

Evening Public Ledger

FINAL

THE WEATHER
Generally cloudy and colder tonight and Wednesday; temperature falling to 35 degrees by morning; north winds.

TEMPERATURE AT EACH HOUR

8	9	10	11	12	1	2	3	4	5
41	42	42	43	44	44	43	42	40	37

VOL. VIII.—NO. 148

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice at Philadelphia, Pa. Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1922

Published Daily Except Sundays. Subscription Price $4 a Year by Mail. Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company

PRICE TWO CENTS

PRINCESS WEDS DISCOUNT AMID REGAL SPLENDOR

Nobility Views Ceremony in Historic Westminster Abbey as All England Rejoices

CHEERS OF POPULACE
DROWN SOUND OF BANDS

Magnificent Bridal Procession
Conspicuous for Its Beauty and Elegance

MARY DAZZLING ARRAYS

Cake Seven Feet High, Weighing 500 Pounds, Served at Wedding Breakfast

By the Associated Press
London, Feb. 28.—Princess Mary, only daughter of King George and Queen Mary, was married today to Viscount Lancelotti, with all the pomp and dignity befitting a royal wedding.

The ceremony began in Westminster Abbey at 11:30 o'clock, and soon thereafter the couple were pronounced man and wife, while the chimes of Westminster rang out the happy message and vast crowds gave tumultuous greetings.

The scene of the ceremony within the historic walls of the Abbey was one of impressive grandeur, with the King and Queen and the entire royal household participating, and with all ranks represented in the brilliant assemblage, while outside the Abbey enthusiastic popular homage was given the bridal pair.

The long-awaited day found London crowded with excursionists from all parts of the Isles and the Continent. Americans also were in evidence, hundreds having made the voyage to gain a glimpse of the great state function.

Dense Mass of Spectators
All these, augmented by native Londoners, most of whom took the day off, crowded into every niche and space about Ducking Street, along the Mall, in Trafalgar Square, down Whitehall, in the precincts of the Parliament buildings and the Abbey. Many paid high prices for seats in stands or even standing room in windows flanking the way.

Hours before the 2000 guests began assembling in the Abbey there were overflows of humanity in every street traversing the route. Some, bringing blankets and food with them, made careers of seeing their Princess by keeping all-night possession of carefully chosen positions.

At 8:45 o'clock general vehicular traffic was diverted from the streets between the palace and the Abbey by a force of 8000 blue-coated and white-gloved police, who lined the royal way, crowding watchers back to the curbs.

The arrival of the guests, who had to be in their places by 10:30 o'clock, was the first reward for the occupants of the gayly-flagged stands and others who shouldered together about the colorfully decorated Abbey area.

Only motors and carriages bearing ticket holders were permitted to pass the police lines. The conveyances put down at the Abbey doors streams of gorgeously gowned women, myriads of diamonds, sapphires and other precious stones flashing from their tiaras, necklaces and bracelets.

Beauty and Elegance Galore
Their escorts were resplendent in services dress or the velvet breeches, white silk stockings and three-cornered hats of court regalia. It was a procession of beauty pointed out by members of the Diplomatic Corps, who shown their seats by the master of ceremonies.

Outside Buckingham Palace and a few
Continued on Page Fifteen, Column Four

ALLIES AND GERMANY AGREE ON REPARATIONS

Berlin to Pay 720,000,000 Gold Marks Annually in Cash

Berlin, Feb. 28.—(By A. P.)—A provisional agreement between the Allied Reparations Commission and the German Government provides for the annual payment by Germany of 720,000,000 gold marks in cash and 1,450,000,000 gold marks in kind.

Should the deliveries in kind not reach the total fixed, the cash payments will not be increased, under the agreement. Thus, it is pointed out, the Entente should have considerable interest in seeing that the stipulated deliveries of products were duly made.

