

DISMANTLING DESTROYER GRAHAM. Recently this torpedo-boat destroyer was in collision with the steamship Panama. Cost of repairs would not be justified according to the Board of Inquiry.

SIX MEN ARRESTED ON HER STORY. Mrs. John Rupp told amazing story concerning murder of William Desmond Taylor, movie director.

LIEUT. COM. JOHN PHILIP SOUSA on Broad street yesterday afternoon.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

WHERE TROLLEY ROUTE 15 NOW TRAVELS. Horse car going toward West Philadelphia on Girard avenue, opposite the Joan of Arc statue, on the morning of April 24, 1893. The photograph is from the collection of the late Dr. J. Morton Boice. Send your old-time Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

IN RITTENHOUSE SQUARE. Kiddies did not complain when the sun sent the temperature up to 65. The youthful pogonist is Marion Crozer. It's Master William G. Hopkins who is "tipping" Park Guard Salgee, by finding him six pebbles.

THEY'RE HAVING A GOOD TIME. Twin sisters lunching at the headquarters of the Gospel Guards, Cambria street and Kensington avenue.

MISS PEARL A. HOWELL. Brooklyn's most prized beauty, exercises and trains like an athlete. Try this morning and night.

WATCH HIM THIS YEAR. George Powers makes wonderful showing at Penn. as outdoor practice begins.

HOW'D YOU LIKE TO BE IN CALIFORNIA? Miss Stella Grove, a deb, with her horse, on the strand at Coronado Beach.

A BOOSTER. Albert Stoltz assisted the Central North Philadelphia Business Men's Association in its parade.

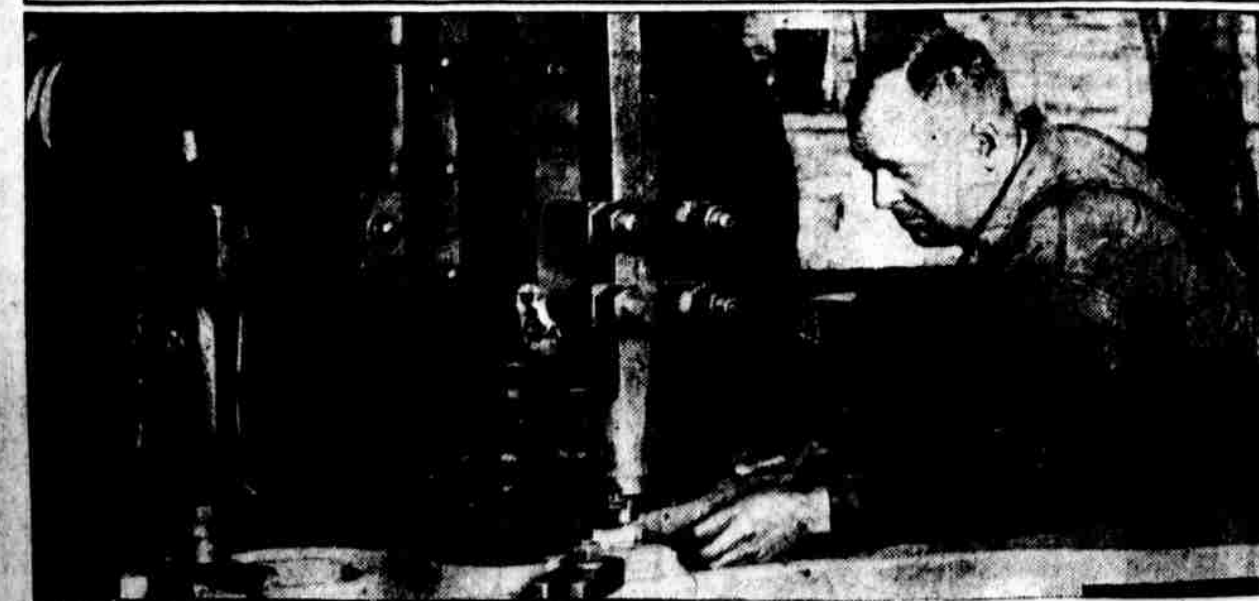

FOLLOW THE LEADER. When Larry Brown (leading), captain of the Penn track team, gets out for practice on Franklin Field he soon has many followers. Brown is getting in condition for the English relay competitions.

BUREAU OF WATER EMPLOYEES AS LIMERICK JURY. In the City Hall group are: Bottom row (left to right), Mary Rogers, Mae Hopkins, Marie Ross, Hannah Ross, Regina Downey, Mary Shea and Mary Aldrad. Top row, John Burns, Joseph Burns, H. Schmidt, W. G. Flood, Neil Crowley, T. Spence.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MILTON ELBERG, 2838 Jasper street, operating a drill machine that is used for slotting machinery, in the mill of H. W. Butterworth Sons Company, Cedar and York streets.

THE NOVELTY GIRL. Miss Edna Horn in show given by Oppenheim-Collins employees.

AN ADEPT WITH THE CUE. Miss Mary Johnson, of New York, is an expert at the game.

MISS ANNA VAUGHAN HYATT, sculptress, made Legion of Honor member by France.

WILLIAM GEORGE LOVE, bookkeeper at the Ninth Title and Trust Company, Kensington. He lives at 1806 East Taylor street.