LEGION POST PLANS TO BUILD NEW HOME

Breen-McCracken Committee Hopes to Have Work Under Way by January 1

OTHER NEWS OF VETERANS

The Executive Committee of the Breen-McCracken Post 270, American Legion, seems to have finished its plans for financing a permanent home. The committee has reason to hope that ground will be broken before the end of the year. Many tentative physical plans for the home have been submitted to the committee, but not one has been accepted. The committee is guided by the idea that the home, when completed, must be one of the finest assembly halls in Philadelphia. The post is an amalgamation of what were the Philadelphia Maneto Post 270 and the old Breen-McCracken Post 207. Its jurisdiction covers the thirty-fourth and forty-fourth wards, and its headquarters are at 306 North Fifty-second street.

The principal result of a meeting of the Herbert Warriner Post 70 in the Library Building, at Twenty-third and Shunk streets, Thursday night, were plans in embryo for a large entertainment and dance to be held during Easter week. At this meeting Chairman Lindsay of the County Committee, spoke on the unemployment situation, and urged members of the Warriner Post who are in need of jobs to take advantage of the help offered by the Legion.

With the William T. Shtelzine Post 96, at least, the membership drive has been mounting well. Within few months it promises to double its membership. This post meets each first and third Thursday at the Public Library, 2407 South Broad street.

A dance at the Roosevelt Hall on April 21 is planned.

From the Raymond E. Greeley Post 61 comes the announcement that the athletic team that captured highest honors at the National American Legion field and track meet at Franklin Field last year has been kept intact. Engaged to retain the cup, the members of the post plan soon to place the team under active and systematic training.

Post 315 will give over its quarters tonight to the Disabled Officers of the World War Association for its reunion. All officers of the World War who have incurred major or minor disabilities as a result of service have been asked to attend.

To establish a sinking fund, Joseph S. Ferguson Post has taken five shares of stock in a building and loan organization. The other outstanding activity of this post is the preparation of plans for a hall, to be given on the first Friday following Easter.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. W. H. S. Bateman will entertain members of the Logan Post at a tea in her home, 5131 North Broad street. The post will have its regular meeting Thursday night in the Logan Library.

Thomas B. Fales Post 168 is preparing for "Ladies' Night" for April 20.

Somewhat closer to hand is the St. Patrick's party to be given Friday by the members of Henry K. Schmidt Post at 325 West Susquehanna avenue.

The Raymond C. Thoir Post 47 has set the date of its banquet for March 25. The affair will be held in the Camden Armory.

MAN ARRESTED SAYS GIRLS SHOW MORE THAN HE DOES
Women in Knee-Lengths Shocked at Seeing His Shin

Chicago, March 14.—"Maybe I did wrong, but I couldn't help it." This was the explanation made in court yesterday by Carl Sattley, who had been arrested on complaint of Mrs. Abel Wallace, who charged that Sattley took too much notice of Mrs. Wallace's two pretty daughters, Mrs. A. E. Lonston, twenty, and Mollie Wallace, seventeen, in a street car.

Sattley told the Court the young women wore knee-length skirts and, as he could plainly see, rolled stockings.

"My attention was first attracted to this group," Sattley told the Judge, "when they began to look at me and exchange sharp remarks. Then all of a sudden the older woman stepped forward and shot her finger at me."

"A policeman ought to get you," she said. "Your appearance is disgraceful. I won't have these innocent girls looking at such a disgraceful exhibition."

Mr. Sattley looked down and discovered that the cuff of one trouser leg had curled up about half an inch over the contact point of his garment, exposing a patch of his skin. He blushed.

"I am sorry," he said. "But those young women with you are displaying more than I am. Also, I haven't complained."

DR. STRATON CONDEMNS
"PULPIT PUSSY-FOOTING"

In Open Letter Pastor Calls for More Sensational Preaching

New York, March 14.—(By A. P.)—
In a letter addressed to "Discriminating
New Yorkers," the Rev. John Ronch Straton, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, headed for the "overthrow of 'pulpit pussy-footing,'" and the adoption of more "sensational preaching."

It was Dr. Straton's pupil that William A. Brady, theatrical producer, recently defended the morals of the stage and moving-picture studio, in open debate with the pastor. The Rev.
Dr. Stuart MacArthur, pastor emeritus, recently withdrew from the congregation after criticizing his successor for sensationalism.

"There is no use in trying to heal the cancer of sin with soothing syrup," Dr. Straton declared in his open letter.
"And it is idle to sprinkle cologne water upon the putrid iniquities of a rebellious race."

With ten millions of the human race rotting in untidy graves because of humanity's sins and war lust, and with such a stupor of crime and vice and shamelessness as society has never known before, surely some preachers are needed who will dare to speak the truth at all hazards—no matter how loud and spare not, even though they are quartered in the streets and called to a cross.
