

GIRL PREACHER launches revival in West Philadelphia. Miss Nell E. Mays, of Washington, photographed in the pulpit of the Angora Baptist Church, Fifty-eighth street and Thomas avenue, yesterday

IRELAND'S BIGGEST GARRISON FOR FREE STATE SOLDIERS. Irish troops entering the Victoria Barracks, Athlone. Little by little the Irish soldiers are being supplied with uniforms and modern equipment International

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

A BIT OF OLD GERMANTOWN. This structure, known as the Wagner House, at 4840 Germantown avenue, was built in 1747. It was occupied by the Hessians during the battle of Germantown. The photograph shows the building as it looked in 1902. A row of modern houses now occupies the site of the home and yard. The photograph was contributed by G. C. Frantz, 167 East Walnut lane, Germantown. Send your old Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

MAKES FRAME FOR PRESIDENT'S PORTRAIT. John Benson Moore has made frames for pictures of Presidents from Grant on

LACROSSE MELEE. The players were in a speedy combat near a goal at Paddington recreation center, London, when the photographer made his picture. The goal tender (at left) has her eye on the ball Central News Photo

NICOLA A. MONTANI talks of church music in Editorial Page interview

IN RUSSIA'S FAMINE AREA. Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the famous Arctic explorer (at left), watches the work of unloading American flour. He made a thorough study of the famine situation. Central News Photo

CHARMING DANCING GIRL. She was photographed in New York's Central Park while rehearsing a few days ago W. W. P.

YOUNG QUENTIN ROOSEVELT, son of Assistant Secretary of Navy, playing with rolling stock

PI SIGMA DELTA FRATERNITY AS LIMERICK JURY. Bottom row (left to right)—Leslie Zackey, Ernest Cronlund, Jr., and Earle Whitehead. Top row—Lewis Gotschall, James Keyser, Foster Simmons, Earl Huston and M. Heinemann

PEARL A. HOWELL, the Brooklyn actress whose success on Broadway is being heralded throughout the country

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

RUSSELL L. WELDY, 562 Royden street, Camden, a piano tuner, busy at a piano in the workroom of the G. W. Huver Company, 1081 Chestnut street

DOWN SOUTH WITH THE PHILLIES. "Bevo" Lebourveau, his wife and child in Florida, near the training quarters. "Bevo" is out of the game, due to a collision with a fence Thomas

HER LEG WAS SCARRED IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT. Miss Peggy Lorden, of Boston, asked $5000, claiming she could not wear silk hosiery. One thousand dollars was allowed

AT BROAD STREET AND ALLEGHENY AVENUE. A bit of action in the hard-fought game played by Hardwick & Magee and the Green Ribbon teams

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

PAYING TELLER. Albert R. McCullough, 4720 North Twelfth street. He is connected with the West Philadelphia Bank. Mr. McCullough is married. Baseball and basketball are his hobbies