In Times of Prosperity Friends Will Be Plenty

but in times of adversity, instead of plenty, there is generally but one in twenty.

He or she who claimed to be a friend and forgot all about it never was a real friend.

One and one counts two, but a true friend in necessity will rally to cheer and help and some of them to an utmost of endeavor that make one and one to count eleven.

Uncommon Tailoring in These Young Women's Tweed Suits

For young women of 14 to 20 years here is an exceptionally good-looking new tweed suit of moderate price. The long straight coat is mannishly tailored and quite plain, except for self-straping, and the skirt is extremely well cut.

It comes in rose, stone blue, moss green and banana brown. The coats in most cases satin lined to match. Priced $35.
(Second Floor)

If Our $35 Spring Suits for Women Are Remarkable

there are good reasons for it. The materials are somewhat better than usually go into these suits; herringbones, men's suitings, tweeds and homespun; mostly in tans, browns and grays, though a few are in the brighter rose and violet tones.

The work is done by our own tailors and all the sewing is with silk. This silk thread matches perfectly, so do the buttons and the linings. Lastly the cloth being here in the house, any one who desires a hat made to match her suit can order it.

Younger Women Like These Shiny Black Enamel Oxfords

To wear with certain colored tweeds for which tan shoes would not do, these black enameled oxfords are exactly right. And equally correct with tailored suits of any other material.

They are made on a mannish last, with a low, broad heel, extension welted sole, and a rounded soft toe. The long wing tip, heel foxing and vamp edge are perforated and saw toothed. In distinctive style and sound service they offer a full $12 worth. The same model shoe, in dark tan, Norwegian grained calfskin for general hard wear, is $9 a pair.

Women's Finest Winter Wraps Are Now Lowered to $100

About forty in all and every one has been at least three times as much and some even more. There are no two alike, but they are all either of duvety or bolivia and trimmed with one of the following furs—beaver, caracul, squirrel or wolf. The furs in themselves are handsome enough to more than compensate one for the price of the entire wrap.

Fabric Suited to Model and Model to Size

For months we worked in advance. All the dependable cloths examined and the best selected.

Each cloth, in each pattern, tried and fitted to the model that it suited best.

Each model created with a view of the man who would wear it.

His size, his characteristics determined how fashion should be adapted.

There is the secret of how this selection of fills the needs of every man. While the topcoats are designed to conform to the needs of individual types none of the season's distinctiveness has been lost.

Men's Spring Topcoats

The loose, flowing lines are found in each coat. Neat-fitting collars with the coat falling in a drape from the shoulders.

Single-breasted and the button-through type. Gone are the fly fronts of other years.

Colors? Light, Grays, mixtures pale and rich, the faintest sand, tans, browns and then the more staple shades.

In fabrics, men are choosing homespun or tweeds.

Prices start at $35 and go up to $60.

More of Those Madras Shirts With Silk Stripes at $2.50

And they are woven madras, too, which means that the colors, delicate as they are, will last.

A little while ago these shirts made their debut. And how men did take to them!

The whole lot was gone almost in a twinkling. Now another lot is here. Just as fine, just as Springlike; in fact, just like them.

It seems that you have the whole world to choose from, so varied are the colors and stripe arrangements.

A Smart Oxford That Will Help Men Keep Pace With Spring

English to the nth degree, this brogue last. A brogue, yet not extreme. It's plain and neat and snappy as any man can ask.

Tan, of course, in boarded calf with the dull finish around the soles. The price is $13.
(Main Floor)

These 50c Handkerchiefs for Men Are Unusual

For one thing they were made to sell for much more than this and we considered them a good value even then.

They are a closely woven nice quality of Irish linen, generously large and they have the foreign stitching. For a practical handkerchief of this kind, they can hardly be improved upon. By the dozen, $5.50.

Another Carload Is Here—The Famous Wanamaker Special Refrigerators

For years the most favorably known refrigerator in Philadelphia. And its reputation lies solely in its quality. Built for service and not for price.

Only the best materials are used in constructing the Wanamaker Special and it is built after our own specifications. Despite this superiority it is not an expensive refrigerator. At $32 it is regarded as probably the best value to be had in any refrigerator of its size. A convenient type for a small family or an apartment, being 33 inches wide, 18 inches deep and 48 inches high.

The ice chamber has a 100-pound capacity, while the food compartment and butter and milk chamber afford ample room. Not a soft pine box, but hardwood in the golden-oak finish.
