Paris, Feb. 25 .- (By A. P.)-Great interest was displayed in French official circles today at reports that Prime Minister Lloyd George, of Great Britain, who is conferring today with Premier Poincare, of France, at Boulogne, intends to propose at the Genoa conference a ten-year truce in Europe to afford opportunity for reconstruction. It was stated, however, that the British Government had not sugge ted any plan of this character to France. While no details have been made pub-He, it is indicated that, under such a plan, every nation, alled and energy alike, will formally agree to refrain from aggressive action of any kind, to respect existing borders and to devote all their attention, time and energy to task of reconstruction of war-worn In this connection an effort Europe. In this connection an effort will be made to reduce land military

In the lack of anything official on the subject Foreign Office quarter-would not comment on the reported proposition, but it was indicated that insthe datafies would be computed further details would be engerly awaited.

In unofficial circles, however, it was argued that such a plan as was sug-gested, involving a radical reduction of the army, would have to be coupled with adequate guarantees of reparation payments before France could join. A pledge to abstain from all aggression would meet with general ap-proval in France, it was said, as France, had no aggressive iden toward any country and was vitally concerned with the collection of reparations and her own security.

By the Associated Press Washington, Feb. 25 .- Failure of the special sub-committee of Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee to approve any provision for financing the soldiers' bonus after rejecting the sales tax proposal by a vote of 7 to 2, has placed the question again today in the hands of the entire mafority membership of the committee for further study.

STILLMAN NOTES

New York, Feb. 25 .- Twelve letters, written by James A. Stillman to Mrs. Beatrice Keller, were stolen from Mrs. Keller's apartment on February 4 Mrs. Keller declared yesterday. At the same time a set of mink furs. which she says were given to her by Stillman as a Christmas present in 1919, were taken. The furs have been recovered. The letters, Mrs. Keller says, are still missing.

The Keller apartment was broken into through a rear window opening on a fire-escape. The furs and the letters a nre-escape. The furs and the letters were in a closet in a bedroom. The letters, wrapped into a bundle, had been stuffed into the tos of a gray suede slipper which had been placed at the bottom of a pile of other footwear. Only the furs, the letters and a por-trait study of an artist's model were taken by the thieves, Mrs. Keller said. Mrs. Keller reported her loss to the police and also inserted an advertise-ment in the classified columns of a DUBLIN IS APPREHENSIVE ment in the classified columns of a newspaper offering $200 reward for the return of the furs, which were valued at $2500. The furs were returned to Mrs. Keller by Louise Weidman, six-tcen, of 1420 Boston road, the Bronx, said that she had bought them for $250 from a man.

Three Are Arrested

Three Are Arreated Investigation of the girl's story led to the arrest of Ernest Denker, thirty, a chauffeur, his wife, Florence, and the Weidman girl, who were held yes-terday in $1500 bail by Magistrate Edgar V.
