

Steel Business Is Bum, So Herb Steen Is Advised by Boss to Try Luck in the Big League

HERB STEEN IS SURE HE WILL MAKE BERTH WITH THE CARDINALS

Parkesburg Star Arrives in St. Louis Camp at Orange, Tex., Confident He Will Prove No Lemon. Two Other Pennsylvanians There

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

Orange, Tex., March 9. CHARLES HERBERT STEEN is a ball player. He also is a citizen of good standing in the town of Coatesville, Pa., and is well known in and around Philadelphia.

HERB STEEN

Charles Herbert, who parts his name in the middle and is known as "Herb in semi-pro circles, arrived here this morning to do his darndest to become a member of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Steen played with the Parkesburg Steel and Iron Company team for six years and was considered one of the very best semi-pro outfielders in the business.

Herb had been asked to leave Parkesburg several times to go out in the world and seek his fortune, but refused each alluring offer.

"Business is bum," Mr. Beal is said to have replied, "and perhaps it will be best for you to take the big dive into big league baseball if you last only for a minute or two."

STEEEN is very anxious to make good, and it wouldn't be surprising if he did in another year. He is a likely looking prospect and believes he will give a good account of himself.

Not Superstitious, but Believes in Signs WE MET HERB in the train from New Orleans this morning, a short time before the brief stop at Orange.

A smile broke out on Steen's face and he handed out a liberal tip. "That's the best luck any one could have," he said.

Herb dug into an inside pocket instead of the hip, as we expected, and proudly held a rabbit's foot.

There are two other Pennsylvanians with the Cardinals, and both are catchers. Ralph Kistler has played around Philadelphia and toiled for Roy Thomas last year.

WARREN PERRY lives in Delano, Pa., wherever that is—and is a Girard College boy. He went to Albright College, where he was discovered by Charley Ketchner, who happened to be the coach.

Milton Stock Among Those Present MILTON STOCK has broken a record this year. He reported for spring practice, and it is the first time since the spring of 1915, when he was a member of the Phillies.

It is said that Stock was disposed of because he was so hard to handle. Last year he didn't sign until the night before the season opened.

ADOLFO is now working every day. He may make good, and again he may not. Anyway, he has been in a training camp.

STENTON SET FOR BIG GOLF CHANGES

Large, Modern Locker House to Be Built—New Eighteen-Hole Course Next Year

CLAPPER RENOMINATED

By SANDY McNBICK MEMBERS of the Stenton Country Club are all beaming today.

For they are now the proud patrons of what promises to be one of the most scintillating golf layouts along the local links loop.

The start on the comprehensive plans will be made ere the robin twitter in the trees notes the approach of spring.

The new locker house will be built on the site of the old. Despite rumors, the location of the clubhouse will remain the same.

There was a deal of discussion last night on the new golf course which will be started next season.

Real estate encroachment has given the impression that Stenton would pull up stakes from its present site, but this is not the case.

Stenton has held down its place on the map for twelve or thirteen years, and has some very fine features.

Stenton is anxious to enter a team in the Suburban League next matches. It had no regular members last year.

Stenton has some excellent golfers. A couple of years ago the best part of its star golfing members went over to Cedarbrook.

JOE JACKSON IS HOMEWARD BOUND

Local Welterweight Unable to Get Any Matches in Middle West

By LOUIS H. JAFFE JOE JACKSON is coming home again.

Joe Sir Joseph didn't stay away very long. After deciding that he was not getting the recognition he thought he should get by matchmakers here, Jackson decided that he "would have to leave his home town" in order to make good.

Joe Sir Joseph packed up, choo-chooed West and stepped off in Chicago. There Jackson placed himself under the wing of Harry Meyer, who incidentally handles the titles of Salvo Freedman.

OLD-TIME PITCHERS WON 40-ODD GAMES

Big Ed Walsh Turned in Fifty-five Victories; Larry Alexander Won Thirty and Soon It May Be Hot Stuff to Win Eleven

By GRANTLAND RICE The older generation fades. Their doorposts know the setting sun, and only phantoms haunt the glades where once they frolicked in their fun.

The years have called them from the lists. As never faces meet the glare; their ghosts are hidden in the mist. Whose ancient clamor stirred the air.

How do I know the fickle spin of fate has hurled them to the mat? Because no one has written in. Please publish "Casey at the Bat."

SPEAKING again of the older generation, a pitcher thought nothing of conducting seventy games a season. Then we came to Ed Walsh with fifty-five victories one year, Jack Chesbro with forty-three and Matthewson several times with thirty or more.

SOME years from now we'll be stumbling over headlines after this type: "Whoops leads the league with impressive total of eleven victories."

PRESIDENT HARDING has completed plans for his spring training trip in preparation for a return match with Ring W. Lardner and your correspondent. We have forwarded our ringside weights and forfeit money to Mr. George Christian, who writes us that a date in April or early May will be arranged for the next annual clash.

THE rumor that C. Mack's Athletics is to emerge from the cellar has been rudely exaggerated for the last seven years, but if some prophet is only persistent enough to hang on through a few more springs, the odds are at least even that he will make good in time.

LANDIS A SANDLOT ARBITER Baseball Commissioner Likely to Accept Such a Post Cleveland, O., March 9.—Commissioner of Organized Baseball lands may act in a similar capacity in the National Baseball Federation, the sandlot organization, it was learned here.

Secretary Fred W. Thomas and Clayton C. Townes, counsel of the National Baseball Federation, have left for Chicago, where they will confer with Judge Landis.

Judge Landis would act only on cases which could not be decided by the federation and on appeals to the federation's decisions. He would receive no salary, it was announced.

Three games are scheduled for the Post tournament this evening. St. John's Military Academy will meet Swarthmore Prep in the only prep school game of the evening.

Belmont, running his first race for Central, carried off individual honors by capturing the quarter mile and the furlong. His time, 50 seconds and 1:15.50, were exceptionally fast for a new man.

The Mirrors took seven of the nine events and won every place in the quarter, 220-yard run, half mile, high jump, mile and hurdles. Southern scored in the shot put, 35-yard dash and broad jump.

Charley Gordon, captain of the team, was unable to run on account of illness. He will soon be able to run and his addition to the squad practically assures Central a win in the mile.
