

U. S. COAST GUARDS SAVING DISABLED SHIP. U. S. Merchantman "West Carnifax" is at the mercy of wind and waves as lifeguards make effort to "shoot" a line to the boat

SURVIVOR OF ROMA DISASTER. J. M. Biedenbach, engineer, taken from wreckage suffering from burns

CLOTHILDE SAKHAROFF, new Russian dancer, who is making big hit this season in Paris

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE EASTERN END OF MARKET STREET. This view was made when the street was unpaved and the trolley cars went down the hill and turned on the loop at Delaware avenue. Have you an old-Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

INDICATING THAT THE SUN IS DOING GOOD SPRING JOB. A spot on a road near Wrightstown, N. J., which was frozen hard a few days ago. The horses pulled the automobile from the mudhole

GETTING READY FOR TRACK MEETS. There were hundreds of athletes on Franklin Field yesterday afternoon. Elmer McLane is passing the baton to Charles A. Saylor in the mile-relay practice. The high-jumper is George G. Stevens

ICE-SKATING STUNT. Norval Baptie tosses Gladys Lamb above his head at a Chicago carnival

CHARLES F. McLAUGHLIN, Chief of the Electrical Bureau, talks on use of wireless for police and fire work, in Editorial Page interview

A MILLION-DOLLAR OUTFIT. Jewelry and evening gown which will be worn at Rumanian War Orphans' benefit, to be held in New York

FRANK & SEDER EMPLOYEES SERVE AS LIMERICK JURY. Miriam Jaffee, Paulina, Millman, Rose Litvin, Ruth G. Smith, Helen Mulline, Clara Thotel, Mary Bradley, Hannah Karsevar, Rose Berger, Viola McGarrigle, Anna Schwartz, Jane Campbell and Esther Reinisel

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WALTER COSIER, West Conshohocken, making auto bronze bushings on a lathe at the rate of 60 an hour in the factory of the Joppa Machine and Bronze Company, Twelfth and Oxford streets

APTON AND BETTY FAVORITE, at Children's Bal Masque, held at Bellevue-Stratford

A "RUSSIAN VAMP." Miss Rose Rolando, at ball and fair for Russian famine relief in New York

THE ST. FRANCIS ALUMNAE of the Catholic Girls' High School present "Not So Good." Miss Caroline Reuter, (left) dancer and Maurine Cook, as flower girl

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

EDWARD S. LAWRENCE, 1648 South Twenty-third street, president of the Roosevelt Bank, Twenty-first street and Point Breeze avenue. He is married and has one child