

THE RED FOX GETS STARTED AT KENNETT SQUARE—SOME OF THE FOLLOWERS. Ralph Alexander, master of hounds, releasing the fox in the 126th annual chase immortalized by Bayard Taylor in his "Story of Kennett." Soon the dogs and the crowd were on the trail. Among the hunters was Mrs. Lewis Miles, shown with her horse

DESIGNED OWN GOWN FOR PRINCESS MARY'S WEDDING BALL. Lady Diana Manners is shown with her cloth-of-gold creation

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

A MARVELOUS CHANGE IN SIXTEEN YEARS. The upper view shows how the northwest corner of Fifty-eighth street and Chester avenue looked in 1908. Below is the Westminster Presbyterian Church, which now occupies the site. The photographs were contributed by John W. Culbertson, 5641 Chester avenue. If you have old-Philadelphia photographs send them to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

HOUNDS IN ACTION. Fifteen minutes after Reynard streaked away in the annual fox hunt at Kennett Square yesterday ten packs of dogs started on the trail

AT NEW YORK'S CHU CHIN CHOW BALL. Alice Wynne appeared as a solo dancer in this Russian attire

THIS IS DICK CORNELL. Captain of Swarthmore's football eleven caught in lacrosse practice

PRINCESS MARY WEDDING PARTY ARRIVING AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY. They are passing under the huge banner placed over the street by the city officials of Westminster, one of the "little cities" that make up Greater London

HOST AND HOSTESS. The Rev. Alfonso Dare and Mrs. Dare are busy folk as New Jersey Methodists meet in conference at the St. Paul's M.E. Church, Atlantic City

CALLED A SECOND CARUSO. Richard T. Hunter, deckhand on San Francisco ferryboat, may soon be heard in grand opera

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EUGENE FREY, 3717 North Sixth street, operating a machine in the factory of B. F. Hoffman, Inc., 321 North Broad street, where automobile parts are made

CAPTAIN MAX BERKOWITZ leader of Young Men's Hebrew Association basketball team

INTRODUCING A PENN FRESHMAN. Ben Ownes, of Buffalo, who did 11 feet, 9 ins.

SHE'S FROM PITTSBURGH. Mary Chapman is captain of the University of Pittsburgh co-ed basketball team. They played Swarthmore girls yesterday

FORBES STORE EMPLOYEES ACT AS LIMERICK JURY. Reading left to right: Dorothy Kolb, Anna Finnett, Isabell Bonner, Lillian Charleston, Mrs. E. S. Fraim and Rose Messinger

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

ARTHUR STEINFELD, assistant cashier of the Strawberry Mansion branch of the State Bank of Philadelphia. Canoeing is his hobby. He lives at 2281 North Thirty-third street