ENGLAND'S ROYAL BRIDE

Her Royal Highness Princess Mary Viscountess Lancelotti who today was married to the Viscount at Westminster Abbey

BRITAIN LOOSENS ITS GRIP ON EGYPT

Lloyd George Informs House of Commons Protectorate Is Terminated

By the Associated Press
London, Feb. 28.—Prime Minister Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that the British protectorate over Egypt has been terminated, and that Egypt was free to work out such national institutions as might be suited to the aspirations of her people.

At the same time Mr. Lloyd George gave the terms upon which the British Government will give Egypt the opportunity of working out her own salvation.

He said a Government white paper would show the House what had taken place since the declaration of the policy of the British Government last December after the failure of the Egyptian mission to London led by Admy Pasha. The paper also would contain, he added, the declaration of policy on which the Government, in accordance with the principles laid down in December, now proposed to proceed.

Martial law will be abolished in Egypt as soon as an act of indemnity has been passed, the Premier announced. He explained that martial law had been used not to enforce the British policy upon Egypt, but as a main instrument of government in the hands of the Egyptian Ministers for certain important measures arising out of war conditions. An act of indemnity, therefore, would be necessary before any Government could dispense with martial law.

Mr. Lloyd George said it was for the Egyptian Government to pass the necessary legislation, which should be done by the Egyptian Ministers for certain important measures arising out of war conditions. An act of indemnity, therefore, would be necessary before any Government could dispense with martial law.

The final clause defines the special relations between the British Government and Egypt, and declares that the following four matters are absolutely reserved to the discretion of the British Government.

First, Security of the communications of the British Empire in Egypt.

Second, Defense of Egypt against invasion.

Continued on Page Nineteen, Column Three

W. T. WARBURTON, HEAD OF CLOSED ELKTON BANK, DIES

Nervous Breakdown Following Financial Troubles Is Blamed

Elkton, Md., Feb. 28.—William T. Warburton, president of the Second National Bank, which closed its doors January 20, died at 11:43 o'clock today. He had been ill for three weeks.

Mr. Warburton's death is considered directly due to the failure of the bank. He suffered a nervous breakdown, which brought on a complication of diseases. His death had been expected from day to day most of the time he had been ill.

Mr. Warburton was born on a farm near Bay View, Md., which in his maturity he transformed into a huge apple orchard. His father was Thomas Warburton, a local Methodist preacher and descendant of Bishop Warburton, of England. Mr. Warburton was admitted to the Cecil County bar in 1874.

His first big opportunity came in the year 1907, when the late William M. Singler, of Philadelphia, bought a pulp mill at Elkton and employed him as counsel. Later Mr. Singler organized the Second National Bank and Mr. Warburton was elected president. When Mr. Singler's Philadelphia bank crashed and he died, Mr. Warburton was made trustee for a time of the bank. Elizabeth Robinson, Mr. Singler's sister, the principal of which was to go to the Singler creditors upon her death.

She died in 1915, but it was not until a couple of years later that the receivers of the Singler estate forced Mr. Warburton to hand over $20,000.

Many persons in the town believe this payment was in part responsible for the crash of the Second National. Rogers note entries on the books run through parts of 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920. It is said.

Mr. Warburton was owner of the Elkton Electric Light Company, and president of the Cecil Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He was counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

6 PRISONERS MAY GIVE TAYLOR CLUE

Suspects Arrested in Los Angeles Drug Raid Believed Linked With Film Mystery

Los Angeles, Feb. 28.—Six men were arrested here early today in a raid on what police termed a narcotic den.

Detectives working on the mysterious slaying February 1 of William Desmond Taylor, motion-picture director, questioned the men. Police reported belief that the arrests will develop connection with the murder.

The men gave the names of John Herkey, William Kirby, William East, George Calvert, Ray Lynch and Harry Amorheim. The arrests followed twenty hours of investigation by police officers on information furnished by police sources which, they said, purported to concern threats against the life of Taylor uttered a short time before he was shot.

Information from Woman
The six men were arrested upon information furnished the police by Mrs. John Rupp, who said that she kept the entrance to the den. Of the six men came from Chicago several months ago. They were engaged, she informed the police, in furnishing liquor and drugs to motion-picture actresses and others in the Hollywood section.

