REMOVING THE FRICTION. A member of Penn junior varsity eight applies grease to the oars as preparation is made for practice on the Schuylkill River

BUSINESS IS BRISK. The seller of baked apples was working near his street oven, on Fourth street below South street. Price of apples, two cents

SHOPPING AND MARKETING. Two gypsy women were photographed as they passed from cart to cart on South Fourth street near Catharine

DURING A WORKOUT on the Schuylkill River. The Junior varsity eight did a lot of practice work on Saturday afternoon above the Fairmount Dam

DANCED FOR "DOUGHBOYS" IN COBLENZ. Mlle. Hannelore, who entertained many during war, is now in this country  Fotograms

YES! HE'S THE CHAMPION. C. C. Davis, of Columbus, O., who won national honors in horseshoe-pitching tournament held at St. Petersburg, Fla.  Fotograms
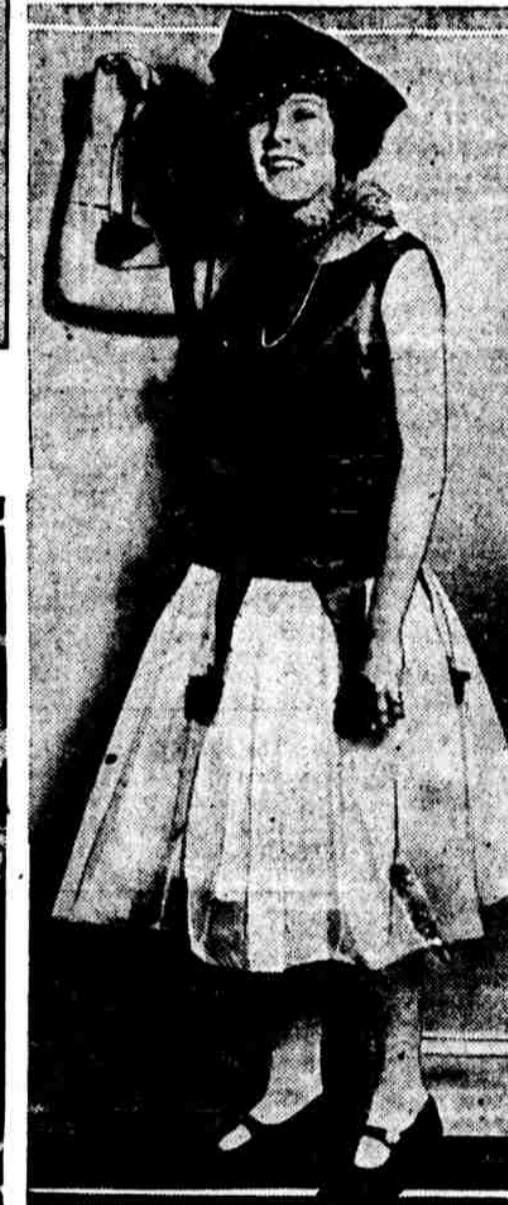

HERMAN HORNIG talks of influence of insects, in Editorial Page interview

JOHN B. STETSON CO. employes act as Limerick Jury. Sitting (left to right)—M. Bentel, H. Laub, F. Smiles, C. Crawford, Mrs. R. Fielding, F. Ackerman, B. Knopp. Standing—J. Glaser, M. Ferguson, A. Weber, L. Ackerman and A. Gaul

SITE OF BROAD STREET STATION. This view was made just after work was started on the erection of City Hall. In the foreground is the contractor's fence at the northwest corner. The first houses are shown on what is now West Penn Square, north of Market street. One hundred and ninety stores and dwellings were taken down in the razing that started in 1879 to make way for the station and the elevated yards and tracks between Fifteenth street and the Schuylkill. If you have an old Philadelphia photograph, please send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

PART OF PRINCESS MARY'S WEDDING TROUSSEAU. The dinner gown is of mauve chiffon, over blue, in sweet-pea shades with lace trimmings

MISS DOROTHY YERKES at the Friday Night Junior Class costume dance at Green Hill Farms Hotel, Overbrook

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EDWARD PFEIFER, 4625 Haverford avenue, an artist lithographer, at work in the shop of the Ketterlinus Lithographic Manufacturing Company, Fourth and Arch streets

PLAY IN MATCH FOR CITY TITLE. Gerald Schnarr (left) and Werner Lehman of the Quaker City ice hockey team, will battle in deciding game against St. Nicholas tonight

JOHN S. FISHER, State Banking Commissioner, and Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, president of the Republican Women's Club of Delaware Co.

WALTER DAMROSCH back home. Conductor of New York Symphony Orchestra a passenger on Homeric

J. J. CAPRANO, Riverton, N. J., engaged in the work of the credit department of the Corn Exchange National Bank. He is married and has one child