Purity is more than genius me

One forgets this, because compared with our own prophetless, secriess age, the prophets and reers of the Bible ages seem so near and intimate with God.

But when one sets out to find a specific instance of one or another of them seeming God, there is newborn a secrit of the value of her sets of ing God, there is nowhere a trace of a claim to such an experience. They had visions and dreams of God, the glory. or the fire, or the voice, or the miracle symbolizing the Deity they ald experience, but the very name Jehovah. which was not a name at all, only the broken, disjointed syllables of a name that none dared so much as pronounce for fear of bringing death on himself for sacrilege, the very word Jehovah sacrilege, the very word Jehovah e testimony to the awe with which the Jews regarded the Almighty

"The Marriage A RED AND WHITE COSTUME Gaml ler"

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

After having married Nick Tracy without loving him in order to prevent him from ruining his life through infatuation for Daisy Castleton, a chorus girl, Carol Tracy finds herself strongly attracted by Jerris Britton, who is used to having his way with women. Carol and Brit-ton are in the cast of a play to be given for charity, and are thrown constantly together. On the day that the play is to be given, Nick leaves town, presumably on business, and that night Britton asks Carol to go away with him. She is shocked and harrified, and realizes auddenly that her feeling for him has been nothing but infatuation schile her whole heart turns to Nick. She endures agonics waiting for him to return, and the next afternoon Daisy Castleton calls on her.

Parents Are Separated

Dear Cynth'a—I would like to ask you a question or two which I cannot go to my mother or father about, as my mother and father are separated. There was a disagreement between them and they do not live together. At this time I am staying with my mother, and she says I should not go and see my father. I am past seventeen years of age, and would like to know if it would keep a fellow away from going with a girl if her father does not live homs, and want could she tell a young man who takes her out and aska where her father 197 My father is living a distance from me.
