Store Hours, 9 A. M. to 5:30 P. M.

For Tuesday

We are working constantly to displace wasteful, useless wrappings with containers you can use—olives and pickles go in real glass cans; 9½ lbs. of coffee fills a good bucket—good coffee, too.

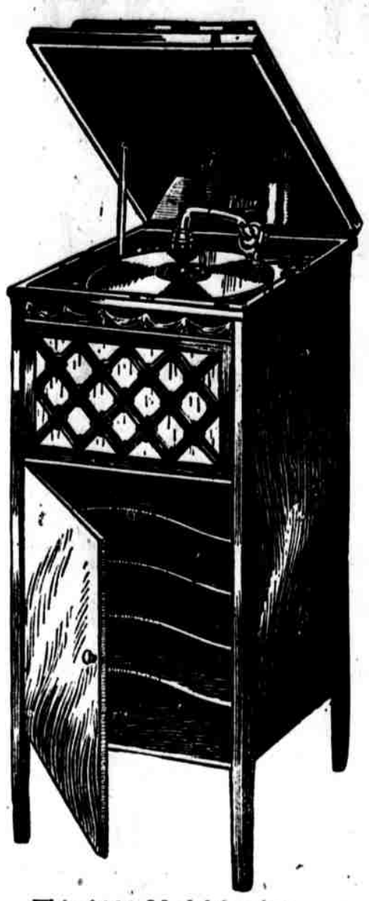
Pathé

The Receivers said: "If we can market the made-up stock of PATHE PHONOGRAPHS —We Can Save and Rehabilitate the Business!"



This $110 Model for $38

So Gimbels bought the entire retail stock of the Philadelphia "Pathe Phonograph Shop" at 1026 Chestnut. The machines went on sale Monday night. Tuesday we took over the Philadelphia warehouse stock. Wednesday afternoon we had so nearly sold out that we stopped taking orders. Thursday the Receivers saw daylight! "Take our New York factory stock—we had imagined the existence of no such selling organization"—and that stock will soon be sold.

Prices Start at $18

Pathe Freres, French, perfected this magnificent reproducing instrument—we had one sent over, a dozen years ago. It needed certain standardization of parts to make the production of an artistic marvel practical in quantities. The inventors kept at it—and time came when they sold American rights to the perfected machine.

There have been several hundred talking machines put on the market, only a few of which were inventions. Most of them were made possible by using parts on which patent protection had ceased—mere merchandising freaks.

The Pathe is a distinct, wonderful creation.
