

WOMAN JUROR OUSTED

Talked to Man Connected With Defense in Case on Trial

Altoona, Pa., March 16.—(By A. P.)—Mrs. H. L. Savage, a member of the jury trying Joseph E. Trenga, of Pittsburgh, for stealing jewelry at a warehouse on the Pennsylvania Railroad, talked to a man connected with the defense during the noon recess Wednesday.

Mrs. Savage was withdrawn from the jury and the case was continued with only eleven men jurors, who this morning brought in a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods, but not guilty of larceny.

DRUGS APPROVED AS HOSPITAL SITE

Hazleton, Pa., March 16.—Location of the proposed Luzerne County tuberculosis hospital near Drums, Butler county, was recommended yesterday by engineers and experts sent by the State Department of Health. Plans will be ready by early summer and work is to be started within the next six months.

Who Said Suits Wouldn't be Good This Spring?

We're selling them! Many different versions! In tweeds! In navy tricotine and Poiret, strictly tailored! And, of course, the Cape Suits!

At the left, an excellent model in tan Kelly tweed at $25.00. The third figure is a black serge with faint white striping—the type of Suit that has always been good and always will be special at $35.00. For a Cape-Suit you will have a long serge to find a handsomer one than shown above; rose-color tweed at $52.50. At the right, tan herringbone with contrasting braid to add distinction; $35.00.

These are all in women's sizes. There are many others in both women's and misses' sizes.

McCallum Hosiery

We specialize in McCallum Hosiery because we believe that no better Stockings are made. As the McCallum people say in their national advertising, "You just know she wears them" when you see an unusually well-dressed woman.

There are many different numbers among which the following are particularly good:

Plain heavy silk (all-silk including tops and feet) in black, white and shoe shades—$3.50 a pair.

Cloaked All-silk in navy-and-gold, navy-and-white, bronze-and-white, and others—$4.50 a pair.

Lace cloaks in white-and-black, black-and-white—$6.00 a pair.

McCallum Novelty Embroidered Silk Stockings in self cloaks—$6.50 a pair.

Fine Silks

For many generations the name of Darlington has been closely associated with Fine Silks. In our new Silk Salon on the Second Floor we are better prepared than ever to serve you well—plenty of light, plenty of room, experienced sales-people, a general environment unsurpassed anywhere.