Two days before the shooting of Taylor, the police declared she informed them, Kirby and Calvert uttered threats against the film director for "injuring their business." The two, she said, were extremely nervous on the night of the murder.

Police Believe Hotel Waiter Killed Himself Near Cemetery
A man who was identified as J. G. Mowat, 1700 Arch street, hotel waiter, was found dead with his throat cut, at 7:30 o'clock this morning, near the entrance to St. James the Less Cemetery, Nicetown lane near Clearfield street.

Mowat also was a student at a musical academy on Fifteenth street near Moore. Police may be passing the night at the academy with an unidentified man. A blood-stained razor was found beside the body. In a pocket were three $5 bills.

Police believe the man killed himself, but they are trying to learn how he reached Nicetown lane. They are also trying to establish the identity of his companion.

Continued on Page Nineteen, Column Six

JUSTICE ACTS SPEEDILY FOR THUG WHO BEAT WOMAN

Clare, Arrested Yesterday, Indicted and Is Ready to Face Jury

Speedy justice will be administered to John F. Clare, alias "Big Reddy," charged with an attack on Mrs. Catherine Downs in her home yesterday afternoon at 4708 North Broad street.

Within twenty-four hours after the commission of his crime, the wheels of justice had made ready for his being placed on trial. Clare would now be facing a jury, except that a municipal trial occupied the court and other jurors had been discharged for the day.

Caught before he had more than four blocks from the scene of the attack, Clare was arrested and today he was arraigned before Magistrate Renwick at the police court.

It is expected that Clare will be placed on trial tomorrow.

Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Seven

FOUND WITH THROAT CUT

Police Believe Hotel Waiter Killed Himself Near Cemetery

A man who was identified as J. G. Mowat, 1700 Arch street, hotel waiter, was found dead with his throat cut, at 7:30 o'clock this morning, near the entrance to St. James the Less Cemetery, Nicetown lane near Clearfield street.

TILED AMERICAN WOMEN PROMINENT AT ROYAL WEDDING

Countess Curzon, Lady Astor, Duchess of Roxburghe and Others Witness Nuptials

SCENE OF INDESCRIBABLE
BEAUTY AT CEREMONY

Man Collected for Trinkets Never Ordered, Is Charge

Max Zidman, head of a Philadelphia Import Specialty Company, was held in $1000 bail for the Federal Grand Jury by Commissioner Manley today, charged with using the mails to defraud.

According to Postal Inspector Mayhew, Zidman watched obituary notices and sent a cheap piece of jewelry to dead persons, asking $1.25 in payment. Relatives, thinking the jewelry had been ordered by the person to whom it was addressed, in many instances paid Zidman for it, the inspector said.

Max Zidman, head of a Philadelphia Import Specialty Company, was held in $1000 bail for the Federal Grand Jury by Commissioner Manley today, charged with using the mails to defraud.

According to Postal Inspector Mayhew, Zidman watched obituary notices and sent a cheap piece of jewelry to dead persons, asking $1.25 in payment. Relatives, thinking the jewelry had been ordered by the person to whom it was addressed, in many instances paid Zidman for it, the inspector said.

The attractiveness of the bride, her intensely English qualities, love of sport, wide sympathies and keen interest and leadership in the Working Girl Guides have long endeared her to all classes. The public's pleasure at her marriage is intensified by the fact that her husband is a popular young soldier, heir to an old Yorkshire peerage, master of a well-known pack of hounds and himself descendant of the Tudor kings.

Linked With History
An event so linked with English history as this did well to return to the medieval English custom of using Westminster Abbey for royal weddings.

Queen Victoria was married to Prince Albert and King George to Queen Mary in the chapel of St. James. King Edward and later his sister were married in Windsor Chapel. In both these chapels, space was more limited than in those days, and as late as the last century, invitations to such ceremonies were confined to a very small number of privileged guests.

