wiselon work among the Indians and re often at 80 degrees below sero, a life likely to bring out all that manly in a young man, says the Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe, D. D., testant Episcopal Bishop of Alaska, to is in this city today.

"It will do them good to get out where the air is pure and the life simgle and rigorous," said Bishop Rowe, assertion. In spite of his sixty-odd years, he presents a picture of ruddy and upstanding health. His step is elestic and his eye clear. There is always work to be done ong our missions," he said at the of Mrs. George C. Thomas, 301 South Twenty-first street. "Our workers are scattered throughout Alaska; from the most southern point to the shores of the Arctic Ocean. Spiritual medical attention is sorely needed of the natives, and I would like to see more young men volunteer.

"I myself have been in Alaska for twenty-seven years. I am continually a the move, visiting these missions and to have come to possess a comprehensive knowledge of the country. In one circuit I cover 3500 miles.

Coldest in the Interior "It is severely cold in the interior, often 80 degrees below zero, but the dryness of the atmosphere makes it bearable. It has the effect of rarifying the air, however, until it is difficult to

"In the southern section, where the Japan current affects the climate, it is much warmer. In both sections in the cummer it is surprisingly warm, and the mosquitoes are plentiful. They are thick that I have seen bears, attacked by these insects, so pound their beds upon the rocks, in an affect to bads upon the rocks in an effort to sweep them away that they have died from the concussion. Men have been known to collapse from excessive poioning by mosquitoes when not propp Rowe was in the thick of the Klondike gold rush and traveled with the 50,000 "mushers" in their stam-pede to reach the gold fields.

Friend of Writers Bishop Rowe was a friend of Jack London, then a correspondent for San Francisco newspapers; Rex Beach and Robert W. Service, all of whom have pictured in their works the old Alaska

Robert W. Service, all of whom have pictured in their works the old Alaska which is passing away. "Gold," said the bishop, "is not "Gold," said the bishop, the now active in Alaska now, but there are new fields on the Arctic slope, almost inac-cessible under present conditions, which hold promise of a rich yield.

"Silver is active, a lode yielding from two to five-hundred dollars a ton, hav-ing been worked in the Mayo district, about eighty miles from Dawson, just over the Canadian line.
"The salmon industry is in danger of rule supers legislation in passed to

Sales efforts that win

THE paper which carries your sales talks bespeaks the importance of what you have to say.
The man who receives it, nine times out of ten, gets his first impressions from the paper. If it's good paper—with the right look and "feel"
—he reads.

Your printer will be glad to help you in the make-up of your sales letters—or any other printed literature. When he suggests Danish Bond—it is because he knows its quality and its excellent print-

Danish Bond leads the Danish line-quality rag papers, made by craftsmen who know only how to make paper, but know that well. Danish Bond has character—as well as color-clearness, crackle and strength. Water-marked in white and 10 colors. Printers: We will be glad to send you samples of Danish Bond at your request.

ing and returned later when the fire was extinguished. The flames did not reach their apartments.

Teufel's store was the most heavily damaged. It is believed the fire began in the store basement. The restaurant and the fault store were damaged slightly by fire and water.

Copenhagen, March 1.—A dispatch to the Berlingske Tidende from Helsingfors, Finland, reports serious rioting, accompanied by bloodshed, in Moscow. The trouble had its origin in the railway strike, says the dispatch.
