

DREXEL RIFLEMEN HAVE GOOD EYES

Local Shooters Have Won Ten Out of Eleven Meets This Year

MADE TWO PERFECT SCORES

The Drexel Institute rifle team has been cleaning up matches right and left this season, making a mark which will be hard to beat.

Losses to Georgetown February 18 was Drexel's big match with Georgetown University.

ten shots prone. Georgetown scored 992 out of their 1000, while the best Drexel could do was to get 880.

By a peculiar coincidence Drexel claimed 992 as its final score, which would have given the team a tie.

Following the Georgetown match Lafayette was defeated rather easily by the score of 400-450.

The season opened auspiciously, when Drexel defeated Rutgers, 463-406, and the next week Pennsylvania College, of Gettysburg, was defeated, 462-472.

On April 1 Massachusetts Tech will be met and the schedule closes with West Virginia on April 8.

Locals Can Expect Little Outside Help in Winning American League Pennant

PLAY HARRISON SATURDAY

The soccer schedules for the last six weeks have been hard hit and few games have been played.

There isn't a team in the country that would like better to take the measure of the Phils at the present time than the boys who represent the club from Jersey.

Philadelphia, in view of the last few games in the American Soccer League, will not expect much help from the other teams.
