

MONTREAL'S CITY HALL WRECKED BY MIDNIGHT FIRE. The photograph was made when the fire fighters had the blaze under control on Sunday morning. Thousands of historic records and works of art were destroyed.

SITTING AT THE WINDOW. Joe and Nell are watching for the return of their owner, Miss Virginia Pearson, 5107 Parrish street. Some dogs!

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

NOT SO MANY YEARS AGO. When this view of the United States Mint, at the northwest corner of Juniper and Chestnut streets, was taken, workmen were busy building City Hall, shown in background. The Mint Arcade Building was next built on the site, which is now occupied by the Widener Building. Send your old-Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

SENATOR VARE AND HIS FAMILY. They arrived yesterday from Florida, where they have been for several weeks. Yes, they all like politics. From left to right: Mrs. Vare, Abigail (front), Dorothy, Florence, Mrs. Robert Carré, George and father

WENDELL BAKER, running for Harvard, first to do 100 yards in 19 seconds

BACK FROM BERMUDA. Secretary of State Hughes and Mrs. Hughes, passengers on the S. S. Hamilton

BESSIE F. NORRIS operating foot-power vehicle in Rittenhouse Square

MANY WOULD SMILE FOR LESS. Mrs. "Babe" Ruth and the newly created $75,000 smile. What wonderful photographs will be made as each $500 home run is registered

STAR BASKETBALLER. Da Grossa, guard of the Wenonah Military Academy team

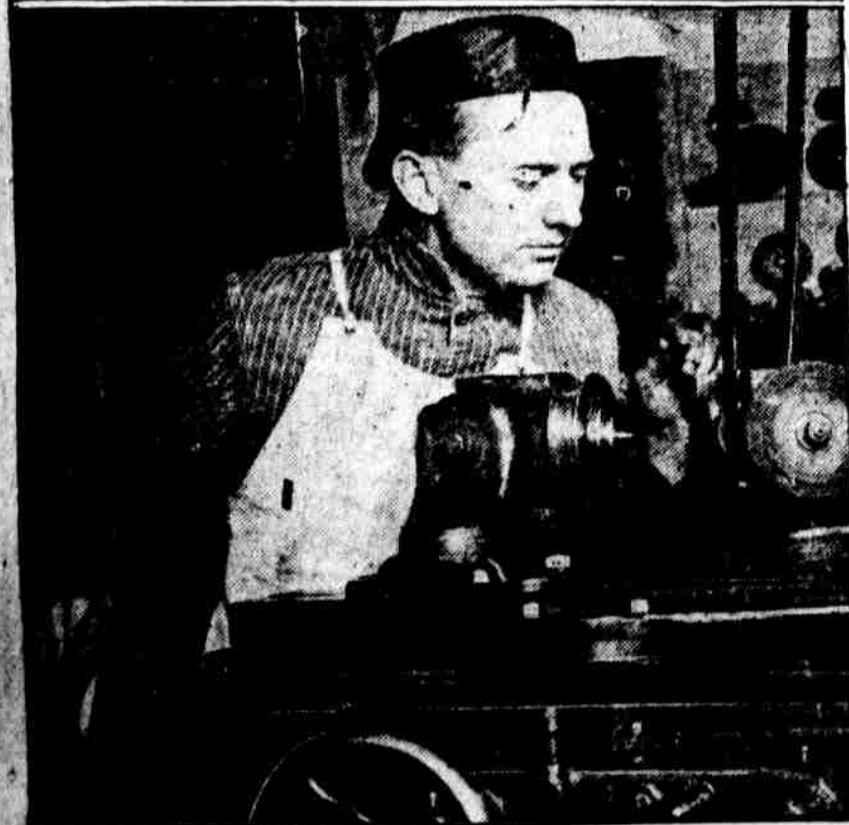

GETS NEW CLOTHES. A lad being fitted up with needed raiment by the Emergency Aid in connection with Bureau of Compulsory Education work

MISS FLORENCE WALTON, ballroom dancer, photographed in New York. Miss Walton made her stage debut in Philadelphia several years ago

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HENRY HENDRICKS operating a grinding machine in the shop of the Busfal Manufacturing Company, makers of machinery, at 182 North Seventh street

AN HUNGARIAN BEAUTY. Miss Ila Loth, who recently won a national beauty prize in her homeland

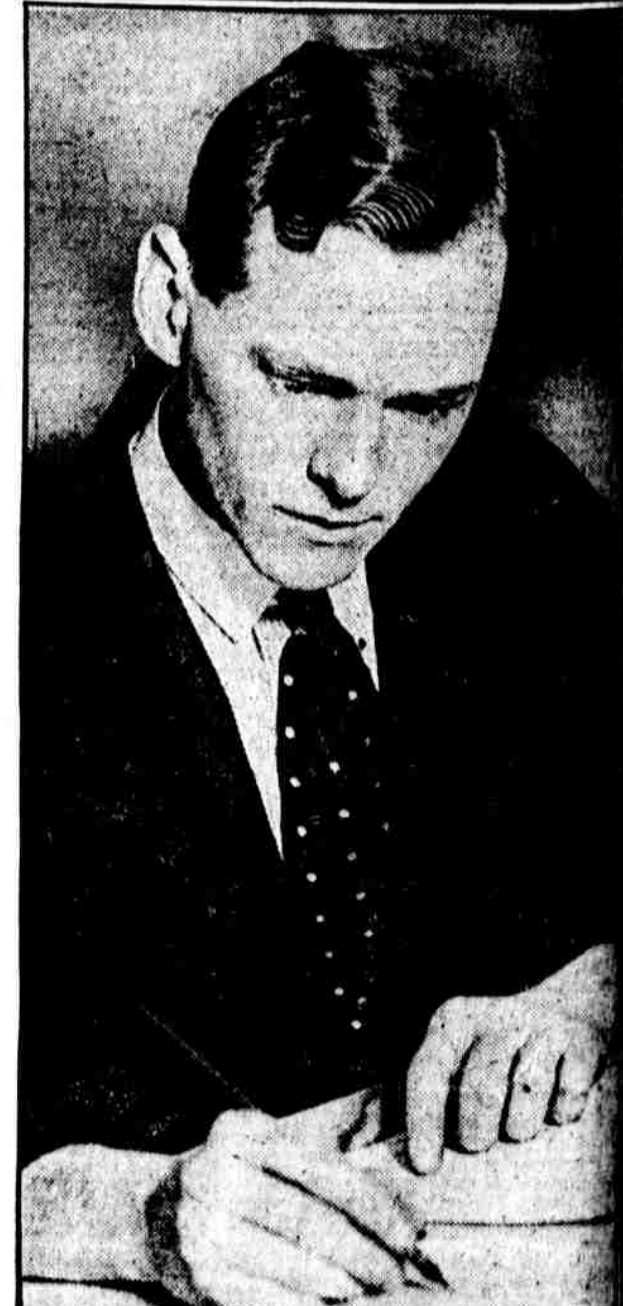

BONWIT TELLER CO. EMPLOYEES AS LIM'RICK JURY: Bottom row (left to right): Catherine Craven, Helen Barrett, Mae Guinan and Mildred Brown. Top row: Marie McGittigan, Laura McGinn, Doris Lehman, Helen Baird

CAPT. D. F. SELLERS, Sec. Denby's aide, to command battleship Maryland

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

MATHEW BONSAI, of 6442 Limekiln pike, paying teller at the Southwark National Bank, 610 South Second street. Hunting is his hobby