Diarist, in his memoirs with some amusement how the then Duchess of Marlborough had hysterics when she learned she had been excluded by the Queen from the chapel in order that Mrs. Diarist might attend. Still any one well acquainted with the Abbey can hardly fail to be struck by its apparent smallness as compared with the numbers of guests.

It was impossible to get accommodations for all persons entitled by position to invitations and who in less exceptional circumstances certainly would have been bidden to attend. This, of course, had the tendency to limit the number of American women present who by marriage have become peeresses of the realm.

There were some, of course, who could not be on hand. Of these the most conspicuous, perhaps, was the Countess Curzon of Kedleston, who, when she was Miss Grace Elvina Hines, of Alabama, was a noted Southern beauty. Lady Astor, the first American woman member of Parliament and American hostess par excellence—Miss Nancy Langhorne, of Virginia, in her early days, was a noted Southern beauty.

Then, too, were the Duchess of Roxburghe, formerly Miss Mary Golet, of Newport, and the Countess of Granard, who used to be known as Miss Beatrice Mills, of New York, whose husband

Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Seven

Did Broker's Crash Cure Her? Not Fighting Blood Up

One woman who lost $1400 in the failure of P. K. Guthrie & Co., stock brokers, at 1430 South Penn square, was approached by another loser as they stood outside the closed offices.

"Well, I guess you are cured now," the man said.
"Oh, no I'm not; this just gets my fighting blood up," the woman flashed back.

JEWELER IS ACCUSED OF "AFTER-DEATH" SWINDLE

Man Collected for Trinkets Never Ordered, Is Charge

Max Zidman, head of a Philadelphia Import Specialty Company, was held in $1000 bail for the Federal Grand Jury by Commissioner Manley today, charged with using the mails to defraud.

According to Postal Inspector Mayhew, Zidman watched obituary notices and sent a cheap piece of jewelry to dead persons, asking $1.25 in payment. Relatives, thinking the jewelry had been ordered by the person to whom it was addressed, in many instances paid Zidman for it, the inspector said.

The attractiveness of the bride, her intensely English qualities, love of sport, wide sympathies and keen interest and leadership in the Working Girl Guides have long endeared her to all classes. The public's pleasure at her marriage is intensified by the fact that her husband is a popular young soldier, heir to an old Yorkshire peerage, master of a well-known pack of hounds and himself descendant of the Tudor kings.

Linked With History
An event so linked with English history as this did well to return to the medieval English custom of using Westminster Abbey for royal weddings.

Queen Victoria was married to Prince Albert and King George to Queen Mary in the chapel of St. James. King Edward and later his sister were married in Windsor Chapel. In both these chapels, space was more limited than in those days, and as late as the last century, invitations to such ceremonies were confined to a very small number of privileged guests.

Diarist, in his memoirs with some amusement how the then Duchess of Marlborough had hysterics when she learned she had been excluded by the Queen from the chapel in order that Mrs. Diarist might attend. Still any one well acquainted with the Abbey can hardly fail to be struck by its apparent smallness as compared with the numbers of guests.

It was impossible to get accommodations for all persons entitled by position to invitations and who in less exceptional circumstances certainly would have been bidden to attend. This, of course, had the tendency to limit the number of American women present who by marriage have become peeresses of the realm.

There were some, of course, who could not be on hand. Of these the most conspicuous, perhaps, was the Countess Curzon of Kedleston, who, when she was Miss Grace Elvina Hines, of Alabama, was a noted Southern beauty.

Then, too, were the Duchess of Roxburghe, formerly Miss Mary Golet, of Newport, and the Countess of Granard, who used to be known as Miss Beatrice Mills, of New York, whose husband

Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Seven

SENATE REJECTS TWO YAP PACT AMENDMENTS

Votes Down Change Amplifying Existing Rights Provision

Washington, Feb. 28.—(By A. P.)—Taking its first vote on a qualification of any of the Arms Conference treaties the Senate today rejected, 23 to 59, a proposed amendment to the Yap Pact, amplifying the provision that existing treaty rights on the mandated islands of the Pacific shall not be abridged.

