Nancy Wynne Attends Opening Night of Chicago Opera Company-Many Parties Planned for This Evening

THE performance of "Tannhaeuser" by the Chicago Opera Company last little lif anything to desired. And the Metropolitan Opera House was its old brilliant self, madsomely gowned and jeweled women in the boxes, men and women in evening clothes in the orchestra; in fact, a true reversion to the days when Mary a true reversion to the days when Mary Garden was here before with Hammerstein and a galaxy of great artists made

Mrs. Alexander Brinton Coxe entertained in a box, and so did the Sydney end. Therers. Mc. and Mrs. Henry Boyer had four guests in theirs and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Cromwell had several guests. The Alexander Van Renscellers gave a box party and Miss Anne Thomson also entertained. I saw Mrs. John Gibbon and her attractive daughter Marjorie is so good-looking with her black hair, blue eyes and brilliant coloring, and she looked very sweet last night in a white spes and brilliant coloring, and she looked very sweet last night in a white dress of some soft material, georgette I think it was, with bands of rhine-stones trimming it. Mrs. Charlton Yarnall and her daughter. Sophic Yarnall Jacobs, were there, too, and Sarsh Barringer was in the box with them. It was altogether a most splendid performance and a splendid turnout of representative people.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gustine, Jr., of 6438 Woodbine avenue, Overbrook, and Mrs. Hampton G. Slicox, Jr., of Oak Lane, who have been spending several weeks in Miami and Paim Beach, Pla. Lewis Burk on their yacht, the Enchanters, returned home on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Gustine will leave on Friday for a visit to Atlantic City, where they will remain for a few days at the Hotel Traymore.

I SUPPOSE those who did not go to the opera were resting yesterday, in view of the strenuous evening tonight, what with operas, dinners and masked parties, it will be a wonder if we all the cavety. There was the continent.
