Many St. Patrick's Day Affairs Are Listed by Veterans' Organizations

FLOWER SALE IS PLANNED

The whole world, says a certain Philadelphia poet who had an hereditary connoisseurship in such matters, is Irish on the seventeenth of March. That it applies as much to the American Legion as anything else goes, of course, without saying, but it would seem even a little more so, from a glance at the many St. Patrick's Day celebrations to be held by various Legion Posts throughout the city.

Another St. Patrick's Day entertainment will be given by members of the Robert J. Martin Post 98. Souvenirs will be given to every guest. This affair will be held in Post headquarters.

The Prince Forbes Auxiliary is planning a flower sale, to be held on some date previous to Easter.

George H. Imhof Post 153 will hold its next meeting March 25, at P. O. S. of A. Hall, Twenty-ninth and Dauphin streets. Afterward the members will be guests of the Ladies' Auxiliary at a large dinner.

Greene Post 155 will hold its next meeting March 25, at P. O. S. of A. Hall, Twenty-ninth and Dauphin streets. Afterward the members will be guests of the Ladies' Auxiliary at a large dinner.

The Sad End of the Mortimer Moth Family

ONCE upon a time, dear children, there was a darling little family of moths who lived in a rug. (Johnny, get off the piano!)

Mortimer Moth had chosen this rug with particular care, because, he said, there is nothing like having the proper environment in which to raise one's family. So he insisted from the very start upon settling down in a genuine antique Persian.

His older brother Lawrence, married and went to live in an Arminster, while his sister Lucille eloped with a poor moth who lived in a hall carpet. But Mortimer Moth could never be brought to speak of Dennis, the black sheep of the family, who went so far as to take a lease in a rag rug in a bathroom.

THE union of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moth was blessed with a large number of happy moth children who were the pride and comfort of their cultured parents.

There was nothing the old folks enjoyed so much as to take their family with them whenever they went out.

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 111—Magnetized Paper

A large piece of this paper is placed on the palm of the hand, and the hand is held over and the paper adheres to the palm.

The trick is accomplished by laying the paper flat on the table and rubbing with the palm a number of times. The friction generates electricity and causes the paper to adhere to the hand. The paper starts to fall a downward motion of the hand will keep it in place.

Another way of doing the trick is to hold the palm very slightly at the base of the forefinger. This will make the paper stick and will not be noticed. After the sheet is taken from the hand, the hand is held over the table.

GREED FOR GEMS ASSAILED

Judge Says Women "Use Dollar Mark to Steer Husbands to Jail"

New York, March 16. — "Greed for diamonds and furs is the curse of the times," Judge Louis D. Gibbs, of the Bronx County Court, declared yesterday in suspending sentence on Saul Zukor, millinery dealer, who pleaded guilty to receiving stolen goods.

"Modern women—a great majority of them—" he said, "are using the dollar mark to steer their husbands into jail. Just as long as the men of the family bring home the money, no questions are asked. The trouble with the man of today is that he is too eager to make money to supply his wife or daughter with diamonds and furs. He is bound to get it somehow—honestly or by criminal methods."

Judge Gibbs' condemnation was delivered after Mrs. Zukor, the prisoner's wife, had been called to the stand. Attired in an expensive fur coat and her fingers covered with rings, she indignantly denied that she had knowledge of her husband's crime, though admitting that she had charge of her husband's store. Judge Gibbs accused her of being in league with her husband, and ordered her from the courtroom.

FORESTRY EMPLOYEES SAFE

No Pressure Will Be Used Against Them, Pinchot Says

Harrisburg, March 16.—Gifford Pinchot, State Forestry Commissioner, yesterday announced to the attaches of his department that notwithstanding the fact he is a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination they are not to use their official positions for or against any candidate, especially not for him.

"You may vote for whom you please," he said. And he added: "There will be no assessment against your salaries in my interest, either before or after the primaries."

The information came in the form of a letter to every employe of the department. Capitol Hill is used to taking orders and used to paying a 3 per cent assessment for political purposes once a year, whether there is a campaign or not.

AMERICAN STORES CO.

The Wonders of Our City

Philadelphia has many unique claims to fame. It is the birthplace of American liberty. It was the first capital of our nation. Here our flag was designed.

Philadelphia is the workshop of the world. During the Great War, Philadelphia's gigantic shipyard at Hog Island astounded the world by its marvelous output of ships, then the most vital instrument of warfare. And yet in peace we are known as the City of Homes. Government statistics prove that it costs less to live in Philadelphia than in any other big city in the U. S. [We may be pardoned the justifiable pride that is ours in the part we have played for more than a third of a century in easing the housekeepers' table burdens.]

Boost Philadelphia whenever and wherever you can—every Philadelphian has much to be proud of.
