FIVE-CENT-FARE GUN IS SLIM, VARE SAYS

Frankford "L" Launched Before Business Men

A straight five-cent fare was advobrary. The meeting was largely at-tended and was the first of a series of talks the Mayor will give on the present

The Mayor attacked Thomas E. Mitten, president of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, and the members of City Council who have blocked his plans to have the city operate the Transferral classical.

Frankford elevated.

"I will leave it to the 50,000 people of Frankford," Mr. Moore said, "to answer Mitten's 10,000 men drawn to him overnight on a promise, whether you want service or will be eternally controlled by one corporation. The State Committee, is in Mtami, Fla., people are notes reversely than any today and expect is in Mtami, Fla. people are more powerful than any corporation."

"People have never been more indifferent to their own welfare than they are today, said the Mayor. They are ready to have anything put over on them. They are still pouring money into fake brokers' offices and then are unwilling to prosecute the brokers and put them in jail. It is time for the Mayor to tell people things they ought to know.

"Your Frankford 'L' has been built without scandal, and I want to see that it is operated without scandal. I have kept after Director Twining to finish up every bit of the 'L' so that cars may run this summer. The Director has said that if the P. R. T. had not thrown so many stumbling blocks in the way, we wouldn't have had so much trouble.

"I spent two years trying to get succeed.

"I regarded him, as did others, as almost a super-man. That's one of his troubles. He is capable, but he doesn't tell everything he knows. Finally I asked him, 'Are you going to keep the agreement or renege?' He won't answer yes or no. He ought to be able because of the revenue brought to other lines, not to demand that we give him the property outright, but that he pay us something on the $15,000,000 of the cople's money invested.

We rather feel we have a case in those proceedings before the Public Service Commission, on which P. R. T. must have spent $300,000. I do not believe that this high valuation will be sustained. And we are coming to the conclusion that P. R. T. can get along on a five-cent fare. The sevencent rate, granted by a higher body, netted P. R. T. eight million and odd dollars in 1921.

netted P. R. T. eight million and odd dollars in 1921.

"If you will induce Council to pass the ordinances the Mayor has forwarded to it, and on which it is dickering, we will give you a ride from Bridge street to Market, or slightly above Market, for a nickel. P. R. T. is a private corporation which has been given a stranglehold on the city's streets. But we still have the police power and we can use it if we think conditions are too unjust to the masses.

"I have asked for a terminal at Front and Market streets, If we get it, we'll say to one man who dictated everything: 'You've got to come to terms!' I have permission to lay cables, but not carry power over them. I'll ask that before members of Council get back from Florida.

"It is up to you, the power behind the acqueilments of the secret in the se

"It is up to you, the power behind the councilmanic body. If we get these things, we'll be in a position to dictate our own terms. But the cars, which cost $27,000 each, can rust unless you let Council give me the power to run them. Do you think I'm going to spend $125,000,000 of the city's money for other lines and give them to Mitten for nothing? Not on your life."

Man Recovers Stolen Truck, Then Drives It Into Trolley

Being the owner of an automobile truck seems to mean bad luck for S. N. Levine, a tobacconist, of 6040 Haverford avenue. Last week the truck and $1000 worth of tobacco were stolen. Police later found the truck and returned it, but the owner was forced to pay a large bill for repairs. This morning Levine was taking it out with a load of supplies for the first time since the accident and drove it headong into a street car. The truck and Levine were considerably damaged.

Campaign for City Operation of Senator, "Resting" in Florida, Believes $5000 Check Is Fatal Issue

MITTEN IS MOORE TARGET OPINION TURNS TO FISHER

Dispatches from St. Lucie, Fla. cated by Mayor Moore last night in an address on the transit situation before the Business Men's and Taxpayers' Association of Frankford in the Free Li-Lieutenant Governor Beidleman "hasn't a chance" for the Republican nomination for Governor.

The Senator's view is that the $5000 check episode has definitely eliminated Beidleman from the field. While in Philadelphia Vare repeatedly said today and expects to call on Senator Vare today or tomorrow. After he had reviewed the entire transit situation for more than an hour, a motion was passed by the association man. Senator Vare continues, howtalk favorably of Harry A Mackey for Governor.

There is a feeling in informed po litical circles that eventually impor-tant political, financial and business interests will join to try to bring about the nomination of a man of the type of John S. Fisher, State Banking Com-

Senator Vare will be sought after in Senator Vare will be sought after in that connection. The first move in that direction was made when George S. Oliver, Pittsburgh, brought about a conference between Senator Vare and Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association. tion. That meeting was productive of no results, but intimations were given of another conference later on.

It is regarded as significant that Sen-

In that connection Senator Vare believes economy and efficiency will be a real issue in the coming campaign and that that phase will have to mean more than a mere campaign slogan. Because of the $5000 check, Vare does not believe Beidleman can sincerely and effectively appeal to the people on a platform of economy and efficiency. Vare says any one who cannot make a campaign on economy and efficiency has no chance for consideration.

The Senator said that since he went South he has not been talking politics.
Further Federal appointments in Pennsylvanta will be held up until Senntor Pepper hears from Governor Sproul, W. Harry Baker, secretary o the State Committee, and other politicians now in Florida, it was learned today in Washington.

It is anticipated here the conferences now in progress in the South will produce agreements for the distribution of the remaining Federal plums.

Democrats still hold on as appraisers of merchandise, collector of customs and in subordinate capacities at various points in the State because of the absence of agreement on their successors shifts in Pennsylvania senatorships, or because their terms have not expired. Senator Pepper is expected to follow the recommendations of the State or the recommendations of the State or-ganization in all patronage matters. Appointments made or agreed to by the late Senator Penrose will not be dis-turbed by his successor.
