Dr. Corson launded the Armenian mission in Camden and paid a tribute to the Rev. A. S. Darakjian. The Rev. M. E. Snyder, superinnt of the Trenton district, told of lans for a simultaneous evangelistic ampaign for Trenton next fall. The Rev. D. E. Kendall will be the speaker. In concluding a resume of the actemplishments of the district, Dr. Snyder stated that St. Paul, Trenton, needed a new church. He said the structure should be erected this year.

$33,000 has already been paid off. The Vineland church was also rebuilt.

In recounting special occasions for the Bridgeton district, Dr. Wagg reported that Alloway observed its centennial celebration, the Head of the River commemorated its 101st anniversary, Tuckahoe observed its ninety-sary, and Center Square.

Word "Bar" Is Eliminated at Methodist Conference

Atlantic City, March 9. - The word "bar" was removed from the conference rules dictionary by Bishop Joseph F. Berry, of Philadel yesterday of the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal Conference.

During the organization routine Bishop Berry ruled with relation to the line fixing the location of the seats for delegates as "legal limits" instead "of bars, as in these prohibition days we are not talking so much about bars."

"The professional evangelism of the beamercialized, grotesque, denunciator and embroiling sort is rapidly going it is appointed place," Dr. Corson declared during the course of his annual report for the Camden district.

"This appalling travesty on Methodism will no longer be tolerated," Dr. Corson added. He said that twenty evangelistic services had been held in the district during the fall and winter and that further promotion in this field would be undertaken in the spring.

Atlantic City, March 9.—An arraignment of commercialized evangelism piced by Superintendent Alexander Corson, of the Camden District, was budly applicated today at the eighty-sixth annual meeting of the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference in session here at St. Paul's Church.

Reports of the four district superintendents had the attention of delegates eday. Another high light was the ansoncement by Rev. Alfred Wang that there had been 1700 conversions in the Bridgeton district the past year.

Atlantic City, March 9.—Increased passenger fares have lost to the rail-roads 23 per cent of the passenger fares have lost to the rail-roads 23 per cent of the passenger business they had in 1020 and also the good-will of the public, Fred W. England has capital which seeks opportunities in Russia. She also needs Russia's cheap raw materials. Ger-many needs Russian raw materials and many needs Russian raw materials and manufacturing advantages. France wants her debt paid. The Soviets want to break down the economic deadlock from which Russia suffers. The opportunities are here for important agreements, the real meaning of which may never appear on paper.
