COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

A campaign to raise $1,154,228, the balance needed by an organization in this city, will be undertaken by the Welfare Federation. It was announced this afternoon at a meeting of contributors in City Hall.

Tells of Plagues

Mr. Kingsley, in a brief address, said that $2,000,000 had been pledged to the Federation and that $1,154,228 of that amount has been received in cash. He announced that a second effort is under way to secure the balance of $1,154,228.

The speaker, who was president of the Federation, addressed subscribers and their elected representatives in room 654. Judge Martin said the citizens must determine whether a federation is desired or whether the charitable institutions must revert to the old extravagant, inefficient method of raising funds.
