Settlement of Trouble Reached by Agreement Between Leaders -

TWO KILLED IN BELFAST

By the Associated Press Belfast, March 11 .- A settlement of the trouble between the rival forces of the Irish Republican Army in Limerick has been reached. Under the agreement both parties will evacuate the city. Small maintenance units of official forces, it is provided, will occupy the forces, it is provided, will occupy the military barracks now in possession of the free state troops. (By "official" forces presumably the British troops which remained in Limerick are meant.) At 11 o'clock this morning large bodies of troops were leaving the city. Casualties in Belfast today as a result of continuance of the disorders included one person killed, a woman, and two others seriously injured. Katherine Neeson, standing outside her home in Little George street, was shot and killed by three men, who esshot and killed by three men, who es-caped by boarding a tramcar.