Only two Republicans, Herb and France, supported the proposed amendment. Four Democrats, Underwood, Pomeroy, Myers and Williams, voted against it.

The Senate also rejected, eleven to fifty-two, an amendment by Senator France providing that the manufacture, sale, importation and exportation of intoxicating liquors be prohibited in the mandated islands.

Contending that present American rights in the Pacific are not sufficiently protected under the pact, Senator Frankman, Democrat, introduced the first amendment.

In the midst of the debate on it, with only two Republicans, Herb and France, supporting the proposed amendment. Four Democrats, Underwood, Pomeroy, Myers and Williams, voted against it.

Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Seven

TWO ROBBER SUSPECTS ARE CAUGHT IN STORE

Haddonfield Police Nab Men After Threat to Shoot

Two men were captured at the point of revolvers last night in the basement of the Ames store, Chestnut and Main streets, Haddonfield, N. J.

The men had cut the hinges and combination of a safe with a hacksaw and had broken the cash register. They got into the store through the rear door, entered the place and found two overcoats on the first floor.

The patrolmen heard the men in the cellar and descended with drawn revolvers. The men sprang at them, but covered in a corner when Hough and Pierce threatened to shoot.

Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Seven

DUPE OF CARRIER WAITS CHANCE TO 'PUNCH' PROMOTER

Auto Stores Head Faces Action on Bill for $250 Ten-nis Court

GUARANTY CO. CHECKS PAID RENTAL FOR R. I. ESTATE

A court summons awaits Edward R. P. Carrier should he return to the vicinity of Whitestone, L. I.

The twenty-eight-year-old promoter of a $2,500,000 corporation, now in the hands of receivers, failed to pay for a $250 tennis court constructed on his leased estate at Beechhurst, last June, and action has been taken, according to Charles S. Cadden, a lawyer of Whitestone.

This is not the only action that will be taken should Carrier appear on the scene of his erstwhile summer residence in Whitestone Landing. Several "good will" without more ado, are in store for him, when Edward R. P. Carrier, a much-respected young man whom Carrier persuaded to sell stock in the United Auto Stores Company, happens to run into him.

It would give me great pleasure to see Carrier again," said Davis yesterday. "I don't think I would even wait to speak to him, but I should certainly wish him a few good ones. He has gotten me in bad with all my friends."

Golden Bubble Pricked
Davis undoubtedly represents the opinion of his neighbors who entered the United Auto Stores Company through the purchase of stock. They are slowly awakening to the fact that the golden bubble has burst and that their pockets are quite likely to be filled up with the air that it contained.

In an effort to get out of the company, many of whom say they have not yet received their certificates for as long ago as last September. Yet, the plan of a local store, run on a co-operative basis, looked so tempting that they were lured to it.

It looked like a fine proposition, said Davis today, and never thought of selling stock before and I should never have made the attempt if I had not been convinced by Carrier that it was sure to be a go.

According to his contract with the company, Davis was to obtain 100 shares.

Continued on Page Four, Column Two

COURT OFFICER 85 TODAY

Henry M. Wadsworth, an officer attached to Orphan's Court forty-six years, will celebrate his eighty-eighth birthday at a party given in his honor at the home of Joseph O'Brien, 217 South Thirty-third street, tonight. O'Brien is attached to the same court.

Continued on Page Four, Column Two

BASKETBALL SCORES

Landowne High	13	14-27	Media High	9	—
Woodbury High	7	12-19	Lower Merion H.	4	—

Chestnut Hill	11	—	Camden High	28	—
Faculty	8	—	Haddon Heights H.	14	—

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SCORES

Friends Central	13	23-36	Shady Hill 2d	26	14-40
Shady Hill	10	6-16	Friends Cent.	21	11 16-27

Quinn 1st	16	23-39	Quinn 2d	22	18-40
Gordon-Roney 1st	11	5-16	Gordon-Roney 2d	3	1-4

Friends Select	28	33-39	Gtn, Friends 2d	16	12-28
Gtn, Friends	1	2-6	Friends Select 2d	10	13-23

ADDITIONAL RACING RESULTS

NEW ORLEANS—Third—Van Sylvia, 9-2, 8.5, 4.5, won; Turnout, 3-1, 6.5, 3-5, second; Two Pats, 5-1, 2-1, 4-5, third. Time, 1:15 1/5. Plunkett, Benard Blue, Sandulwood, Pegasus, Chick Barbell, Miss Dixie, Car, out NShore and Titania also ran.

TWO BROKERAGE FIRMS IN BANKRUPTCY COURT
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Voluntary bankruptcy petitions were filed today against Howell & Wales, with estimated liabilities of $500,000 and assets of about $400,000, and Hall & Co., whose liabilities were placed at $100,000 and assets at $25,000. Both are brokerage houses.

URGES STATE CONTROL OF LOCAL RAIL RATES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Prompt action by Congress in restoring to the States control over local transportation rates was urged today by Governor Allen, of Kansas, at a hearing before the House Commerce Committee. He advocated passage of the Sweet bill which would restore to States the authority they had over rates and car movements before the enactment of the transportation act.

Continued on Page Eighteen, Column Seven

Confesses

LINDSAY 'CAVES IN', ADMITS FAKE DEALS

'Financial Wizard' Tells Police He and Wife Had Discussed Suicide

New York, Feb. 28.—Alfred E. Lindsay, accused of swindling society women out of nearly $1,000,000 in fake stock deals, today confessed that many of the charges against him were true, according to Richard C. Murphy, Assistant District Attorney.

Lindsay, a former stock broker and stock-broker, was arrested last night at Acebrook, Pa., on an indictment charging grand larceny and brought to New York by detectives.

Lindsay accepted all blame for the alleged transactions Mr. Murphy said, and declared that when he was exposed in the newspapers he and his wife discussed the possibilities of a double suicide. He broke down and sobbed while dictating his confession.

Mr. Murphy said Lindsay frankly admitted taking money from Mrs. W. H. Arnold and Mrs. Dorothy Atwood, which he was unable to pay back, and also said he had received large sums from Mrs. Lillian N. Duke, divorced wife of Benjamin B. Duke, "the tobacco king."

Lindsay, according to Mr. Murphy, said he had been paying the money back to some of the women in weekly installments. He is alleged to have said in his confession:

"Mrs. Atwood has been getting $328 a month and I gave her $125 to pay per cent and have been paying her for three years. Miss Carlotta A. Nilsen, an actress, received from me $20,000 during the month of December. They have all been receiving it. I didn't have anybody high and dry, although I got into a mess. Miss Florenz O'Brien is attached to the same court."

Continued on Page Four, Column Two

HARDING URGES SHIP SUBSIDY AS U. S. NECESSITY

Asks Congress to Pass Law Providing $32,000,000 Annual Aid

MESSAGE FAVORS RETURN TO PRIVATE INITIATIVE

President Declares Government Operation Failed at Enormous Cost

SECONDARY NAVAL DEFENSE

Harding Declares Nation's Place in World Councils Depends on Merchant Marine

Washington, Feb. 28.—The Administration plan for a merchant marine aid for the American merchant marine was presented to Congress today by President Harding with the declaration that the influence of the United States in world councils is "sure to be measured by that unflinching standard which is found in a Nation's merchant marine."

The President detailed to the two houses assembled in joint session the wartime creation of America's great tonnage—an experimental venture, as he described it—and then he added:

"Having failed at such enormous cost, I bring you the proposal which contemplates the return to private initiative and private enterprise, aided to a conservative success, wherein we are safeguarded against the promotion of private greed, and do not discourage the hope of profitable investment, which underlies all successful endeavor."

The proposal in the President's message centers around the diversion of 10 per cent of the Nation's customs receipts to the merchant marine, which would provide aid estimated at $32,000,000 annually.

Text of President's Message
The text of the President's message follows: