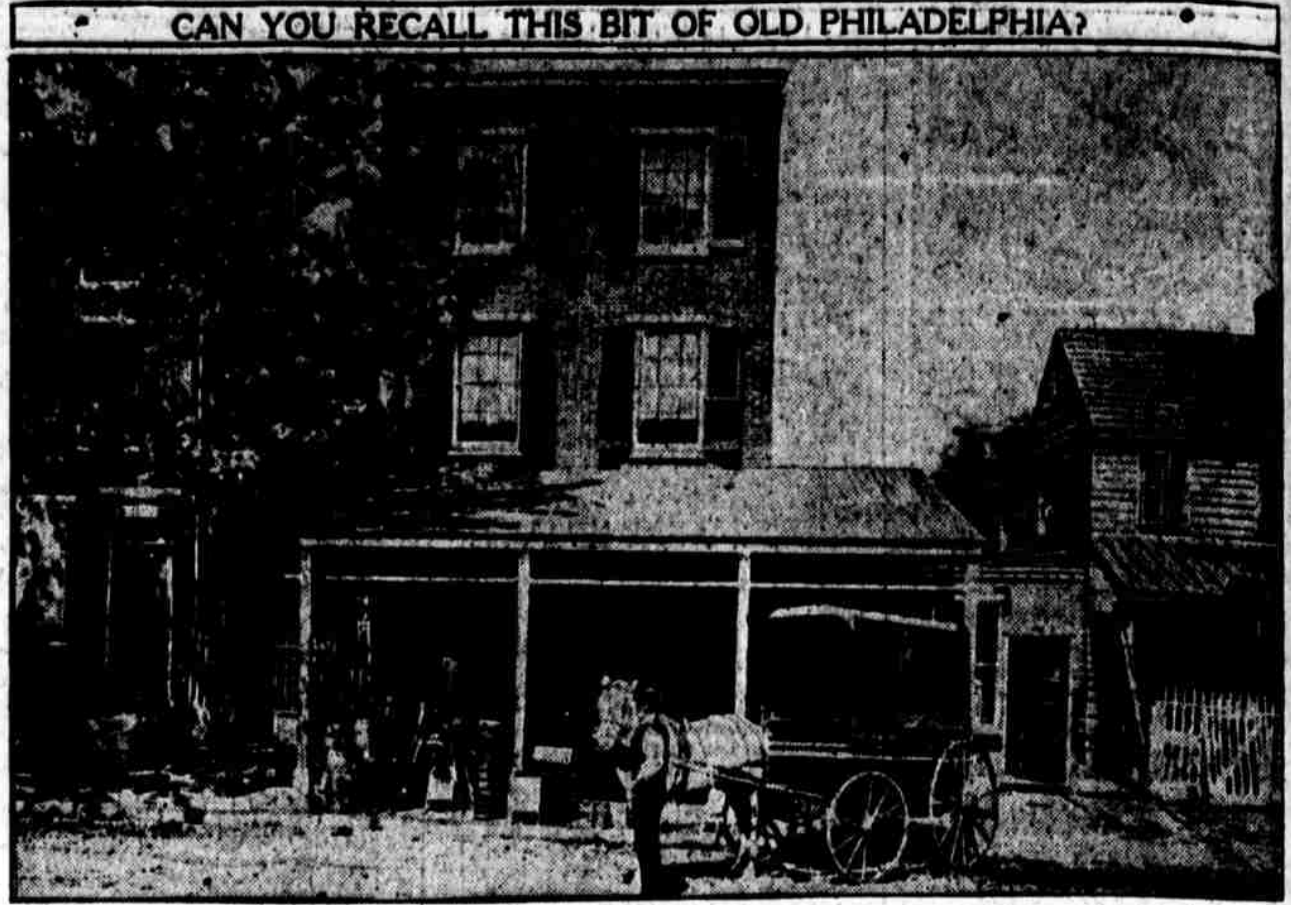

THEY HAD A COLD BUT WELCOME JOB. Some of the unemployed hired by the city to remove snow and ice from Independence Square walks

BR-R-R—SOME COLD. Running an errand for mother. He's pulling the cap down tight

GOING IN THE MOVIES. Miss Natalie Hammond, daughter of John Hays Hammond

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? EVER BEEN ON TILL STREET? We show you a little of that Philadelphia thoroughfare as it looked in 1870. The same street is now South Fortieth street. Silvey's general store is shown in center of etching. The same site is now known as 248 South Fortieth street. William H. Turnbelton, 122 South Fortieth street, contributed the photograph. Have you an old-Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

WHEN THE TEMPERATURE REGISTERED 16. Penn students participated in the weekly track meet on Franklin Field, yesterday afternoon. There were no complaints about the weather as the six-lap race was run. Head and Friel are leading the field. Over at the left is Ray S. Fisher, the Newark boy, who won the event. George Meredith was second

PRESIDENT HARDING GETS CORNCOB PIPE. Mrs. T. Ziske headed a delegation from Missouri and presented the "Show Me" State pipe

DR. BLAIR SPENCER, the newly appointed Assistant Director of Public Welfare, at his desk in City Hall

ON THEIR WAY TO BERMUDA. Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State, and Mrs. Hughes, passengers on the steamship Fort Hamilton

LESSON IN FENCING. Professor J. J. O'Brien (left), teaching a few tricks to Lieutenant Othel Baxter, at the headquarters of the New Jersey State Police, in Trenton. It all helps in battle with criminals

JOHN F. BRAUN talks of the benefits of Music Week in an Editorial Page interview

PHILA. WHOLESALE DRUG CO. EMPLOYEES ACT AS LIMERICK JURY. First row, sitting, left to right: Ira Smith, Marg. Small, Marg. Green. Second row, standing: Mary Cassidy, Lillian Liberton, Mrs. Everett Green, Sadie Lloyd, Marg. McQuilkin. Third row, standing: J. E. McCorkle, W. F. Haight, Charles Corry and Jos. Schilling

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MRS. JENNIE MARLEY, 226 West Hazzard street, operating machine that winds yarn from skeins to cones in the factory of William H. Lee's Son, 2426 North Hancock street

KATHRYN CRESSMAN WHEN THERE IS SKATING—THEY SKATE. THREE MAIN LINE GIRLS WHO HAVE SPENT MANY HOURS ON THEIR SKATES THIS WINTER

MARY H. WARDEN AND MARY L. PAYNE

STANLEY VEND, a scoring star on the Westminster ice hockey team of Boston

J. R. FORGAN, president of Princeton Triangle Club. The club will present "Española"

ASSISTANT TELLER. Earl Gorman, of the Quaker City National Bank, where he has been for three years. He lives in Glen Riddle. Baseball is his hobby

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS