

LEGION ACTIVITIES
M. L. Schmidt Post Plans Big Smoker for Veterans on March 10
OTHERS PLANNING DANCES

Local seems not to have abated the social activities of the various posts throughout the city. A number of dances, suppers, receptions, and so on, for this week and next, have been organized.

For example, there will be an entertainment at the home of the members of the M. L. Schmidt Post, No. 188, March 10.

The real moving picture will be shown, among them views showing the Post, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Twenty-seventh, Seventy-ninth and Eighty-third Divisions in action. There will be a supper and speeches by "Bill" Mack, formerly of the Young Men's Christian Association, and Overington.

The Frankford Post, No. 211, too, for varied entertainment, is planning a concert to be held Tuesday evening in the Frankford Library Auditorium at Frankford and Market streets, and the Women's Committee is at work already for a June festival.

This is while the flush of the card party is last Tuesday is not yet past. This event was one of the most successful in the social annals of the post, for about 200 men and women attended. It netted the treasury about $150.

Something that is to be not exactly like the Ball Masque on the 10th, but in its way to grand an affair as either, is planned by the members of the William P. Roche Post, No. 21.

This affair is to be held in Elite Hall, Fifty-second and Market streets. The date has been set tentatively for April 20. The membership drive of the Roche Post is to close March 14 at the regular meeting.

Next Tuesday evening will be the occasion of a dinner to Francis A. Lewis, 54, by the members of the Oscar E. Gruber Post, No. 152. This affair will be held in Grand Fraternity Hall, 1020 Arch street. The guest of honor is vice commander of the Department of Pennsylvania.

The Gruber Post hopes to add 100 members to its rolls during the present month. Dr. Edwin S. Saylor has offered a number of prizes to those who show the most activity in the membership campaign.

Kenneth Broomfield has organized a sewing team from among the members of the post. A blanket challenge has been issued.

Members of the auxiliary of the William P. Roche Post, No. 21, are congratulating themselves on the success of the "Dutch supper" given Tuesday at the Community Center, at Arch and Wolf streets. Many will remember that even better than the supper was the vaudeville performance given by the women immediately after.

The auxiliary of the Shelburne Post meets every second and fourth Thursdays in the Public Library, at 2407 South Broad street.

Next week the David W. Jameson Post, No. 183, offers to its members a varied program. Tuesday there will be a business meeting at 25 South Van Pelt street. There will be a lecture by Dr. Jaichon A. Korman, on conditions in his native country. Plans for the annual Decoration Day ceremonies will be discussed and put under way.
